MERGER PROPOSED — YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

[●], 2021

Dear Stockholder:

You are cordially invited to attend the 2021 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the “OCSL Annual Meeting”) of Oaktree Specialty Lending Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“OCSL”), to be held virtually on [●], 2021, at [●] [p.m.][a.m.], Pacific Time, at the following website: www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/ocsl2021. Stockholders of record of OCSL at the close of business on [●], 2021 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the OCSL Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The notice of annual meeting and the joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this letter provide an outline of the business to be conducted at the OCSL Annual Meeting. At the OCSL Annual Meeting, you will be asked to:

- (i) elect two directors, who will each serve until the 2024 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until his or her successor is duly elected and qualifies (the “Director Proposal”);
- (ii) ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for OCSL for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2021 (the “Auditor Proposal”); and
- (iii) approve the issuance of shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of OCSL (“OCSL Common Stock”) to be issued pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 28, 2020 (the “Merger Agreement”), among Oaktree Strategic Income Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“OCSI”), OCSL, Lion Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of OCSL (“Merger Sub”), and, for the limited purposes set forth therein, Oaktree Fund Advisors, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and investment adviser to each of OCSL and OCSI (such proposal, the “Merger Stock Issuance Proposal” and collectively with the Director Proposal and the Auditor Proposal, the “OCSL Proposals”).

Closing of the Mergers (as defined below) is contingent upon (a) OCSL stockholder approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal, (b) OCSI stockholder approval of the Merger Agreement and (c) satisfaction or waiver of certain other closing conditions. If the Merger does not close, then the OCSL Common Stock will not be issued pursuant to the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal, even if approved by the OCSL stockholders.

OCSL and OCSI are proposing a combination of both companies by a merger and related transactions pursuant to the Merger Agreement in which Merger Sub would merge with and into OCSI (the “Merger”), with OCSI continuing as the surviving company and as a wholly owned subsidiary of OCSL. Immediately after the effectiveness of the Merger, OCSI will merge with and into OCSL (together with the Merger, the “Mergers”), with OCSL continuing as the surviving company.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of OCSI (“OCSI Common Stock”) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned by OCSL or any of its consolidated subsidiaries (the “Cancelled Shares”)) will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of OCSL Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio (as defined below), plus any cash in lieu of fractional shares.

Under the Merger Agreement, as of a mutually agreed date no earlier than 48 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) prior to the Effective Time (such date, the “Determination Date”), each of OCSI and OCSL will deliver to the other a calculation of its net asset value as of such date (such calculation with respect to OCSI, the “Closing OCSI Net Asset Value” and such calculation with respect to OCSL, the “Closing OCSL Net Asset Value”), in each case using a pre-agreed set of assumptions, methodologies and adjustments. Based on such calculations, the parties will calculate the “OCSI Per Share NAV”, which will be equal to (i) the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value divided by (ii) the number of shares of OCSL Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Determination Date (excluding any Cancelled Shares), and the “OCSL Per Share NAV”, which will be equal to (A) the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value divided by (B) the number of shares of OCSL Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Determination Date. The “Exchange Ratio” will be equal to the quotient (rounded to four decimal places) of (i) the OCSI Per Share NAV divided by (ii) the OCSL Per Share NAV.

In connection with entry into the Merger Agreement and subject to completion of the transactions contemplated thereby, Oaktree Fund Advisors, LLC has agreed to waive $750,000 of base management fees payable to it under the investment advisory agreement, dated as of May 4, 2020, between OCSL and Oaktree Fund Advisors, LLC in each of the eight quarters immediately following the closing of the Mergers (for an aggregate waiver of $6.0 million of base management fees).

The market value of the consideration to be received by OCSI’s stockholders will fluctuate with changes in the market price of OCSL Common Stock. OCSL urges you to obtain current market quotations of OCSL Common Stock. OCSL Common Stock trades on The Nasdaq Global Select Market (“Nasdaq”) under the ticker symbol “OCSL”. The following table shows the closing sale prices of OCSL Common Stock, as reported on Nasdaq on October 28, 2020, the last trading day before the execution of the Merger Agreement, and on [●], 2021, the last trading day before printing this document.

	OCSL Common Stock
Closing Sales Price on October 28, 2020	$ 4.55
Closing Sales Price on [●], 2021	$ [●]

Your vote is extremely important. The holders of at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of OCSL Common Stock must be present at the OCSL Annual Meeting for each of the OCSL Proposals to be voted on. The election of directors in connection with the Director Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a plurality of votes cast by holders of shares of OCSL Common Stock present at the OCSL Annual Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote thereat. The approval of each of the Auditor Proposal and the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of votes cast by holders of shares of OCSL Common Stock present at the OCSL Annual Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote thereat. Votes to “withhold authority” and broker non-votes (which occur when a beneficial owner does not instruct its broker, bank, trustee or nominee holding its shares of OCSL Common Stock how to vote such shares on its behalf), if any, will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Director Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Auditor Proposal or the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

After careful consideration and, with respect to the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal, on the recommendation of a special committee of the Board of Directors of OCSL (the “OCSL Board”), the OCSL Board unanimously recommends that OCSL’s stockholders vote “FOR” the election of each of the nominees proposed by the OCSL Board in connection with the Director Proposal, “FOR” the Auditor Proposal and “FOR” the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

It is important that your shares be represented at the OCSL Annual Meeting. Please follow the instructions on the enclosed proxy card and vote via the Internet, by telephone or by signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card. OCSL encourages you to vote via the Internet as it saves OCSL significant time and processing costs. Voting by proxy does not deprive you of your right to participate in the virtual OCSL Annual Meeting.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus describes the OCSL Annual Meeting, the Mergers and the documents related to the Mergers (including the Merger Agreement) that OCSL’s stockholders should

Please carefully read this entire document, including “Risk Factors” beginning on page 20 and as otherwise incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, for a discussion of the risks relating to the Mergers and OCSL. MERGER PROPOSED — YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Stockholder:

You are cordially invited to attend the Special Meeting of Stockholders (the “OCSI Special Meeting”) of Oaktree Strategic Income Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“OCSI”), to be held virtually on [●], 2021, at [●] [p.m.][a.m.], Pacific Time, at the following website: www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/ocsi2021. Stockholders of record of OCSI at the close of business on [●], 2021 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the OCSI Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The notice of special meeting and the joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this letter provide an outline of the business to be conducted at the OCSI Special Meeting. At the OCSI Special Meeting, you will be asked to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 28, 2020 (the “Merger Agreement”), among OCSI, Oaktree Specialty Lending Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“OCSL”), Lion Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of OCSL (“Merger Sub”), and, for the limited purposes set forth therein, Oaktree Fund Advisors, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and investment adviser to each of OCSL and OCSI, and approve the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Mergers (as defined below) (such proposal collectively, the “Merger Proposal”).

Closing of the Mergers (as defined below) is contingent upon (a) OCSI stockholder approval of the Merger Proposal, (b) OCSL stockholder approval of the issuance of shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of OCSL (“OCSL Common Stock”) pursuant to the Merger Agreement and (c) satisfaction or waiver of certain other closing conditions.

OCSL and OCSI are proposing a combination of both companies by a merger and related transactions pursuant to the Merger Agreement in which Merger Sub would merge with and into OCSI (the “Merger”), with OCSI continuing as the surviving company and as a wholly owned subsidiary of OCSL. Immediately after the effectiveness of the Merger, OCSI will merge with and into OCSL (together with the Merger, the “Mergers”), with OCSL continuing as the surviving company.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of OCSI (“OCSI Common Stock”) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned by OCSL or any of its consolidated subsidiaries (the “Cancelled Shares”)) will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of OCSL Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio (as defined below), plus any cash in lieu of fractional shares.

Under the Merger Agreement, as of a mutually agreed date no earlier than 48 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) prior to the Effective Time (such date, the “Determination Date”), each of OCSI and OCSL will deliver to the other a calculation of its net asset value as of such date (such calculation with respect to OCSI, the “Closing OCSI Net Asset Value” and such calculation with respect to OCSL, the “Closing OCSL Net Asset Value”), in each case using a pre-agreed set of assumptions, methodologies and adjustments. Based on such calculations, the parties will calculate the “OCSI Per Share NAV”, which will be equal to (i) the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value divided by (ii) the number of shares of OCSI Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Determination Date (excluding any Cancelled Shares), and the “OCSL Per Share NAV”, which will be equal to (A) the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value divided by (B) the number of shares of OCSL Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Determination Date. The “Exchange Ratio” will be equal to the quotient (rounded to four decimal places) of (i) the OCSI Per Share NAV divided by (ii) the OCSL Per Share NAV.

OCSI urges you to obtain current market quotations of OCSL Common Stock. OCSL Common Stock trades on The Nasdaq Global Select Market ("Nasdaq") under the ticker symbol "OCSL". The following table shows the closing sale prices of OCSL Common Stock, as reported on Nasdaq on October 28, 2020, the last trading day before the execution of the Merger Agreement, and on [●], 2021, the last trading day before printing this document.

Your vote is extremely important. At the OCSI Special Meeting, you will be asked to vote on the Merger Proposal. The approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of OCSI Common Stock entitled to vote at the OCSI Special Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes (which occur when a beneficial owner does not instruct its broker, bank, trustee or nominee holding its shares of OCSI Common Stock how to vote such shares on its behalf) will not count as affirmative votes cast and will therefore have the same effect as votes "against" the Merger Proposal.

After careful consideration, on the recommendation of a special committee of the Board of Directors of OCSI, the Board of Directors of OCSI unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Mergers, and unanimously recommends that OCSI's stockholders vote "FOR" the Merger Proposal.

It is important that your shares be represented at the OCSI Special Meeting. Q: What constitutes a “quorum” for the OCSL Annual Meeting?

A: For OCSL to conduct business at the OCSL Annual Meeting, a quorum of OCSL Stockholders must be present. Shares for which brokers have not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares and do not have discretionary authority to vote on certain proposals (which are considered “broker non-votes” with respect to such proposals) will be treated as shares present for quorum purposes at the OCSL Annual Meeting.

Pursuant to OCSL's fourth amended and restated bylaws ("OCSL's bylaws"), the chairman of the OCSL Annual Meeting shall have the power to adjourn the OCSL Annual Meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, from time to time for any reason and without notice other than announcement at the OCSL Annual Meeting.

Abstentions will be treated as shares present for quorum purposes. Pursuant to OCSI's amended and restated bylaws ("OCSI's bylaws"), the chairman of the OCSI Special Meeting shall have the power to adjourn the OCSI Special Meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, from time to time for any reason and without notice other than announcement at the OCSI Special Meeting.

Q: What vote is required to approve each of the proposals at the OCSL Annual Meeting?

A: The affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of OCSL Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon at the OCSL Annual Meeting is required to elect each director nominee of OCSL (i.e., the candidate receiving the most "for" votes will win each election). Stockholders may not cumulate their votes. Votes to "withhold authority" and broker non-votes, if any, will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the Director Proposal.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of outstanding shares of OCSL Common Stock at the OCSL Annual Meeting in person or by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present is required for approval of the Auditor Proposal and the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal (i.e., the number of shares voted "for" the proposal must exceed the number of shares voted "against" such proposal). Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the Auditor Proposal or the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

Q: What vote is required to approve the proposal being considered at the OCSI Special Meeting?

A: The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of OCSI Common Stock is required to approve the OCSI Merger Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will have the effect of a vote "against" this proposal.

A: As discussed in more detail in "Description of the Merger Agreement — Conditions to Closing the Merger," the closing of the Mergers (the "Closing") is conditioned on (i) OCSI Stockholder approval of the Merger Proposal, (ii) OCSL Stockholder approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and (iii) satisfaction or waiver of certain other closing conditions.

If the Mergers do not close because either the OCSL Stockholders or the OCSI Stockholders do not approve the applicable proposals or any of the other conditions to the Closing is not satisfied or waived, each of OCSL and OCSI will continue to operate pursuant to the current agreements in place for each, and each of OCSL's and OCSI's respective directors and officers will continue to serve as its directors and officers, respectively, until their successors are duly elected and qualified, or their resignation.

Questions and Answers about the Mergers

Q: What will happen in the Mergers?

A: Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub will be merged with and into OCSI. OCSI will be the surviving company and will continue its existence as a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware. As of the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease. Immediately after the occurrence of the Effective Time, in the Second Merger, the surviving company will merge with and into OCSL with OCSL continuing as the surviving company.

Q: What will OCSI Stockholders receive in the Mergers?

A: Under the Merger Agreement, as of the Determination Date, each of OCSI and OCSL will deliver to the other a calculation of its NAV as of such date (such calculation with respect to OCSI, the “Closing OCSI Net Asset Value” and such calculation with respect to OCSL, the “Closing OCSL Net Asset Value”), in each case using a pre-agreed set of assumptions, methodologies and adjustments. Based on such calculations, the parties will calculate the “OCSI Per Share NAV”, which will be equal to (i) the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value divided by (ii) the number of shares of OCSI Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Determination Date (excluding any shares owned by OCSL or any of its consolidated subsidiaries (the “Cancelled Shares”)), and the “OCSL Per Share NAV”, which will be equal to (A) the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value divided by (B) the number of shares of OCSL Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Determination Date. The “Exchange Ratio” will be equal to the quotient (rounded to four decimal places) of (i) the OCSI Per Share NAV divided by (ii) the OCSL Per Share NAV.

OCSI and OCSL will update and redeliver the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value or the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value, respectively, in the event of a material change to such calculation between the Determination Date and the closing of the Mergers and if needed to ensure that the calculation is determined within 48 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) prior to the Effective Time.

Q: Is the Exchange Ratio subject to any adjustment?

A: Yes. The Exchange Ratio will be adjusted only if, between the Determination Date and the Effective Time, the respective outstanding shares of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock will have been increased or decreased or changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities, as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up, combination or exchange of shares, or if a stock dividend or dividend payable in any other securities will be declared with a record date within such period, as permitted by the Merger Agreement. Because the Exchange Ratio will be determined within 48 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) prior to the Effective Time, the time period during which such an adjustment could occur will be relatively short.

Q: Who is responsible for paying the expenses relating to completing the Mergers?

A: Except with respect to (i) all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the Mergers, (ii) all filing and other fees in connection with any filing under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the “HSR Act”), and (iii) fees and expenses for legal services to OCSL and OCSI in connection with the Merger Agreement and the Mergers (excluding fees for legal services to the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSI Special Committee), which, in each case, shall be borne equally by OCSL and OCSI, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (including the Mergers) will be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses. It is anticipated that OCSL will bear expenses of approximately $2.2 million in connection with the Mergers ($0.1 million of which had been incurred by OCSL as of September 30, 2020) and OCSI will bear expenses of approximately $2.5 million in connection with the Mergers ($0.1 million of which had been incurred by OCSI as of September 30, 2020).

Q: Will I receive dividends after the Mergers?

A: Subject to applicable legal restrictions and the sole discretion of the OCSL Board, OCSL intends to declare and pay regular cash distributions to OCSL Stockholders on a quarterly basis. For a history of the dividend declarations and distributions paid by OCSL since October 1, 2018, see “Market Price, Dividend and Distribution Information — OCSL.” The amount and timing of past dividends and distributions are not a guarantee of any future dividends or distributions, or the amount thereof, the payment, timing and amount of which will be determined by the OCSL Board and depend on OCSL’s cash requirements, its financial condition and earnings, contractual restrictions, legal and regulatory considerations and other factors. See “Dividend Reinvestment Plan of OCSL” for information regarding OCSL’s dividend reinvestment plan.

Following the Effective Time, the holders of shares of OCSI Common Stock will be entitled to receive dividends or other distributions declared by the OCSL Board with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore payable with respect to the whole shares of OCSL Common Stock received as part of the Merger Consideration.

Q: Is the Merger subject to any third party consents?

A: Under the Merger Agreement, OCSL and OCSI have agreed to cooperate with each other and use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, in good faith, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, including to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings (including any required applications, notices or other filings under the HSR Act), to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits of all governmental entities and all permits, consents, approvals, confirmations and authorizations of all third parties, in each case, that are necessary or advisable, to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (including the Mergers) in the most expeditious manner practicable, and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and governmental entities. [As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, OCSL and OCSI believe that, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, they have obtained all necessary third party consents (including consent under the HSR Act) other than stockholder approval.] There can be no assurance that any permits, consents, approvals, confirmations or authorizations will be obtained or that such permits, consents, approvals, confirmations or authorizations will not impose conditions or requirements that, individually or in the aggregate, would or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, assets or business of the combined company following the Mergers.

Q: How does OCSL's investment objective and strategy differ from OCSI's?

A: OCSL's investment objective is to generate current income and capital appreciation by providing companies with flexible and innovative financing solutions, including first and second lien loans, unsecured and mezzanine loans, bonds, preferred equity and certain equity co-investments. OCSL may also seek to generate capital appreciation and income through secondary investments at discounts to par in either private or syndicated transactions. OCSL expects its portfolio to include a mix of first and second lien loans, including asset backed loans, unitranche loans, mezzanine loans, unsecured loans, bonds, preferred equity and certain equity co-investments. OCSL's portfolio may also include certain structured finance and other non-traditional structures.

OCSI's investment objective is to generate a stable source of current income while minimizing the risk of principal loss and, to a lesser extent, capital appreciation by providing innovative first-lien financing solutions to companies across a wide variety of industries. To a lesser extent, OCSI may also invest in unsecured loans, including subordinated loans and bonds, issued by private middle-market companies, senior and subordinated loans and bonds issued by public companies and equity investments. OCSI expects its portfolio to include primarily first lien floating rate senior secured financings although OCSI may also make other investments.

Oaktree is generally focused on middle-market companies, which OCSL and OCSI define as companies with enterprise values of between $100 million and $750 million. Each of OCSL and OCSI generally invests in securities that are rated below investment grade by rating agencies or that would be rated below investment grade if they were rated. Below investment grade securities, which are often referred to as "high yield" and "junk," have predominantly speculative characteristics with respect to the issuer's capacity to pay interest and repay principal. OCSL and OCSI have substantially similar risks as each focuses on making investments in privately-held middle-market companies.

Over time, OCSL expects to rotate OCSI's lower yielding portfolio into higher yielding, proprietary investments.

Q: How will the combined company be managed following the Mergers?

A: The directors of OCSL immediately prior to the Mergers will remain the directors of OCSL and will hold office until their respective successors are duly elected and qualify, or their earlier death, resignation or removal. The officers of OCSL immediately prior to the Mergers will remain the officers of OCSL and will hold office until their respective successors are duly appointed and qualify, or their earlier death, resignation or removal. Following the Mergers, Oaktree will continue to be the investment adviser to OCSL and the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement will remain in effect.

Q: How will the Mergers affect the management fee payable by OCSL post-Closing?

A: In connection with entry into the Merger Agreement and subject to completion of the transactions contemplated thereby, Oaktree has agreed to waive $750,000 of base management fees payable to it under the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement in each of the eight quarters immediately following the closing of the Mergers (for an aggregate waiver of $6.0 million of base management fees).

Q: Will the composition of the OCSL Board change following the Mergers?

A: No. As stated above, following the Mergers, the directors of OCSL immediately prior to the Mergers will remain the directors of OCSL.

Q: Are OCSL Stockholders able to exercise appraisal rights?

A: No. OCSL Stockholders will not be entitled to exercise appraisal rights with respect to any matter to be voted upon at the OCSL Annual Meeting. Any OCSL Stockholder may abstain from voting or vote against any of such matters.

Q: Are OCSI Stockholders able to exercise appraisal rights?

A: No. OCSI Stockholders will not be entitled to exercise appraisal rights with respect to any matter to be voted upon at the OCSI Special Meeting. Any OCSI Stockholder may abstain from voting or vote against any of such matters.

Q: When do you expect to complete the Mergers?

A: While there can be no assurance as to the exact timing, or that the Mergers will be completed at all, OCSL and OCSI are working to complete the Mergers in the first calendar quarter of 2021. It is currently expected that the Mergers will be completed promptly following receipt of the required stockholder approvals at the OCSL Annual Meeting and the OCSI Special Meeting and satisfaction or waiver of the other closing conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Q: Are the Mergers expected to be taxable to OCSL Stockholders?

A: No. The Mergers are not expected to be a taxable event for OCSL Stockholders.

Q: Are the Mergers expected to be taxable to OCSI Stockholders?

A: No. The Mergers are intended to qualify as a “reorganization,” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), and it is a condition to the obligations of OCSI and of OCSL to consummate the Mergers that OCSI and OCSL will together obtain a legal opinion to that effect. OCSI Stockholders are not expected to recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of OCSI Common Stock for shares of OCSL Common Stock pursuant to the Mergers, except for any gain or loss that may result from the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares of OCSL Common Stock. OCSI Stockholders should read the section captioned “Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations — Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers” for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Mergers. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the Mergers to an OCSI Stockholder will depend on the particular tax situation of such stockholder. OCSI Stockholders should consult with their own tax advisors to determine the tax consequences of the Mergers to them.

Q: What happens if the Mergers are not consummated?

A: If the Mergers are not completed for any reason, the OCSL Common Stock will not be issued pursuant to the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and OCSI Stockholders will not receive any consideration for their shares of OCSI Common Stock in connection with the Merger. Instead, each of OCSL and OCSI will remain an independent company. See “Description of the Merger Agreement — Termination of the Merger Agreement.”

Q: Did the OCSI Special Committee and OCSI Board receive an opinion from the financial advisor to the OCSI Special Committee regarding the Exchange Ratio?

A: Yes. For more information, see the section entitled “The Mergers — Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the OCSI Special Committee.”

You should carefully read this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the other documents to which this joint proxy statement/prospectus refers for a more complete understanding of the Mergers. In particular, you should read the annexes attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A hereto, as it is the legal document that governs the Mergers. The Parties to the Mergers

Oaktree Specialty Lending Corporation

OCSL is a specialty finance company that looks to provide customized, one-stop credit solutions to companies with limited access to public or syndicated capital markets. OCSL was formed in late 2007 and operates as a closed-end, externally managed, non-diversified management investment company that has elected to be regulated as a Business Development Company under the Investment Company Act. OCSL has qualified and elected to be treated as a regulated investment company (“RIC”) under the Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

OCSL’s investment objective is to generate current income and capital appreciation by providing companies with flexible and innovative financing solutions, including first and second lien loans, unsecured and mezzanine loans, bonds, preferred equity and certain equity co-investments. OCSL may also seek to generate capital appreciation and income through secondary investments at discounts to par in either private or syndicated transactions. OCSL invests in companies that typically possess resilient business models with strong underlying fundamentals. OCSL intends to deploy capital across credit and economic cycles with a focus on long-term results, which OCSL believes will enable it to build lasting partnerships with financial sponsors and management teams, and OCSL may seek to opportunistically take advantage of dislocations in the financial markets and other situations that may benefit from Oaktree’s credit and structuring expertise, including during the COVID-19 pandemic. Sponsors may include financial sponsors, such as an institutional investor or a private equity firm, or a strategic entity seeking to invest in a portfolio company.

Oaktree Strategic Income Corporation

OCSI was formed in May 2013 and operates as a closed-end, externally managed, non-diversified management investment company that has elected to be regulated as a Business Development Company under the Investment Company Act. OCSI has qualified and elected to be treated as a RIC under the Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

OCSI’s investment objective is to generate a stable source of current income while minimizing the risk of principal loss and, to a lesser extent, capital appreciation by providing innovative first-lien financing solutions to companies across a wide variety of industries. To a lesser extent, OCSI may also invest in unsecured loans, including subordinated loans and bonds, issued by private middle-market companies, senior and subordinated loans and bonds issued by public companies and equity investments.

OCSI has invested primarily in senior secured loans, including first lien, unitranche and second lien debt instruments that pay interest at rates which are determined periodically on the basis of a floating base lending rate, plus a premium. The senior loans in which OCSI invests are typically made to U.S. and, to a limited extent, non-U.S. corporations, partnerships and other business entities in the middle-market which operate in various industries and geographical regions.

Lion Merger Sub, Inc.
333 South Grand Avenue, 28th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90071
(213) 830-6300

Merger Sub is a Delaware corporation and a newly formed wholly owned subsidiary of OCSL. Merger Sub was formed in connection with and for the sole purpose of the Mergers.

Oaktree Fund Advisors, LLC
333 South Grand Avenue, 28th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90071
(213) 830-6300

Each of OCSL and OCSI is externally managed and advised by Oaktree, a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the “Advisers Act”). Oaktree, subject to the overall supervision of the OCSL Board, manages OCSL’s day-to-day operations, and provides investment advisory services to OCSL pursuant to the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement. Oaktree, subject to the overall supervision of the OCSI Board, manages OCSI’s day-to-day operations, and provides investment advisory services to OCSI pursuant to the OCSI Investment Advisory Agreement.

Oaktree is an affiliate of OCM, a leading global investment management firm headquartered in Los Angeles, California, focused on less efficient markets and alternative investments. A number of the senior executives and investment professionals of Oaktree and its affiliates have been investing together for over 34 years and have generated impressive investment performance through multiple market cycles. Oaktree and its affiliates emphasize an opportunistic, value-oriented and risk-controlled approach to investments in distressed debt, corporate debt (including high-yield debt and senior loans), control investing, real estate, convertible securities and listed equities.

In 2019, Brookfield Asset Management Inc. (“Brookfield”) acquired a majority economic interest in Oaktree Capital Group, LLC (“OCG”). OCG operates as an independent business within Brookfield, with its own product offerings and investment, marketing and support teams. Brookfield is a leading global alternative asset manager with a 120-year history and approximately $550 billion of assets under management (inclusive of Oaktree) across a broad portfolio of real estate, infrastructure, renewable power, credit and private equity assets. Commencing in 2022, OCG’s founders, senior management and current and former employee-unitholders of OCG will be able to sell their remaining OCG units to Brookfield over time pursuant to an agreed upon liquidity schedule and approach to valuing such units at the time of liquidation. Pursuant to this liquidity schedule, the earliest year in which Brookfield could own 100% of the OCG business is 2029.

Merger Structure

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub will be merged with and into OCSI. OCSI will be the surviving company and will continue its existence as a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware. As of the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease. Immediately after the occurrence of the Effective Time, in the Second Merger, the surviving company will merge with and into OCSL with OCSL continuing as the surviving company.

Based on the number of shares of OCSL Common Stock issued and outstanding and the NAVs of OCSL and OCSI as of September 30, 2020 (and excluding transaction costs and tax-related distributions), OCSL would issue approximately 1.394 shares of OCSL Common Stock for each share of OCSI Common Stock outstanding, resulting in pro forma ownership of 77.4% for current OCSL Stockholders and 22.6% for current OCSI Stockholders. Following the Mergers, Oaktree will continue to be the investment adviser to OCSL and the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement will remain in effect.

The Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. OCSL and OCSI encourage their respective stockholders to read the Merger Agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing the Mergers.

Merger Consideration

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of OCSI Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Cancelled Shares) will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of OCSL Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio, plus any cash in lieu of fractional shares.

Under the Merger Agreement, as of the Determination Date, OCSI and OCSL will deliver the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value and the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value, respectively, in each case using a pre-agreed set of assumptions, methodologies and adjustments. Based on such calculations, the parties will calculate the OCSI Per Share NAV, which will be equal to (i) the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value divided by (ii) the number of shares of OCSI Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Determination Date (excluding any Cancelled Shares), and the OCSL Per Share NAV, which will be equal to (A) the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value divided by (B) the number of shares of OCSL Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Determination Date. The Exchange Ratio will be equal to the quotient (rounded to four decimal places) of (i) the OCSI Per Share NAV divided by (ii) the OCSL Per Share NAV.

OCSI and OCSL will update and redeliver the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value or the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value, respectively, in the event of a material change to such calculation between the Determination Date and the closing of the Mergers and if needed to ensure that the calculation is determined within 48 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) prior to the Effective Time.

The Exchange Ratio will be adjusted only if, between the Determination Date and the Effective Time, the respective outstanding shares of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock will have been increased or decreased or changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities, as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up, combination or exchange of shares, or if a stock dividend or dividend payable in any other securities will be declared with a record date within such period, as permitted by the Merger Agreement. Because the Exchange Ratio will be determined within 48 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) prior to the Effective Time, the time period during which such an adjustment could occur will be relatively short.

Closing of the Mergers is contingent upon (i) OCSL stockholder approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal, (ii) OCSI stockholder approval of the Merger Proposal and (iii) satisfaction or waiver certain other closing conditions.

After the Determination Date and until the Mergers are completed, the market value of the shares of OCSL Common Stock to be issued in the Merger will continue to fluctuate but the number of shares to be issued to OCSI Stockholders will remain fixed.

Market Price of Securities

OCSL Common Stock trades on The Nasdaq Global Select Market (“Nasdaq”) under the ticker symbol “OCSL.” OCSI Common Stock trades on the Nasdaq under the symbol “OCSI.”

The following table presents the closing sales prices as of the last trading day before the execution of the Merger Agreement and the most recent quarter end, and the most recently determined NAV per share of OCSL Common Stock and the most recently determined NAV per share of OCSI Common Stock.

	OCSL Common Stock	OCSI Common Stock
NAV per Share as of September 30, 2020	$ 6.49	$ 9.05
Closing Sales Price as of September 30, 2020	$ 4.84	$ 6.51
Closing Sales Price as of October 28, 2020	$ 4.55	$ 6.32

Risks Relating to the Mergers

The Mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are subject to, among others, the following risks. OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders should carefully consider these risks before deciding how to vote on the proposals to be voted on at their respective annual or special meeting.

- Because the market price of OCSL Common Stock and the NAV per share of OCSI Common Stock and OCSL Common Stock will fluctuate, OCSI Stockholders cannot be sure of the market value of the consideration they will receive in connection with the Mergers until the closing date of the Mergers.
- Sales of shares of OCSL Common Stock after the completion of the Mergers may cause the market price of OCSL Common Stock to decline.
- Most OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders will experience a reduction in percentage ownership and voting power in the combined company as a result of the Mergers.
- OCSL may be unable to realize the benefits anticipated by the Mergers, including estimated cost savings, or it may take longer than anticipated to achieve such benefits.
- The opinion delivered to the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board from the financial advisor to the OCSI Special Committee will not reflect changes in circumstances between the signing of the Merger Agreement and completion of the Mergers.
- If the Mergers do not close, OCSL and OCSI will not benefit from the expenses incurred in pursuit of the Mergers.
- The termination of the Merger Agreement could negatively impact OCSL and OCSI.
- The Merger Agreement limits OCSL’s and OCSI’s ability to pursue alternatives to the Mergers.
- The Mergers are subject to closing conditions, including stockholder approvals, that, if not satisfied or (to the extent legally allowed) waived, will result in the Mergers not being completed, which may result in material adverse consequences to the business and operations of OCSL and OCSI.
- OCSL and OCSI may, to the extent legally allowed, waive one or more conditions to the Mergers without resoliciting stockholder approval.

- OCSL and OCSI will be subject to operational uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Mergers are pending.
- The market prices of OCSL Common Stock and OCSI Common Stock after the Mergers may be affected by factors different from those affecting such common stock currently.

See the section captioned “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to the Mergers” beginning on page 20 for a more detailed discussion of these risks.

Tax Consequences of the Mergers

The Mergers are intended to qualify as a “reorganization,” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and it is a condition to the obligations of OCSI and of OCSL to consummate the Mergers that OCSI and OCSL will together obtain a legal opinion to that effect. OCSI Stockholders are not expected to recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of OCSI Common Stock for shares of OCSL Common Stock pursuant to the Mergers, except for any gain or loss that may result from the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares of OCSL Common Stock.

OCSI Stockholders should read the section captioned “Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations — Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers” for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Mergers. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the Mergers to an OCSI Stockholder will depend on the particular tax situation of such stockholder. OCSI Stockholders should consult with their own tax advisors to determine the tax consequences of the Mergers to them.

The Mergers are not expected to be a taxable event for OCSL Stockholders.

For information on the conditions that must be satisfied or waived for the Mergers to occur, see “Description of the Merger Agreement — Conditions to Closing the Mergers.” While there can be no assurance as to the exact timing, or that the Mergers will be completed at all, OCSL and OCSI are working to complete the Merger in the second fiscal quarter of 2021. Reasons for the Mergers

OCSL

The OCSL Board consulted with its legal and other advisors, as well as OCSL’s management and Oaktree, and considered numerous factors, including the unanimous recommendation of the OCSL Special Committee, and the OCSL Board and the OCSL Special Committee unanimously determined that the Mergers are in the best interests of OCSL and in the best interests of OCSL Stockholders, and that existing OCSL Stockholders will not suffer any dilution for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the Mergers.

The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board weighed various benefits and risks in considering the Mergers, both with respect to the immediate effects of the Mergers on OCSL and OCSL Stockholders and with respect to the potential benefits that could be experienced by the combined company after the Mergers. Some of the material factors considered by the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board that assisted it in concluding that the Mergers are in the best interests of OCSL and OCSL Stockholders included, among others:

- expected accretion to net investment income;
- increase in first-lien investments;
- expected greater access to debt capital;
- increased scale and improved secondary market liquidity;
- acquisition of a known, diversified portfolio;
- no dilution for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act;
- potential for operational synergies via the elimination of redundant expenses; and
- tax consequences of the Mergers.

The foregoing list does not include all the factors that the OCSL Board considered in approving the proposed Mergers and the Merger Agreement and recommending that OCSL Stockholders approve the issuance of shares of OCSL Common Stock necessary to effectuate the Mergers. For a further discussion of the material factors considered by the OCSL Board, see “The Mergers — Reasons for the Mergers.”

- expected dividend accretion;
- continuity of Oaktree and the management team;
- ease of portfolio integration;

- the financial analyses reviewed by Houlihan Lokey Capital, Inc. (“Houlihan Lokey”) with the OCSI Special Committee as well as the oral opinion of Houlihan Lokey rendered to the OCSI Special Committee on October 28, 2020 (which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of Houlihan Lokey’s written opinion addressed to the OCSI Special Committee and OCSI Board, dated October 28, 2020), as to, as of such date, the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of OCSI Common Stock, other than the Excluded Holders (as defined in “The Mergers — Background of the Merger”), of the Exchange Ratio.

The foregoing list does not include all the factors that the OCSI Board considered in approving the Merger Agreement and recommending that OCSI Stockholders approve the Merger Agreement.

For a further discussion of the material factors considered by the OCSI Board, see “The Mergers — Reasons for the Mergers.”

The information in “Item 1A. Risk Factors” in Part I of OCSI’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 is incorporated herein by reference for general risks related to OCSI. The occurrence of any of these risks could materially and adversely affect the business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flow of OCSL and OCSI and, following the Mergers, the combined company and might cause you to lose all or part of your investment. The risks, as set out below and incorporated by reference herein, are not the only risks OCSL and OCSI and, following the Mergers, the combined company face, and there may be additional risks that OCSL and OCSI do not presently know of or that they currently consider not likely to have a significant impact. New risks may emerge at any time and OCSL and OCSI cannot predict such risks or estimate the extent to which they may affect the business or financial performance of OCSL and OCSI and, following the Mergers, the combined company. See also “Incorporation by Reference for OCSL,” “Incorporation by Reference for OCSI” and “Where You Can Find More Information” in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks Relating to the Mergers

Because the market price of OCSL Common Stock and the NAV per share of OCSI Common Stock and OCSL Common Stock will fluctuate, OCSI Stockholders cannot be sure of the market value of the consideration they will receive in connection with the Mergers until the closing date of the Mergers.

At the Effective Time, each share of OCSI Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Cancelled Shares) will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of OCSL Common Stock, equal to the Exchange Ratio, plus any cash (without interest) in lieu of fractional shares. The market value of such consideration to be received by OCSI Stockholders upon completion of the Mergers (the “Merger Consideration”) may vary from the closing price of OCSI Common Stock and OCSL Common Stock, respectively, on the date the Mergers were announced, on the date of the OCSI Special Meeting to consider the Merger Proposal and on the date the Mergers are completed. Any change in the market price of OCSL Common Stock prior to completion of the Mergers will affect the market value of the Merger Consideration that OCSI Stockholders will receive upon completion of the Mergers. Additionally, the Exchange Ratio will fluctuate as OCSI’s and OCSL’s respective NAVs change prior to Closing.

Accordingly, at the time of the OCSI Special Meeting, OCSI Stockholders will not know or be able to calculate the market value of the Merger Consideration they would receive upon completion of the Mergers. Neither OCSI nor OCSL is permitted to terminate the Merger Agreement or resolicit the vote of their respective stockholders solely because of changes in the market price of shares of OCSL Common Stock. There will be no adjustment to the Merger Consideration for changes in the market price of shares of OCSL Common Stock.

Changes in the market price of OCSL Common Stock may result from a variety of factors, including, among other things:

- significant volatility in the market price and trading volume of securities of Business Development Companies or other companies in OCSL’s sector, which are not necessarily related to the operating performance of these companies;
- inability to obtain any exemptive relief that may be required by OCSL from the SEC;
- changes in regulatory policies, accounting pronouncements or tax guidelines, particularly with respect to RICs and Business Development Companies;
- loss of OCSL’s Business Development Company or RIC status;

Table of Contents

- changes in earnings or variations in operating results or distributions that exceed OCSL's net investment income;
- increases in expenses associated with defense of litigation and responding to SEC inquiries;
- changes in accounting guidelines governing valuation of OCSL's investments;
- changes in the value of OCSL's portfolio of investments and any derivative instruments, including as a result of general economic conditions, interest rate shifts and changes in the performance of OCSL's portfolio companies;
- any shortfall in investment income or net investment income or any increase in losses from levels expected by investors or securities analysts;
- departure of Oaktree's key personnel; and
- general economic trends and other external factors, including those related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

These factors are generally beyond the control of OCSL. The range of high and low closing sales prices per share of OCSL Common Stock as reported on the Nasdaq for the three months ended September 30, 2020 was a low of $4.29 and a high of $5.23. However, historical trading prices are not necessarily indicative of future performance. OCSI Stockholders should obtain current market quotations for shares of OCSL Common Stock prior to the OCSI Special Meeting.

Sales of shares of OCSL Common Stock after the completion of the Mergers may cause the trading price of OCSL Common Stock to decline.

For illustrative purposes, based on September 30, 2020 NAVs and excluding transaction costs and other tax-related distributions, OCSL would issue approximately 1.394 shares of OCSL Common Stock for each share of OCSI Common Stock outstanding, resulting in pro forma ownership of 77.4% for current OCSL Stockholders and 22.6% for current OCSI Stockholders. Former OCSI Stockholders may be required to or decide to sell the shares of OCSL Common Stock that they receive pursuant to the Merger Agreement. In addition, OCSL Stockholders may decide not to hold their shares of OCSL Common Stock after completion of the Mergers. In each case, such sales of OCSL Common Stock could have the effect of depressing the trading price for OCSL Common Stock and may take place promptly following the completion of the Mergers. If this occurs, it could impair OCSL's ability to raise additional capital through the sale of equity securities should OCSL desire to do so.

Most OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders will experience a reduction in percentage ownership and voting power in the combined company as a result of the Mergers.

OCSL Stockholders will experience a substantial reduction in their percentage ownership interests and effective voting power in respect of the combined company relative to their percentage ownership interests in OCSL prior to the Mergers unless they hold a comparable or greater percentage ownership in OCSI. Consequently, OCSL Stockholders should generally expect to exercise less influence over the management and policies of the combined company following the Mergers than they currently exercise over the management and policies of OCSL. OCSI Stockholders will experience a substantial reduction in their percentage ownership interests and effective voting power in respect of the combined company relative to their percentage ownership interests in OCSI prior to the Mergers unless they hold a comparable or greater percentage ownership in OCSL. Consequently, OCSI Stockholders should generally expect to exercise less influence over the management and policies of the combined company following the Mergers than they currently exercise over the management and policies of OCSI. In addition, prior to completion of the Mergers, subject to certain restrictions in the Merger Agreement, OCSL and OCSI may issue additional shares of OCSL Common Stock and OCSI Common Stock, respectively, which would further reduce the percentage ownership of the combined company to be held by current OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders.

OCSL may be unable to realize the benefits anticipated by the Mergers, including estimated cost savings, or it may take longer than anticipated to achieve such benefits.

The realization of certain benefits anticipated as a result of the Mergers will depend in part on the integration of OCSI's investment portfolio with OCSL's investment portfolio, the integration of OCSI's business with OCSL's business and the ability to rotate certain investments currently held by OCSI into higher yielding assets. There can be no assurance that OCSI's investment portfolio or business can be operated profitably or integrated successfully into OCSL's operations in a timely fashion or at all. The dedication of management resources to such integration may detract attention from the day-to-day business of the combined company and there can be no assurance that there will not be substantial costs associated with the transition process or there will not be other material adverse effects as a result of these integration efforts. Such effects, including incurring unexpected costs or delays in connection with such integration and failure of OCSI's investment portfolio to perform as expected, could have a material adverse effect on the financial results of the combined company.

OCSL also expects to achieve certain synergies and cost savings from the Mergers when the two companies have fully integrated their portfolios. It is possible that the estimates of these synergies and potential cost savings could ultimately be incorrect. The cost savings estimates also assume OCSL will be able to combine its operations and OCSI's operations in a manner that permits those cost savings to be fully realized. If the estimates turn out to be incorrect or if OCSL is not able to successfully combine OCSI's investment portfolio or business with its operations, the anticipated synergies and cost savings may not be fully realized or realized at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

The opinion delivered to the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board from the financial advisor to the OCSI Special Committee will not reflect changes in circumstances between the signing of the Merger Agreement and completion of the Mergers.

The opinion of Houlihan Lokey, the financial advisor to the OCSI Special Committee, was delivered to the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board on, and was dated, October 28, 2020. Changes in OCSL's or OCSI's operations and prospects, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of OCSL or OCSI may significantly alter OCSI's value or the price of shares of OCSL Common Stock by the time the Mergers are completed. The opinion does not speak as of the time the Mergers will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion.

If the Mergers do not close, OCSL and OCSI will not benefit from the expenses incurred in pursuit of the Mergers.

The Mergers may not be completed. If the Mergers are not completed, OCSL and OCSI will have incurred substantial expenses for which no ultimate benefit will have been received. OCSL and OCSI have incurred out-of-pocket expenses in connection with the Mergers for investment banking, legal and accounting fees and financial printing and other related charges, much of which will be incurred even if the Mergers are not completed.

The termination of the Merger Agreement could negatively impact OCSL and OCSI.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences, including:

- the businesses of OCSL and OCSI may have been adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the Mergers, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Mergers; and
- the market prices of OCSL Common Stock and OCSI Common Stock might decline to the extent that the market prices prior to termination reflects a market assumption that the Mergers will be completed; and

- OCSI may not be able to find a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the price OCSL agreed to pay in the Mergers.

The Merger Agreement limits OCSL's and OCSI's ability to pursue alternatives to the Mergers.

The Merger Agreement contains provisions that limit OCSL's and OCSI's ability to discuss, facilitate or commit to competing third party proposals to acquire all or a significant part of OCSL or OCSI. These provisions, which are typical for transactions of this type, include a termination fee of $5,675,300 payable by third parties to OCSL and $19,960,028 payable by third parties to OCSI under certain circumstances, might discourage a potential competing acquirer that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of OCSL or OCSI from considering or proposing that acquisition even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in the Mergers or might result in a potential competing acquirer proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire OCSL or OCSI than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

The Mergers are subject to closing conditions, including stockholder approvals, that, if not satisfied or (to the extent legally allowed) waived, will result in the Mergers not being completed, which may result in material adverse consequences to the business and operations of OCSL and OCSI.

The Mergers are subject to closing conditions, including certain approvals of OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders that, if not satisfied, will prevent the Mergers from being completed. The closing condition that OCSI Stockholders approve the Merger Proposal may not be waived under applicable law and must be satisfied for the Mergers to be completed. If OCSI Stockholders do not adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the Mergers and the Mergers are not completed, the resulting failure of the Mergers could have a material adverse impact on OCSL's and OCSI's respective businesses and operations. In addition, the closing condition that OCSL Stockholders approve the issuance of shares of OCSL Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement may not be waived and must be satisfied for the Mergers to be completed. If OCSL Stockholders do not approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Mergers are not completed, the resulting failure of the Mergers could have a material adverse impact on OCSL's and OCSI's respective businesses and operations. In addition to the required approvals of OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders, the Mergers are subject to a number of other conditions beyond the control of OCSL and OCSI that may prevent, delay or otherwise materially adversely affect completion of the Mergers. OCSL and OCSI cannot predict whether and when these other conditions will be satisfied.

OCSL and OCSI may, to the extent legally allowed, waive one or more conditions to the Mergers without resoliciting stockholder approval.

Certain conditions to OCSL's and OCSI's respective obligations to complete the Mergers may be waived, in whole or in part, to the extent legally allowed, either unilaterally or by mutual agreement. In the event that any such waiver does not require resolicitation of stockholders, OCSL and OCSI will each have the discretion to complete the Mergers without seeking further stockholder approval. The conditions requiring the approval of OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders, however, cannot be waived.

OCSL and OCSI will be subject to operational uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Mergers are pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Mergers may have an adverse effect on OCSL or OCSI and, consequently, on the combined company following completion of the Mergers. These uncertainties may cause those that deal with OCSL or OCSI to seek to change their existing business relationships with them. In addition, the Merger Agreement restricts OCSL and OCSI from taking actions that each might otherwise consider to be in its best interests. These restrictions may prevent OCSL or OCSI from pursuing certain business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the Mergers.

The market prices of OCSL Common Stock and OCSI Common Stock after the Mergers may be affected by factors different from those affecting such common stock currently.

OCSL's business and OCSI's business differ in some respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market prices of OCSL Common Stock and OCSI Common Stock after the Mergers may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations and trading price of each of OCSL and OCSI, such as a larger stockholder base, a different portfolio composition and a different capital structure.

Accordingly, OCSL's and OCSI's respective historical trading prices and financial results may not be indicative of these matters for the combined company following the Mergers.

COMPARATIVE FEES AND EXPENSES

Comparative Fees and Expenses Relating to the Mergers

The following table is intended to assist OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders in understanding the costs and expenses that an investor in shares of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock bears directly or indirectly and, based on the assumptions set forth below, the pro forma costs and expenses estimated to be incurred by the combined company in the first year following completion of the Mergers. We caution you that some of the percentages indicated in the table below are estimates and may vary. Except where the context suggests otherwise, whenever this document contains a reference to fees or expenses paid or to be paid by “you,” “OCSL” or “OCSI,” stockholders will indirectly bear such fees or expenses as investors in OCSL or OCSI, as applicable. The table below is based on information as of September 30, 2020 (except as noted below) and includes expenses of the applicable consolidated subsidiaries.

- (1) Purchases of shares of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock on the secondary market are not subject to sales load but may be subject to brokerage commissions or other charges. The table does not include any sales load (underwriting discounts or commissions) that stockholders may have paid in connection with their purchase of shares of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock in a prior underwritten offering or otherwise.
- (2) The expenses of administering the respective dividend reinvestment plans are included in “Other expenses.” However, if a participant in one of the plans elects by notice to the plan administrator in advance of termination to have the plan administrator sell part or all of the shares held by the plan administrator in the participant’s account and remit the proceeds to the participant, the plan administrator is authorized to deduct a transaction fee of up to $15 plus a $0.10 per share fee from the proceeds.
- (3) For the pro forma column, the combined net assets of OCSL and OCSI on a pro forma basis as of September 30, 2020 were used.
- (4) For OCSL, the base management fee is calculated at an annual rate of 1.50% of OCSL’s total gross assets at the end of each quarter, including any investment made with borrowings, but excluding cash and cash equivalents; provided, however, the base management fee is calculated at an annual rate of 1.00% of the value of OCSL’s total gross assets, including any investments made with borrowings, but excluding cash and cash equivalents, that exceeds the product of (i) 200% (calculated in accordance with the Investment Company Act, and giving effect to exemptive relief OCSL has received with respect to debentures issued by a small business investment company subsidiary) and (ii) OCSL’s net assets. See “Item 1. Business — Investment Advisory and Management Agreement — Management Fee” in Part I of OCSL’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for additional information. This table assumes that OCSL's total gross assets (excluding cash and cash equivalents) are $1.6 billion, which was the actual amount of OCSL's total gross assets as of September 30, 2020.

For OCSI, the base management fee is calculated at an annual rate of 1.00% of the average value of OCSI's total gross assets at the end of the two most recently completed quarters, including any investment made with borrowings, but excluding cash and cash equivalents. See "Item 1. Business — Investment Advisory and Management Agreement — Management Fee" in Part I of OCSI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for additional information. This table assumes that OCSI's total gross assets (excluding cash and cash equivalents) are $514.9 million, which was the actual amount of OCSI's total gross assets as of September 30, 2020.

Following completion of the Mergers, the combined company will be externally managed by Oaktree. The pro forma base management fee has been calculated in accordance with the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement. The pro forma base management fee referenced in the table above is based on the combined gross assets (excluding cash and cash equivalents) of OCSL and OCSI on a pro forma basis on September 30, 2020 and reflects the voluntary, irrevocable waiver by Oaktree of $750,000 of base management fees in each quarter. See "Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations — Recent Developments — Management Fee Waiver" in Part II of OCSL's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for additional information.

- (5) For each of OCSL and OCSI, the incentive fee consists of two parts. For each of OCSL and OCSI, the incentive fee on income is calculated and payable quarterly in arrears based upon their respective pre-incentive fee net investment income for the immediately preceding quarter. The payment of the incentive fee on income is subject to payment of a preferred return to investors each quarter (i.e., a "hurdle rate"), expressed as a rate of return on the value of the net assets of OCSL and OCSI, as applicable, at the end of the most recently completed quarter, of 1.50%, subject to a "catch up" feature.

For each of OCSL and OCSI, the second part of the incentive fee (the "capital gains incentive fee") is determined and payable in arrears as of the end of each fiscal year (or upon termination of the applicable investment advisory agreement, as of the termination date) commencing with the fiscal year ended September 30, 2019 and equals 17.5% of their respective realized capital gains, if any, on a cumulative basis from the beginning of the fiscal year ended September 30, 2019 through the end of each fiscal year, computed net of all realized capital losses and unrealized capital depreciation on a cumulative basis, less the aggregate amount of any previously paid capital gains incentive fees under the respective investment advisory agreement. Any realized capital gains or losses and unrealized capital depreciation with respect to OCSL's and OCSI's portfolio as of the end of the fiscal year ended September 30, 2018 are excluded from the calculation of the second part of the incentive fee.

For the two-year period commencing on October 17, 2017, OCM agreed to waive, to the extent necessary, any management or incentive fees payable to OCM that exceed what would have been paid to Fifth Street Management LLC in the aggregate under the investment advisory agreements between OCSL and OCSI, as applicable, and Fifth Street Management LLC. For illustrative purposes, however, the table above assumes that no management or incentive fees payable to OCM were waived by OCM pursuant to this waiver.

See "Item 1. Business — Investment Advisory and Management Agreement — Management Fee" in Part I of OCSL's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for additional information about the incentive fee payable by OCSL and "Item 1. Business — Investment Advisory and Management Agreement — Management Fee" in Part I of OCSI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for additional information about the incentive fee payable by OCSI.

For the "Actual" columns, the incentive fees referenced in the table above are based on actual amounts of the incentive fee on income incurred during the year ended September 30, 2020 and the capital gains incentive fee payable under the applicable investment advisory agreement as of September 30, 2020.

Following completion of the Mergers, the combined company will be externally managed by Oaktree. The pro forma incentive fees have been calculated in a manner consistent with the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement.

- (6) “Interest payments on borrowed funds (including other costs of servicing and offering debt securities)” is calculated as the weighted average interest rate in effect as of September 30, 2020 multiplied by the actual debt outstanding as of September 30, 2020 ($714.8 million and $267.6 million for OCSL and OCSI, respectively) for the “Actual” columns. The weighted average interest rate (exclusive of deferred financing costs) for borrowings of OCSL and OCSI as of September 30, 2020 was 2.7% and 2.6%, respectively. The “Pro Forma” column assumes the sum of amounts of debt outstanding as of September 30, 2020 for each of OCSL and OCSI for the combined company following the Mergers.
- (7) “Other expenses” are based on estimated amounts for the current fiscal year for each of OCSL and OCSI. These expenses include certain expenses allocated to us under the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement and the OCSI Investment Advisory Agreement, as applicable, including travel expenses incurred by Oaktree’s personnel in connection with investigating and monitoring OCSL’s and OCSI’s respective investments, such as investment due diligence. The “Pro Forma” column assumes the sum of amounts estimated for each of OCSL and OCSI for the combined company following the Mergers and reflects decreases in duplicative costs such as professional fees for legal, audit and tax fees, directors’ fees, and other redundant administrative and operating expenses directly related to the Mergers.
- (8) OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders indirectly bear the expenses of underlying funds or other investment vehicles that would be an investment company under section 3(a) of the Investment Company Act but for the exceptions to that definition provided for in sections 3(c)(1) and 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act (“Acquired Funds”) in which OCSL and OCSI, respectively, invests.

For OCSL, this amount includes the annual expenses of Senior Loan Fund I LLC (“SLF JV I”). There are no fees paid by SLF JV I to Oaktree. The annual expenses of SLF JV I include interest payments on the subordinated notes held by Kemper, which represented 13.0% of such expenses for OCSL, and exclude interest payments on the subordinated notes held by OCSL. See “Item 7. Management Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations — Senior Loan Fund I LLC” in Part II of OCSL’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for more information on SLF JV I.

For OCSI, this amount includes the annual expenses of OCSI Glick JV LLC (the “OCSI Glick JV”), which include interest payments on the subordinated notes held by GF Debt Funding, which represented 4.8% of such expenses for OCSI, and exclude interest payments on the subordinated notes held by OCSI. The subordinated notes of the OCSI Glick JV did not pay interest during the nine months ended September 30, 2020 and were on non-accrual status as of September 30, 2020. See “Item 7. Management Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations — OCSI Glick JV LLC” in Part II of OCSI’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for more information on the OCSI Glick JV.

The “Pro Forma” column assumes the sum of amounts for each of OCSL and OCSI for the combined company following the Mergers.

- (9) “Total annual expenses” is presented as a percentage of net assets attributable to common stockholders because OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders bear all of the fees and expenses of the respective company. “Total annual expenses” does not reflect any potential provision (benefit) for income taxes because of the uncertainties associated with determining such amounts in future periods.

Example

The following example demonstrates the projected dollar amount of total cumulative expenses that would be incurred over various periods with respect to a hypothetical investment in OCSL, OCSI or the combined company’s common stock following completion of the Mergers on a pro forma basis, in each case assuming that OCSL, OCSI and the combined company hold no cash or liabilities other than debt. In calculating the following expense amounts, each of OCSL and OCSI has assumed that it would have no additional leverage and that its annual operating expenses would remain at the levels set forth in the tables above. Calculations for the pro forma combined company following the Mergers assume that the Mergers closed on September 30, 2020 and that the leverage and operating expenses of OCSL and OCSI remain at the levels set forth in the tables above (and gives effect to the base management fee waivers described above). Transaction expenses related to the Mergers are not included in the following examples.

	1 year	3 years	5 years	10 years
You would pay the following expenses on a $1,000 investment:
OCSL, assuming a 5% annual return (assumes no return from net realized capital gains)	$ 70	$ 211	$ 356	$ 729
OCSI, assuming a 5% annual return (assumes no return from net realized capital gains)	$ 81	$ 244	$ 411	$ 840
OCSL, assuming a 5% annual return (assumes return entirely from realized capital gains)	$ 85	$ 255	$ 425	$ 853
OCSI, assuming a 5% annual return (assumes return entirely from realized capital gains)	$ 98	$ 293	$ 489	$ 978
	1 year	3 years	5 years	10 years
Pro forma combined company following the Mergers You would pay the following expenses on a $1,000 investment:
Assuming a 5% annual return (assumes no return from net realized capital gains)	$ 71	$ 214	$ 361	$ 742
Assuming a 5% annual return (assumes return entirely from realized capital gains)	$ 86	$ 259	$ 433	$ 870

While the example assumes, as required by the SEC, a 5% annual return, performance of OCSL, OCSI and the combined company will vary and may result in a return greater or less than 5%. The incentive fee based on pre-incentive fee net investment income under each of the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement and the OCSI Investment Advisory Agreement, which, assuming a 5% annual return, would either not be payable or would have an insignificant impact on the expense amounts shown above, is not included in the example. If sufficient returns are achieved on investments, including through the realization of capital gains, to trigger an incentive fee of a material amount, expenses, and returns to investors, would be higher. This example assumes that, as of October 1, 2020, the sum of realized capital losses and unrealized capital depreciation on a cumulative basis since October 1, 2018 for each of OCSL and OCSI is zero. In addition, while the example assumes reinvestment of all distributions at NAV, participants in OCSL's and OCSI's dividend reinvestment plans will receive a number of shares of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock, as applicable, determined by dividing the total dollar amount of the cash distribution payable to a participant by either (i) the greater of (a) the current NAV per share of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock, as applicable, and (b) 95% of the market price per share of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock, as applicable, at the close of trading on the payment date fixed by the applicable Board of Directors in the event that newly issued shares are used to satisfy the share requirements of the dividend reinvestment plan or (ii) the average purchase price, excluding any brokerage charges or other charges, of all shares of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock, as applicable, purchased by the administrator of the applicable dividend reinvestment plan in the event that shares are purchased in the open market to satisfy the share requirements of the dividend reinvestment plan, which may be at, above or below NAV.

The example and the expenses in the table above should not be considered a representation of OCSL's, OCSI's, or, following completion of the Mergers, the combined company's, future expenses, and actual expenses may be greater or less than those shown.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference herein, contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements, which relate to OCSL, OCSI or, following the Mergers, the combined company, regarding future events or the future performance or future financial condition of OCSL, OCSI or, following the Mergers, the combined company. - the percentage of OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders voting in favor of the proposals submitted for their approval;

- the possibility that any or all of the various conditions to the consummation of the Mergers may not be satisfied or waived;
- risks related to diverting management's attention from ongoing business operations;

You should read this table together with OCSL's and OCSI's consolidated financial statements incorporated by reference herein.

THE OCSL ANNUAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place of the OCSL Annual Meeting

The OCSL Annual Meeting will be held virtually on [●], 2021, at [●] [p.m.][a.m.], Pacific Time, at the following website: www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/ocsl2021. This joint proxy statement/prospectus and the accompanying materials are being mailed on or about [●], 2021 to stockholders of record of OCSL and are available at www.proxyvote.com.

Purpose of the OCSL Annual Meeting

At the OCSL Annual Meeting, OCSL Stockholders will be asked to approve each of (i) the nominees proposed by the OCSL Board in connection with the Director Proposal; (ii) the Auditor Proposal; and (iii) the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

After careful consideration and, with respect to the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal, on the recommendation of the OCSL Special Committee, the OCSL Board unanimously recommends that OCSL Stockholders vote “FOR” the election of each of the nominees proposed by the OCSL Board in connection with the Director Proposal, “FOR” the Auditor Proposal and “FOR” the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

Record Date

The OCSL Record Date is [●], 2021. The OCSL Record Date is established by the OCSL Board, and only holders of record of shares of OCSL Common Stock at the close of business on the OCSL Record Date are entitled to receive notice of the OCSL Annual Meeting and vote at the OCSL Annual Meeting. As of the OCSL Record Date, there were 140,960,651 shares of OCSL Common Stock outstanding. Each share of OCSL Common Stock held by a holder of record as of the OCSL Record Date has one vote on each matter considered at the OCSL Annual Meeting.

Quorum and Adjournments

For OCSL to conduct business at the OCSL Annual Meeting, a quorum of OCSL Stockholders must be present. The presence at the OCSL Annual Meeting, virtually or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of OCSL Common Stock outstanding on the OCSL Record Date will constitute a quorum. Votes to “withhold authority” and abstentions will be treated as shares present for quorum purposes. Shares for which brokers have not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares and do not have discretionary authority to vote on certain proposals (which are considered “broker non-votes” with respect to such proposals) will be treated as shares present for quorum purposes at the OCSL Annual Meeting.

Pursuant to OCSL’s bylaws, the chairman of the OCSL Annual Meeting shall have the power to adjourn the OCSL Annual Meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, from time to time for any reason and without notice other than announcement at the OCSL Annual Meeting.

Broker Non-Votes

Broker non-votes are described as votes cast by a broker or other nominee on behalf of a beneficial holder who does not provide explicit voting instructions to such broker or nominee and who does not attend the meeting.

The Director Proposal is a non-routine matter for OCSL. As a result, if an OCSL Stockholder holds shares in “street name” through a broker, bank or other nominee, the broker, bank or nominee will not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to the Director Proposal. Votes to “withhold authority” and broker non-votes, if any, will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Director Proposal.

The Auditor Proposal is a routine matter for OCSL. As a result, if an OCSL Stockholder holds shares in “street name” through a broker, bank or other nominee, the broker, bank or nominee will be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to the Auditor Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Auditor Proposal.

The Merger Stock Issuance Proposal is a non-routine matters for OCSL. As a result, if an OCSL Stockholder holds shares in “street name” through a broker, bank or other nominee, the broker, bank or nominee will not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of OCSL Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon at the OCSL Annual Meeting is required to elect each director nominee of OCSL (i.e., the candidate receiving the most “for” votes will win each election). Stockholders may not cumulate their votes.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of outstanding shares of OCSL Common Stock at the OCSL Annual Meeting in person or by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present is required for approval of the Auditor Proposal and the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal (i.e., the number of shares voted “for” the proposal must exceed the number of shares voted “against” such proposal).

Voting of Management

On the OCSL Record Date, OCSL’s executive officers and directors owned and were entitled to vote approximately [361,350] shares of OCSL Common Stock, representing approximately [0.3]% of the outstanding shares of OCSL Common Stock on the OCSL Record Date. None of OCSL’s executive officers or directors has entered into any voting agreement relating to the Mergers.

Voting of Proxies

OCSL encourages OCSL Stockholders to vote their shares, either by voting at the OCSL Annual Meeting or by voting by proxy, which means that OCSL Stockholders authorize someone else to vote their shares. Shares represented by duly executed proxies will be voted in accordance with OCSL Stockholders’ instructions. If OCSL Stockholders execute a proxy without specifying their voting instructions, such OCSL Stockholders’ shares will be voted in accordance with the OCSL Board’s recommendation. If any other business is brought before the OCSL Annual Meeting, OCSL Stockholders’ shares will be voted at the OCSL Board’s discretion unless OCSL Stockholders specifically state otherwise on their proxy.

An OCSL Stockholder may also authorize a proxy by telephone or through the Internet using the toll-free telephone numbers or web address printed on your proxy card. Authorizing a proxy by telephone or through the Internet requires you to input the control number located on your proxy card. After inputting the control number, you will be prompted to direct your proxy to vote on each proposal. You will have an opportunity to review your directions and make any necessary changes before submitting your directions and terminating the telephone call or Internet link.

If you hold shares of OCSL Common Stock through a broker, bank, trustee or nominee, you must follow the instructions you receive from them in order to revoke your voting instructions. Participating in the virtual OCSL Annual Meeting does not revoke your proxy unless you also vote online at the OCSL Annual Meeting.

Solicitation of Proxies

OCSL and OCSI will bear the cost of preparing, printing and mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders of OCSL or Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders of OCSI, as applicable, and proxy cards based on their respective numbers of stockholders. OCSL and OCSI intend to use the services of Broadridge to aid in the distribution and collection of proxies for an estimated fee of approximately $50,000 plus pass through charges. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers or Oaktree employees for such services. For more information regarding expenses related to the Mergers, see "Questions and Answers about the Mergers — Who is responsible for paying the expenses relating to completing the Mergers?"

OCSL Stockholders do not have the right to exercise appraisal rights with respect to any matter to be voted upon at the OCSL Annual Meeting.

THE OCSI SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place of the OCSI Special Meeting

Record Date

The OCSI Record Date is [●], 2021. The OCSI Record Date is established by the OCSI Board, and only holders of record of shares of OCSI Common Stock at the close of business on the OCSI Record Date are entitled to receive notice of the OCSI Special Meeting and vote at the OCSI Special Meeting. THE MERGERS

The discussion in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, which includes the material terms of the Mergers and the principal terms of the Merger Agreement, is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

General Description of the Merger

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub will be merged with and into OCSI. OCSI will be the surviving company and will continue its existence as a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware and a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of OCSL. As of the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease. Immediately after the effectiveness of the Merger, OCSI will merge with and into OCSL, with OCSL as the surviving entity in the Second Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of OCSI Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Cancelled Shares) will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of OCSL Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio, plus any cash in lieu of fractional shares.

Based on the number of shares of OCSL Common Stock issued and outstanding and the NAVs of OCSL and OCSI as of September 30, 2020 (and excluding transaction costs and tax-related distributions), OCSL would issue approximately 1.394 shares of OCSL Common Stock for each share of OCSI Common Stock outstanding, resulting in pro forma ownership of 77.4% for current OCSL Stockholders and 22.6% for current OCSI Stockholders.

Background of the Merger

Since an affiliate of Oaktree became investment adviser to each of OCSL and OCSI in October 2017, each of the Boards has met regularly to provide governance and oversight for the ongoing operation of the business of each of OCSL and OCSI, with a focus on investor protection and maximizing stockholder value. Among other items, at these meetings, each Board reviewed long-term strategic plans for OCSL and OCSI as well as potential business opportunities for each of OCSL and OCSI. As part of these discussions, Oaktree and its affiliates have explored means of reducing the discounts to NAV by which each of OCSL Common Stock and OCSI Common Stock has generally traded since October 2017, including through stock repurchase programs and/or equity raises. Oaktree and the Boards have focused their efforts on opportunities to provide additional scale to OCSL and, in particular, OCSI because of the tendency of Business Development Companies with smaller market capitalizations to trade at a larger discount or smaller premium to NAV. In addition, Oaktree and its affiliates have discussed with the Boards means of attracting additional equity research analyst coverage and institutional investors, as additional interest in the stock by potential investors could yield additional secondary market activity, help reduce the discount to NAV per share and otherwise make raising equity capital in the future easier in addition to providing additional liquidity for existing stockholders. Oaktree and its affiliates also have discussed with the OCSI Board limitations on Business Development Companies with market capitalizations and net assets comparable to OCSI related to investment grade credit ratings and related limitations on access to debt capital on attractive terms in the unsecured debt markets.

As part of these reviews of long-term strategic plans for OCSL and OCSI, Oaktree and its affiliates have regularly reviewed with the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board potential mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures and other similar transaction opportunities that could enhance stockholder value, including opportunities related to each Company's existing joint venture arrangements. From time-to-time, Oaktree and its affiliates have presented to the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board, and the OCSL Board and OCSI Board have considered and discussed, possible strategic transactions that were available to OCSL and OCSI, respectively, and the potential benefits and risks of such transactions.

The onset of the COVID-19 pandemic in March 2020 contributed to significant market volatility and disruption both in the United States and globally. In the United States, the response of federal, state and local authorities to the COVID-19 pandemic included widespread “stay at home” orders and the temporary closure of certain businesses, which impacted the supply chains, consumer demand and/or the operations of many businesses.

On April 30, 2020, at a joint regular telephonic meeting of the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board, with representatives of Oaktree, Stradley Ronon Stevens & Young, LLP (“Stradley”), counsel to the Independent Directors, and Proskauer Rose LLP (“Proskauer”), counsel to Oaktree and each of OCSL and OCSI, also in attendance, representatives of Oaktree discussed at length the performance of each of OCSL and OCSI since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic as well as proactive actions taken by Oaktree and its affiliates to evaluate and support OCSL’s and OCSI’s portfolio companies in light of the COVID-19 pandemic, including outreach to a variety of management teams and sponsors. Representatives of Oaktree noted that, in the then-current environment, they believed attractive risk-adjusted returns could be achieved by making loans to companies in the middle market. Moreover, given the breadth of Oaktree’s investment platform, they expressed a belief that Oaktree had the resources and experience to source, diligence and structure investments in these companies and were well placed to generate attractive returns for investors during the COVID-19 pandemic. Representatives of Oaktree then discussed with the Boards potential opportunities to enhance the balance sheet of each of OCSL and OCSI in order to ensure both entities were well-capitalized to support existing portfolio companies and to make opportunistic investments going forward. As part of this discussion, Oaktree representatives presented to the Boards two means of raising additional equity capital for OCSL and OCSI: (1) issuing shares of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock, as applicable, at a price below NAV per share and (2) conducting a rights offering to existing stockholders. Oaktree representatives then outlined the potential benefits and negative considerations of both options, noting in particular that both options would result in dilution (perhaps significant) to existing stockholders and that the stockholder vote required by the Investment Company Act for a Business Development Company to issue shares of common stock at a price below NAV (outside of a rights offering) would likely be difficult for OCSL or OCSI to achieve given their respective stockholder bases.

On July 31, 2020, at a joint regular telephonic meeting of the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board, with representatives of Oaktree, Stradley and Proskauer also in attendance, representatives of Oaktree provided an update on the performance of OCSL’s and OCSI’s portfolio during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic before discussing two possible alternatives for providing additional scale to OCSI: (1) issuing shares of OCSI Common Stock at NAV per share, with Oaktree funding the difference between NAV per share and the price per share paid by investors, and (2) merging OCSI with and into OCSL. Representatives of Oaktree discussed key considerations in evaluating the alternatives, including the resulting accretion or dilution to stockholders, but did not recommend taking any action at the time.

On September 21, 2020, a joint special telephonic meeting of the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board was held, with representatives of Oaktree, Stradley and Proskauer also in attendance. Representatives of Oaktree outlined an initial proposal for the Mergers, including that the proposed consideration to be paid to OCSI Stockholders would be determined based on the relative NAVs of OCSL and OCSI within 48 hours prior to consummation of the Mergers (a so-called “NAV-for-NAV” transaction). Oaktree discussed the structure and benefits of a NAV-for-NAV transaction and recent market precedent for such a transaction structure. Oaktree representatives also discussed (1) the proposed fee structure and anticipated capital structure for the combined company post-Mergers, including a waiver of a portion of OCSL’s management fees for a period of time to be determined, (2) the approvals required of OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders and (3) an indicative timeline for the Mergers. Representatives of Oaktree then discussed the expected benefits of the Mergers with the Boards, including increased scale and secondary market liquidity, greater portfolio diversification, enhanced access to debt capital markets at more attractive pricing, accretion of net investment income per share and potential expense savings. Representatives of Proskauer and Stradley discussed with the Boards the fiduciary duties of the directors of each Board under Delaware law and considerations under the Investment Company Act, which were further documented in a written memorandum from Proskauer.

Given the membership of each of the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board is identical, the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board then discussed the formation of a special committee for each Board, consisting solely of certain

Independent Directors, to analyze and evaluate the Mergers and negotiate the terms of the Mergers on behalf of such Company, with no director serving on the special committee for more than one Board.

After such discussion, the OCSL Board established the OCSL Special Committee consisting of Ms. Gero and Mr. Ruben. The OCSL Special Committee was authorized to, among other things: (1) review, evaluate, consider and negotiate the terms and conditions of the Mergers and any agreements or arrangements proposed to be entered into by OCSL in connection with or relating to the Mergers, including to determine whether the Mergers are fair to and in the best interests of all OCSL Stockholders and whether the interests of OCSL Stockholders will be diluted for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the Mergers; (2) recommend to the OCSL Board what action, if any, should be taken by the OCSL Board with respect to the Mergers and any such agreements or arrangements proposed to be entered into in connection with or relating to the Mergers; (3) hire any advisors that they deemed appropriate, including their own legal counsel and financial advisor; and (4) take such other actions as the OCSL Special Committee may deem to be necessary or appropriate for the OCSL Special Committee to discharge its duties. The OCSL Board determined to proceed with the Mergers only if the OCSL Special Committee (a) determined that the Mergers are fair to and in the best interests of all OCSL Stockholders and that the interests of OCSL Stockholders will not be diluted for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the Mergers and (b) recommended to the full OCSL Board to approve the Mergers. The OCSL Special Committee was not obligated to recommend the Mergers or any agreements or arrangements proposed to be entered into by OCSL in connection with or relating to the Mergers to the OCSL Board and was authorized to determine, if the OCSL Special Committee deemed appropriate, that it was in the best interests of OCSL and OCSL Stockholders not to proceed with the Mergers.

The OCSI Board established the OCSI Special Committee consisting of Mr. Zimmerman and Mr. Jacobson. The OCSI Special Committee was authorized to, among other things: (1) review, evaluate, consider and negotiate the terms and conditions of the Mergers and any agreements or arrangements proposed to be entered into by OCSI in connection with or relating to the Mergers, including to determine whether the Mergers are fair to and in the best interests of all of OCSI Stockholders and whether the interests of OCSI Stockholders will be diluted for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the Mergers; (2) recommend to the OCSI Board what action, if any, should be taken by the OCSI Board with respect to the Mergers and any such agreements or arrangements proposed to be entered into in connection with or relating to the Mergers; (3) hire any advisors that they deemed appropriate, including their own legal counsel and financial advisor; and (4) take such other actions as the OCSI Special Committee may deem to be necessary or appropriate for the OCSI Special Committee to discharge its duties. The OCSI Board determined to proceed with the Mergers only if the OCSI Special Committee (a) determined that the Mergers are fair to and in the best interests of all OCSI Stockholders and that the interests of OCSI Stockholders will not be diluted for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the Mergers and (b) recommended to the full OCSI Board to approve the Mergers. The OCSI Special Committee was not obligated to recommend the Mergers or any agreements or arrangements proposed to be entered into by OCSI in connection with or relating to the Mergers to the OCSI Board and was authorized to determine, if the OCSI Special Committee deemed appropriate, that it was in the best interests of OCSI and OCSI Stockholders not to proceed with the Mergers.

After creation of the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSI Special Committee, representatives of Oaktree discussed with the OCSL Board options (and the expected costs) with respect to the engagement of a financial advisor for the proposed Mergers. The OCSL Board determined that the OCSL Special Committee would further discuss the subject of financial advisors at a future meeting. The OCSL Special Committee then selected Stradley to act as legal counsel to the OCSL Special Committee in connection with its analysis and evaluation of the Mergers and proceeded to engage Stradley for such role. Stradley agreed to refrain from providing advice to the OCSI Special Committee in connection with the Mergers although it would remain counsel to the OCSI Independent Directors on matters not related to the Mergers.

Following the adjournment of the joint meeting of the Boards, the OCSI Special Committee met separately and without the presence of Oaktree, Proskauer or Stradley for the purpose of selecting legal counsel to represent the OCSI Special Committee in its analysis and evaluation of the Mergers. After interviewing candidates for such role, the OCSI Special Committee selected Dechert LLP (“Dechert”) to act as legal counsel to the OCSI Special Committee and proceeded to engage Dechert in such role and designate it as their independent legal counsel under the Investment Company Act.

On September 23, 2020, Proskauer circulated an initial draft of the Merger Agreement to Stradley and Dechert.

On September 24, 2020, the OCSL Special Committee held a special telephonic meeting, with representatives of Oaktree, Stradley and Proskauer also in attendance. Representatives of Oaktree discussed with the OCSL Special Committee options (and the expected costs) with respect to engaging a financial advisor for the proposed Mergers. Representatives of Proskauer and Stradley discussed considerations under the Delaware General Corporation Law (the “DGCL”) and related case law regarding the potential engagement of a financial advisor by the acquiring entity in a merger. After discussion, the OCSL Special Committee determined to proceed with engaging a financial advisor to provide financial advisory services and evaluate the potential Mergers, including rendering a fairness opinion if requested by the OCSL Special Committee. After discussion among the OCSL Special Committee and representatives of Oaktree, Stradley and Proskauer, the OCSL Special Committee selected certain nationally recognized investment banks to interview for the role of OCSL’s financial advisor in connection with the Mergers and directed Oaktree management to coordinate with Stradley on the scheduling of interviews.

Also, on September 24, 2020, the OCSI Special Committee held a special telephonic meeting with Dechert to discuss the initial draft of the Merger Agreement that had been circulated prior to the meeting and to consider the selection of a financial advisor to the OCSI Special Committee. At the meeting, representatives of Dechert discussed the initial draft of the Merger Agreement that had been circulated prior to the meeting and other aspects regarding the potential mergers. The OCSI Special Committee considered and discussed the reasons for engaging a financial advisor under the DGCL and related case law as well as the approach to be taken to selecting a financial advisor to the OCSI Special Committee for purposes of evaluating the potential Mergers and delivering a fairness opinion regarding the fairness from a financial point of view to holders of OCSI Common Stock of the consideration to be received in connection with the Mergers. After discussion among the OCSI Special Committee and representatives of Dechert, the OCSI Special Committee selected certain nationally recognized investment banks and directed Dechert to coordinate on the scheduling of interviews.

On September 30, 2020, Proskauer circulated a revised draft of the Merger Agreement to Stradley and Dechert.

On September 30, 2020, the OCSI Special Committee held a special telephonic meeting, with representatives of Dechert also in attendance, to interview certain nationally recognized investment banks as financial advisor candidates in connection with its consideration of the Mergers. The OCSI Special Committee evaluated, among other things, the strengths and weaknesses of the presentations made by the financial advisor candidates and each bank’s experience with Business Development Companies, ability to provide high-quality financial advice and assistance with respect to the proposed transaction and estimated fees to be charged in connection with a potential engagement. After evaluating the qualifications of the investment banks, including whether such candidates had relationships with OCSI, OCSL, and Oaktree and its affiliates, the OCSI Special Committee authorized the engagement of Houlihan Lokey as the financial advisor to the OCSI Special Committee. Subsequent to the meeting, Houlihan Lokey was engaged to act as the financial advisor to the OCSI Special Committee.

On October 1, 2020 and again on October 2, 2020, the OCSL Special Committee held special telephonic meetings, with representatives of Stradley also in attendance, to interview certain nationally recognized investment banks as financial advisor candidates in connection with its consideration of the Mergers. The OCSL Special Committee evaluated, among other things, the strengths and weaknesses of the presentations made by the financial advisor candidates and each bank's experience with Business Development Companies, ability to provide high-quality financial advice and assistance with respect to the proposed transaction and estimated fees to be charged in connection with a potential engagement. After evaluating the qualifications of the investment banks, including whether such candidates had relationships with OCSI, OCSL, and Oaktree and its affiliates, the OCSL Special Committee authorized the engagement of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. ("KBW") as the financial advisor to the OCSL Special Committee. Subsequent to the meeting, KBW was engaged to act as the financial advisor to the OCSL Special Committee.

On October 1, 2020, the OCSL Special Committee held a special telephonic meeting, with representatives of Oaktree, Stradley and Proskauer also in attendance. Representatives of Oaktree provided the OCSL Special Committee with an overview of Oaktree's financial analysis of the Mergers, including the key assumptions underlying such analysis, and the net investment income accretion to OCSL that Oaktree expected would result from the proposed Mergers. Representatives of Oaktree also discussed with the OCSL Special Committee the pro forma liquidity and capital structure of OCSL following the Mergers, the consents required under OCSL's and OCSI's respective credit facilities, the potential fee waiver Oaktree was proposing, the expected expense savings from the Mergers and the expected accounting treatment of the Mergers. Discussion ensued and Oaktree management responded to questions from the OCSL Special Committee.

Later on October 1, 2020, the OCSI Special Committee held a special telephonic meeting, with representatives of Oaktree, Dechert and Proskauer also in attendance. Representatives of Oaktree provided the OCSI Special Committee with an overview of Oaktree's financial analysis of the Mergers, including the key assumptions underlying such analysis and the net investment income accretion to OCSI that Oaktree expected would result from the proposed Mergers. Representatives of Oaktree also discussed with the OCSI Special Committee the pro forma liquidity and capital structure of the combined company following the Mergers, the consents required under OCSL's and OCSI's respective credit facilities, the expected expense savings from the Mergers and the expected accounting treatment of the Mergers. Discussion ensued and Oaktree management responded to questions from the OCSI Special Committee.

On October 2, 2020, the OCSI Special Committee held a special meeting at which representatives of Dechert were present. At the meeting, the OCSI Special Committee discussed a revised draft of the proposed Merger Agreement that had been circulated to the members of the OCSI Special Committee prior to the meeting. The OCSI Special Committee discussed the material terms of the proposed Merger Agreement, including a discussion of the structure of the proposed Mergers. In addition, the OCSI Special Committee discussed certain deal protection terms included in the draft Merger Agreement, including events of termination and termination fees, non-solicitation covenants and exceptions thereto and certain other covenants, and the appropriateness of such deal protection measures in light of other affiliated fund mergers as well as the overall market for mergers and acquisitions. The members of the OCSI Special Committee asked questions regarding the draft Merger Agreement and a general discussion ensued regarding the proposed Mergers, the draft Merger Agreement, and comments to the draft Merger Agreement. The OCSI Special Committee requested that Dechert provide certain comments to the draft Merger Agreement on behalf of the OCSI Special Committee. Following the meeting, the OCSI Special Committee requested that Dechert coordinate with Houlihan Lokey regarding the financial analysis to be completed by Houlihan Lokey and reviewed with the OCSI Special Committee.

On October 16, 2020, the OCSL Special Committee held a special telephonic meeting, with representatives of Oaktree, KBW, Stradley and Proskauer also in attendance. Representatives from Oaktree provided the OCSL Special Committee with (1) an updated financial analysis of the Mergers, including the proposed waiver by Oaktree of a portion of the base management fee for each of the eight quarters following the closing of the Mergers and updated estimates of transaction expenses, and (2) an updated analysis of expected expense savings. Representatives of Oaktree then discussed the potential accounting treatment of the Mergers and the expected impact on OCSL's financial statements after consummation of the proposed Mergers. After the discussion with representatives of Oaktree, the OCSL Special Committee consulted with representatives of KBW regarding, among other things, (a) potential benefits of the Mergers (as identified by Oaktree) and a comparison of the Mergers to other potential strategic alternatives, including an equity raise at below NAV (either through direct issuance of shares or through a rights offering) or a merger with an unaffiliated Business Development Company, (b) the implied Exchange Ratio based on June 30, 2020 NAVs, (c) the benchmarking of the implied proposed transaction pricing based on such implied Exchange Ratio against the market performance of selected publicly traded companies, (d) the synergistic investment overlap between OCSL and OCSI and (e) illustrative pro forma financial statements and relative contribution to the pro forma company. Representatives of KBW observed that, based on Oaktree's assumptions underlying the Mergers, the Mergers could be accretive to OCSL's net investment income. Following this discussion with KBW, Proskauer and Stradley discussed the draft Merger Agreement with the OCSL Special Committee at length, including the covenants and procedures related to unsolicited transaction proposals and remaining open items, and the expected timeline for execution of the agreement. The OCSL Special Committee then met in executive session with KBW and Stradley and discussed the financial aspects of the Mergers reviewed by KBW earlier in the meeting and certain aspects of the draft Merger Agreement, including potential termination fees.

On October 19, 2020, Proskauer circulated a revised draft of the Merger Agreement to Stradley.

On October 20, 2020, the OCSI Special Committee held a special telephonic meeting, with representatives of Oaktree, Dechert, Proskauer and Houlihan Lokey also in attendance. Representatives from Oaktree provided the OCSI Special Committee with (1) an updated financial analysis of the Mergers, including the proposed waiver by Oaktree of a portion of the base management fee for each of the eight quarters following the closing of the Mergers and updated estimates of transaction expenses and (2) an updated analysis of expected expense savings. Representatives of Oaktree then discussed the potential accounting treatment of the Mergers and the expected impact on OCSL's financial statements after consummation of the proposed Mergers. After these discussions, representatives of Houlihan Lokey reviewed and discussed with the OCSI Special Committee its proposed financial analysis of OCSI, OCSL and the Mergers. Representatives of Houlihan Lokey discussed considerations regarding the strategic rationale for the Mergers and described the methods that Houlihan Lokey intended to use in evaluating the fairness, from a financial point of view, to holders of OCSI Common Stock (other than OCSL and any of its consolidated subsidiaries, including Merger Sub (collectively, the "Excluded Holders")) of the Exchange Ratio. Following Houlihan Lokey's review, Proskauer discussed the draft Merger Agreement with the OCSI Special Committee, noting the current status of the Merger Agreement, remaining open items and the expected timeline for execution of the Merger Agreement.

On October 21, 2020, Proskauer, Dechert and Stradley held a telephone call to discuss the draft Merger Agreement, including the proposed termination fee.

Lokey's preliminary financial analyses of the potential merger with OCSL, including a discussion of the methods and the financial metrics used in its analyses. Houlihan Lokey reviewed the financial terms of the potential transaction and historical trading prices of each of OCSI and OCSL. Houlihan Lokey also discussed the historical financial results for both OCSI and OCSL and reviewed with the OCSI Special Committee financial projections prepared by the management of Oaktree relating to each of OCSI, OCSL and the combined company that would be created if the proposed mergers were consummated. Houlihan Lokey responded to questions raised by the members of the OCSI Special Committee.

On October 28, 2020, Proskauer circulated a revised draft of the Merger Agreement to Stradley and Dechert, each of which confirmed that their firm had no further comments.

On October 28, 2020, the OCSL Special Committee held a special telephonic meeting, with representatives of Oaktree, Stradley, Proskauer and KBW also in attendance. Representatives of Oaktree reviewed with the OCSL Special Committee the key benefits that Oaktree expected to accrue to OCSL and the OCSL Stockholders as a result of the Mergers, including increased scale, enhanced diversification from an integrated portfolio, operating synergies and greater access to debt capital markets. Representatives of Oaktree also discussed with the OCSL Special Committee the potential risks of the Mergers, including the time and ability to rotate out of lower-yielding OCSI assets and potential stockholder litigation. Oaktree representatives noted that, in order to maintain its RIC status and avoid paying excise taxes, OCSI would be required to distribute all previously undistributed taxable income immediately prior to closing of the Mergers, which would reduce its NAV for determining the Exchange Ratio. Representatives of Oaktree then described the expected accounting treatment of the Mergers. Oaktree then described the valuation process for determining the NAVs of OCSL and OCSI within 48 hours of closing in order to calculate the Exchange Ratio and provided an update to its financial analysis of the Mergers. The OCSL Special Committee then consulted with representatives of KBW, who reviewed potential benefits of the Mergers (both independently and as compared to alternatives) as discussed with the committee at a previous meeting, including the potential for net investment income accretion, and compared the implied transaction pricing based on the implied Exchange Ratio resulting from the June 30, 2020 NAVs for OCSL and OCSI (taking into account transaction expenses) with various groups of selected precedent transactions. Representatives of Proskauer then reviewed with the OCSL Special Committee the revised draft of the Merger Agreement and discussed the material changes since the draft previously reviewed and discussed with the OCSL Special Committee, including with respect to the termination fee. Discussion ensued and Proskauer responded to questions from the OCSL Special Committee.

Following a discussion of the foregoing matters and other matters presented, the OCSL Special Committee (1) unanimously determined, and recommended that the OCSL Board determine, (a) that the Merger Agreement, the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of OCSL and the OCSL Stockholders and (b) that the interests of existing OCSL Stockholders would not be diluted for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Mergers and (2) unanimously recommended that the OCSL Board approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Mergers.

Later on October 28, 2020, the OCSI Special Committee held a special telephonic meeting, with representatives of Oaktree, Dechert, Proskauer and Houlihan Lokey also participating in such meeting. Representatives of Oaktree reviewed with the OCSI Special Committee the key benefits that Oaktree expected to accrue to OCSI and the OCSI Stockholders as a result of the Mergers, including increased scale, enhanced diversification from an integrated portfolio, operating synergies and greater access to debt capital markets. Representatives of Oaktree also discussed with the OCSI Special Committee the potential risks of the Mergers, including the time and ability to rotate out of lower-yielding OCSI assets and potential stockholder litigation. Oaktree representatives noted that, in order to maintain its RIC status and avoid paying excise taxes, OCSI would be required to distribute all previously undistributed taxable income immediately prior to closing of the Mergers, which would reduce its NAV for determining the Exchange Ratio. Representatives of Oaktree then described the expected accounting treatment of the Mergers and the valuation process for determining the NAVs of OCSL and OCSI within 48 hours of closing in order to calculate the Exchange Ratio and provided an update to its financial analysis of the Mergers. At the request of the OCSI Special Committee, Houlihan Lokey then reviewed and discussed its financial analyses with respect to OCSI, OCSL and the proposed Mergers. Thereafter, at the request of the OCSI Special Committee, Houlihan Lokey orally rendered its opinion to the OCSI Special Committee (which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of Houlihan Lokey's written opinion dated October 28, 2020 addressed to the OCSI Special Committee and, as requested by the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board), as to, as of such date, the fairness, from a financial point of view, to holders of OCSI Common Stock (other than the Excluded Holders) of the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Representatives of Proskauer then reviewed with the OCSI Special Committee the revised draft of the Merger Agreement and discussed the material changes since the draft previously reviewed by and discussed with the OCSI Special Committee, including with respect to the termination fee. Discussion ensued and Proskauer responded to questions from the OCSI Special Committee.

Following a discussion of the foregoing matters and other matters presented, the OCSI Special Committee (1) unanimously determined, and recommended that the OCSI Board determine, (a) that the Merger Agreement, the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of OCSI and the OCSI Stockholders and (b) that the interests of existing OCSI Stockholders would not be diluted for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Mergers and (2) unanimously recommended that the OCSI Board approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Mergers.

On October 28, 2020, following completion of the meetings of both the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board held a special joint telephonic meeting, with representatives of Oaktree, Stradley, Dechert, Proskauer and KBW also in attendance. Representatives of Proskauer reviewed with the Boards the draft Merger Agreement. Representatives of Stradley then discussed with the Boards the findings required for the Mergers to qualify for an exemption to the joint transaction restrictions applicable to BDCs under Section 57 of the Investment Company Act found in Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act, which permits mergers of Business Development Companies with certain affiliates that would otherwise be prohibited by Section 57 of the Investment Company Act. Representatives from Proskauer and Stradley then discussed with the Boards the draft Merger Agreement, the timing of the announcement of the Mergers and the process of soliciting the necessary OCSL Stockholder and OCSI Stockholder approvals.

Thereafter, on the unanimous recommendation of the OCSL Special Committee, the OCSL Board, including all of the OCSL Independent Directors, unanimously (1) determined that (a) the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Mergers, are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of OCSL and OCSL Stockholders, and (b) that the interests of existing OCSL Stockholders would not be diluted for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Mergers, (2) approved, adopted and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Mergers and the issuance of OCSL Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement. The OCSL Board then directed that issuance of OCSL Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement be submitted to OCSL Stockholders for approval and resolved to recommend that OCSL Stockholders vote to approve the same.

Following approval of the Merger Agreement by the OCSL Board, on the unanimous recommendation of the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board, including all of the OCSI Independent Directors, unanimously (1) determined that (a) the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Mergers, are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of OCSI and OCSI Stockholders, and (b) that the interests of existing OCSI Stockholders would not be diluted for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Mergers, (2) approved, adopted and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Mergers. The OCSI Board then directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to the OCSI Stockholders for approval and resolved to recommend that OCSI Stockholders vote to adopt the same and approve the Mergers.

Following the October 28, 2020 meetings of the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSL Special Committee and the joint meeting of the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board, OCSI, OCSL, Merger Sub and Oaktree executed and delivered the Merger Agreement. On October 29, 2020, OCSL and OCSI issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement and held a joint investor call to discuss the Mergers.

For more information concerning the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement as negotiated by the parties, see “Description of the Merger Agreement” beginning on page 63 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Reasons for the Mergers

OCSL

At various telephonic meetings, the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered the approval of the Mergers and the Merger Agreement. In connection with their consideration, Oaktree provided the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board with information regarding the proposed Mergers, OCSI and the anticipated effects of the Mergers on OCSL and OCSL Stockholders. During the process of reviewing the materials and information provided and considering the Mergers, the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board consulted with Stradley, Proskauer, KBW and other advisors, as well as management of Oaktree. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered the nature and adequacy of the information provided, the terms of the Merger Agreement, their duties under state and federal law in considering and ultimately approving the Merger Agreement and the Mergers and the conflicts of interest presented by the transactions provided for in the Merger Agreement. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered numerous factors, including the ones described below, in connection with their consideration and approval of the Merger Agreement and the Mergers. On October 28, 2020, the OCSL Board and the OCSL Special Committee unanimously determined that the Mergers are in the best interests of OCSL and in the best interests of OCSL Stockholders, and that existing OCSL Stockholders will not suffer any dilution for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the Mergers.

In considering the Mergers, the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board reviewed comparative information about OCSL and OCSI including, among other items: (1) their respective investment objectives, strategies, policies and restrictions and what changes, if any, would occur as a result of the Mergers; (2) their individual holdings, including, in particular, the holdings of OCSI that were not currently held by OCSL; (3) their existing leverage facilities; (4) their investment performance and financial results; (5) the level of past distributions and expenses and the anticipated effect of the Mergers on future OCSL net investment income, distributions and expenses; and (6) the U.S. federal income tax implications of the Mergers. In addition, the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board reviewed comprehensive information regarding the anticipated benefits and possible risks to OCSL as a result of the Mergers, and the anticipated investment, market and financial synergies to be experienced by the combined company. The OCSL Special Committee considered the potential financial impacts to OCSL as a result of the Mergers in consultation with KBW, the financial advisor to the OCSL Special Committee.

The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board weighed various benefits and risks in considering the Mergers, both with respect to the immediate effects of the Mergers on OCSL and OCSL Stockholders and with respect to the potential benefits that could be experienced by the combined company after the Mergers. Some of the material factors considered by the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board that assisted it in concluding that the Mergers are in the best interests of OCSL and OCSL Stockholders included, among others:

Expected Accretion to Net Investment Income. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered that the Mergers are expected to be accretive to net investment income in both the short-term and long-term. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board noted that Oaktree expects, in the short term, accretion to net investment income to be delivered primarily by the waiver of base management fees by Oaktree and, over the long term, that expense savings and the rotation of legacy OCSI assets into higher yielding investments will drive net investment income growth. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board noted that the expected accretion to net investment income from the Mergers was likely a superior outcome in the initial and intermediate term as compared to a direct equity raise or a rights offering.

Increase in First-Lien Investments. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered that, as of June 30, 2020, 88% of OCSI's investment portfolio at fair value was in first lien senior secured loans, compared to 61% of OCSL's investment portfolio. Based on the June 30, 2020 portfolio of each of OCSL and OCSI, on a pro forma basis, 68% of the portfolio of the combined entity would be in first lien senior secured loans. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered the lower risk profile of the OCSL portfolio post-Mergers due to a larger percentage of first lien loans.

Expected Greater Access to Debt Capital. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board discussed how the larger scale of the combined company may improve OCSL's access to the unsecured debt market compared to what OCSL would be expected to obtain without the scale provided by the Mergers. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board noted that unsecured debt can offer advantages over traditional bank credit facilities, including longer terms, fewer covenants and, since unsecured debt does not require OCSL to pledge assets as collateral, greater flexibility in times of market volatility. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board noted that the Mergers would better facilitate maintaining leverage within OCSL's target levels as compared to a direct equity raise (including a rights offering) or the acquisition of a portfolio of loans from a third party.

Increased Scale and Improved Secondary Market Liquidity. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered scale and liquidity advantages expected to accrue to the combined company as a result of its larger size. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered that larger Business Development Companies tend to have higher average daily trading volumes, which would give existing OCSL Stockholders more flexibility to manage their investments and would be expected to attract new investors, including institutional investors, seeking a more liquid stock than OCSL provides on a standalone basis. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board also considered that larger Business Development Companies generally have broader coverage by equity research analysts, which is also expected to expand the potential stockholder base of the combined company. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board noted that increased interest in OCSL Common Stock by a larger number of potential stockholders could result in increased trading volumes and higher trading prices, which could provide greater flexibility and opportunity to raise additional equity capital in the future.

Acquisition of a Known, Diversified Portfolio. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered that the significant overlap of OCSI's investments with those of OCSL (approximately 55% of the debt investments held by OCSI on June 30, 2020 were also held by OCSL and comprised 50% of OCSL's debt portfolio as of June 30, 2020) and Oaktree's familiarity with the investments held by OCSI would result in a more straightforward and faster integration of the portfolio into OCSL's than a portfolio of a third party. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board noted that the acquisition of OCSI's portfolio of investments would lead to a larger portfolio with more individual borrowers. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board also considered the advantages to OCSL of immediately acquiring known, income-producing assets already diligenced and managed by Oaktree as opposed to the process of raising incremental capital in follow-on equity or rights offerings, and suffering lower returns until such capital is invested in income producing assets consistent with Oaktree's underwriting standards. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board also considers that execution and integration risk could be lower as compared to a merger with an unaffiliated entity.

No Dilution. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Boards considered that the Exchange Ratio (and thus the number of shares of OCSL Common Stock to be issued to OCSI Stockholders pursuant to the Merger Agreement) will be determined on a NAV-for-NAV basis (determined shortly before the Closing Date on the basis of methodologies that were considered and approved by the Boards) and therefore the interests of the OCSL

Stockholders will not be diluted for purposes of Rule 17a-8 under the Investment Company Act as a result of the Mergers.

Potential for Operational Synergies via the Elimination of Redundant Expenses. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board also considered that, as a result of the Mergers, certain redundant professional services and other corporate expenses would be eliminated, which would reduce the potential expenses of the combined company as compared to the aggregate expenses of OCSL and OCSI on a standalone basis. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board noted that, although certain one-time costs would be borne by OCSL Stockholders in connection with the Mergers, such costs would be offset by the base management fee waiver by Oaktree and operating expenses synergies.

Tax Consequences of the Mergers. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered that the Mergers are expected to qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The Mergers are anticipated to be treated as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes and OCSL Stockholders are not expected to recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the Mergers.

Other Considerations. The OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board noted that the Mergers are not expected to affect the ability of OCSL to comply with its regulatory obligations, including its ability to continue to operate in compliance with the asset coverage requirements set forth in the 1940 Act and to pay dividends required of RICs.

In the course of its deliberations, the OCSL Board and the OCSL Special Committee also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors that could cause the Mergers not to close or the anticipated benefits of the Mergers not to be realized, including the following (which are not in any relative order of importance):

- Failure to Close. The Mergers may not be completed or that completion may be delayed for reasons beyond the control of OCSL or OCSI.
- Management Diversion. It is possible that the attention of management may be diverted during the period prior to completion of the Mergers, which may adversely affect OCSL’s business.
- Restrictions on Conduct of Business. The restrictions on the conduct of OCSL’s business prior to completion of the Mergers, requiring OCSL to conduct its business only in the ordinary course of business in all material respects, subject to specific limitations, could delay or prevent OCSL from undertaking certain business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Mergers.
- Restrictions on Superior Proposals. The Merger Agreement includes restrictions on the ability of OCSL to solicit proposals for alternative transactions or engage in discussions regarding such proposals, subject to exceptions and termination provisions (as more fully described in the section entitled “Description of the Merger Agreement — Additional Agreements”), which could have the effect of discouraging such proposals from being made or pursued.
- Failure to Timely Rotate out of OCSI Assets. Certain expected benefits of the Mergers to OCSL depend upon the ability of Oaktree to rotate the combined entity out of certain lower-yielding assets currently held by OCSI into higher yielding assets consistent with OCSL’s investment objectives and strategies. If Oaktree is unable to accomplish this rotation in a timely fashion, it could have an adverse impact on OCSL’s results of operations and the ability to increase net investment income.
- Fees Associated with the Mergers. Except certain limited expenses that will be split equally with OCSI, OCSL will be responsible for the expenses incurred by OCSL in connection with the Mergers and the completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, whether or not the Mergers are ultimately consummated.

- Litigation Risk. Mergers of publicly traded companies are frequently the subject of litigation. If any litigation arises in connection with the Mergers, even if any plaintiff's claims are without merit, it could divert management time and resources away from OCSL's business.
- Other Risks. There are various other risks associated with the Mergers and the business of OCSL and the combined company described in the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 20 and in the section entitled "Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 29.

This discussion of the information and factors that the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board considered in making their decisions is not intended to be exhaustive but includes the material benefits, risks and other factors considered by the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board. Because of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with the evaluation of the Mergers and Merger Agreement and the complexity of those matters, the OCSL Board and the OCSL Special Committee did not find it useful to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors. In addition, the individual members of the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board may have given different weights to different factors.

The OCSL Special Committee consulted with KBW, as its financial advisor, in connection with its evaluation of the financial terms of the Mergers. In addition, the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSL Board relied on their respective legal advisors for legal analysis in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Mergers.

The OCSL Special Committee and, upon the unanimous recommendation of the OCSL Special Committee, the OCSL Board considered all of these factors and others as a whole and, on balance, determined the Mergers to be in the best interests of OCSL and OCSL Stockholders and unanimously approved the Mergers and the Merger Agreement.

OCSI

At various telephonic meetings, the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered the approval of the Mergers and the Merger Agreement. In connection with their consideration, Oaktree provided the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board with information regarding the proposed Mergers, OCSL and the anticipated effects of the Mergers on OCSI and OCSI Stockholders. Throughout the process of reviewing the materials and information provided and considering the Mergers, the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board consulted with Proskauer, Dechert, Houlihan Lokey and other advisors, as well as management of Oaktree. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered the nature and adequacy of the information provided, the terms of the Merger Agreement, their duties under state and federal law in considering and ultimately approving the Merger Agreement and the Mergers and the conflicts of interest presented by the transactions provided for in the Merger Agreement. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered numerous factors, including the ones described below, in connection with their consideration and approval of the Merger Agreement and the Mergers. On October 28, 2020, the OCSI Board and the OCSI Special Committee unanimously determined that the Mergers are in the best interests of OCSI and in the best interests of OCSI Stockholders, and that existing OCSI Stockholders will not suffer any dilution for purposes of Rule 17a-8 of the Investment Company Act as a result of the Mergers.

In considering the Merger, the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board reviewed comparative information about OCSI and OCSL including, among other items: (1) their respective investment objectives, strategies, policies and restrictions and what changes would occur as a result of the Mergers; (2) information regarding how their holdings differ; (3) their existing leverage facilities; (4) their short-term and long-term investment performance history and financial results; (5) the level of past distributions and expenses and the anticipated effect of the Mergers on future net investment income, distributions and expenses; and (6) the U.S. federal income tax implications of the Mergers. In addition, the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board reviewed comprehensive information regarding the anticipated benefits and possible risks to OCSI and OCSI

Stockholders as a result of the Mergers, and the anticipated investment, market and financial synergies to be experienced by the combined company. With respect to the potential impacts to OCSI and OCSI Stockholders as a result of the Mergers, the OCSI Special Committee also considered certain financial analysis prepared for the OCSI Special Committee by Houlihan Lokey, the financial advisor engaged by the OCSI Special Committee to provide an opinion to the OCSI Special Committee and, at the request of the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board regarding the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of OCSI Common Stock (other than the Excluded Holders) of the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Mergers pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board weighed various benefits and risks in considering the Mergers, both with respect to the immediate effects of the Mergers on OCSI and OCSI Stockholders and with respect to the potential benefits that could be experienced by the combined company after the Mergers. Some of the material factors considered by the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board that assisted it in concluding that the Mergers are in the best interests of OCSI and OCSI Stockholders included, among others:

Expected Accretion to Net Investment Income. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered that the Mergers are expected to be accretive to net investment income in both the short-term and long-term. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board noted that Oaktree expects, in the short term, accretion to net investment income to be delivered primarily by the waiver of base management fees by Oaktree and, over the long term, that expense savings and the rotation of legacy OCSI assets into higher yielding investments will drive net investment income growth.

Increased Portfolio Yield. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered that, as of June 30, 2020, the weighted average yield on debt investments in OCSL's and OCSI's portfolio was 8.1% and 6.5% (excluding the OCSI Glick JV, which was on non-accrual status), respectively, and that as a result of the Mergers, OCSI Stockholders would be invested in an entity with a higher weighted average portfolio yield.

Expected Greater Access to Debt Capital. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered how OCSL's investment grade credit rating would allow the combined company to access the unsecured institutional debt market. The OCSI Board noted that unsecured debt can offer advantages over bank credit facilities currently utilized by OCSI including longer terms, fewer covenants and, since unsecured debt does not require pledging assets as collateral, greater flexibility in times of market volatility.

Increased Equity Coverage and Improved Secondary Market Liquidity. In the Mergers, OCSI Stockholders will receive OCSL Common Stock and the assets of OCSI will be incorporated into OCSL, increasing OCSL's market capitalization and NAV. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered that larger Business Development Companies tend to have higher average daily trading volumes, which would give existing OCSI Stockholders more flexibility to manage their investments and would be expected to attract new investors seeking a more liquid stock than either company provides on a standalone basis. The OCSI Board and the OCSI Special Committee noted that, as a standalone company, OCSI is only followed by a single equity research analyst and would benefit from the additional research coverage received by OCSL (which is currently covered by seven equity research analysts). They further noted that OCSL's increased size as a result of the Mergers could result in additional market coverage of OCSL by analysts and, potentially, an increased focus by current and potential investors on the combined company. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board noted that increased interest in the OCSL Common Stock by a larger number of potential stockholders could result in increased trading volumes and higher trading prices, which could provide greater flexibility for the combined company to raise additional equity capital in the future.

Expected Dividend Accretion. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered that the Mergers would be accretive to dividends received by OCSI Stockholders in both the short-term and long-term, as OCSI Stockholders would benefit from the higher yielding assets currently in the OCSL portfolio and the rotation of existing OCSI assets into higher yielding assets consistent with OCSL's investment objective and strategies.

Continuity of Oaktree and the Management Team. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board, considered that the combined company would have the same investment adviser and management team that have already been considered and approved by the OCSI Board. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered that, because there would be no change in the investment adviser, the combined entity and the OCSI Stockholders would be expected to receive the same nature, quality and extent of services from Oaktree that they are currently receiving and would continue to benefit from the experience and expertise of its current management team, including familiarity with the investment portfolio.

Ease of Portfolio Integration. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered that the significant overlap of OCSI's investments with those of OCSL (approximately 50% of the investments held by OCSI on June 30, 2020 were also held by OCSL) and Oaktree's familiarity with the investments held by OCSI would result a more straightforward and faster integration of OCSI's portfolio into that of OCSL than into a portfolio of an unaffiliated acquirer with reduced execution risk. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board also considered the larger portfolio size and increased number of individual borrowers of the combined entity.

Potential for Operational Synergies via the Elimination of Redundant Expenses. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board also considered that, as a result of the Mergers, certain redundant professional services and other corporate expenses would be eliminated, which would reduce the potential expenses of the combined company as compared to the aggregate expenses of OCSL and OCSI on a standalone basis. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board noted that, although certain one-time costs would be borne by OCSI Stockholders in connection with the Mergers, such costs would be offset by operating expense synergies.

Tax Consequences of the Mergers. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered that the Mergers are expected to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. OCSI Stockholders are not expected to recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of OCSI Common Stock for shares of OCSL Common Stock pursuant to the Mergers, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of OCSL Common Stock. OCSI Stockholders will receive a distribution of their proportionate share of OCSI's undistributed net investment income and net realized gains, if any, prior to or shortly after the completion of the Mergers (the "OCSI Distribution") that generally will be taxable to taxable stockholders for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes. The OCSI Distribution may include return of capital which would generally result in a reduction in basis.

Opinion of Houlihan Lokey, Financial Advisor to the OCSI Special Committee. The OCSI Special Committee considered the financial analysis reviewed by Houlihan Lokey with the OCSI Special Committee as well as the oral opinion of Houlihan Lokey rendered to the OCSI Special Committee on October 28, 2020 (which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of Houlihan Lokey's written opinion dated October 28, 2020 addressed to the OCSI Special Committee and, as requested by the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board), as to, as of October 28, 2020, the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of OCSI Common Stock (other than the Excluded Holders) of the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement, as more fully described below in the section entitled "— Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the OCSI Special Committee."

Other Considerations. The OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board also considered that the OCSI Board will declare the OCSI Distribution.

In the course of its deliberations, the OCSI Board and the OCSI Special Committee also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors, including the following (which are not in any relative order of importance):

- Failure to Close. It is possible that the Mergers may not be completed or that completion may be delayed for reasons beyond the control of OCSL or OCSI.

- Management Diversion. It is possible that the attention of management may be diverted during the period prior to completion of the Mergers, which may adversely affect OCSI's business.
- Restrictions on Conduct of Business. The restrictions on the conduct of OCSI's business prior to completion of the Mergers, requiring OCSI to conduct its business only in the ordinary course of business in all material respects, subject to specific limitations, could delay or prevent OCSI from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Mergers.
- Restrictions on Superior Proposals. The Merger Agreement includes restrictions on the ability of OCSI to solicit proposals for alternative transactions or engage in discussions regarding such proposals, subject to exceptions and termination provisions (as more fully described in the section entitled "Description of the Merger Agreement — Additional Agreements"), which could have the effect of discouraging such proposals from being made or pursued.
- Fees Associated with the Mergers. Except certain limited expenses that will be split equally with OCSL, OCSI will be responsible for the expenses incurred by OCSI in connection with the Mergers and the completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, whether or not the Mergers are ultimately consummated.
- Litigation Risk. Mergers of publicly traded companies are frequently the subject of litigation. If any litigation arises in connection with the Mergers, even if any plaintiff's claims are without merit, it could divert management time and resources away from the combined company's business.
- Failure to Timely Rotate out of OCSI Assets. Certain expected benefits of the Mergers to OCSI Stockholders depend upon the ability of Oaktree to rotate the combined entity out of certain lower-yielding assets currently held by OCSI into higher yielding assets consistent with OCSL's investment objectives and strategies. If Oaktree is unable to accomplish this rotation in a timely fashion, it could have an adverse impact on the combined entity's results of operations and the ability to increase net investment income.
- Change in Investment Strategy. While there is significant overlap in the investment strategies and portfolio of OCSL and OCSI, certain OCSI Stockholders may prefer exposure to the investment strategy and portfolio of OCSI.
- Higher Base Management Fee. While Oaktree has agreed to waive $750,000 of base management fees in each of the eight quarters immediately following the closing of the Mergers (for an aggregate waiver of $6.0 million of base management fees), OCSL's base management fee rate is higher than that of OCSI, which could result in decreases in net investment income or dividends for OCSI Stockholders if Oaktree is unable to successfully rotate out of lower-yielding OCSI investments.
- Other Risks. There are various other risks associated with the Mergers and the business of OCSI and the combined company described in the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 20 and in the section entitled "Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 29.

This discussion of the information and factors that the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board considered in making their decisions is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material benefits, risks and other factors considered by the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board. Because of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with the evaluation of the Mergers and Merger Agreement and the complexity of those matters, the OCSI Board and the OCSI Special Committee did not find it useful to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors. In addition, the individual members of the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board may have given different weights to different factors.

The OCSI Special Committee consulted with Houlihan Lokey, as its financial advisor, for analysis of the financial terms of the Mergers. In addition, the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board relied on their legal advisors for legal analysis in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Mergers.

The OCSI Special Committee and, upon the unanimous recommendation of the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board considered all of these factors and others as a whole and, on balance, determined the Mergers to be in the best interests of OCSI and OCSI Stockholders and unanimously approved the Mergers and the Merger Agreement.

OCSL Board Recommendation

The OCSL Board, upon recommendation of the OCSL Special Committee, has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement, including the Merger and the related transactions, and the proposed issuance of OCSL Common Stock in connection with the Merger, and directed that the proposed issuance of OCSL Common Stock in connection with the Mergers be submitted to the OCSL Stockholders for approval at the OCSL Annual Meeting. The OCSL Board unanimously recommends that OCSL Stockholders vote “FOR” the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

OCSI Board Recommendation

The OCSI Board, upon recommendation of the OCSI Special Committee, has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement, including the Mergers and the related transactions, and directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to the OCSI Stockholders for approval at the OCSI Special Meeting. The OCSI Board unanimously recommends that OCSI Stockholders vote “FOR” the Merger Proposal.

Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the OCSI Special Committee

On October 28, 2020, Houlihan Lokey orally rendered its opinion to the OCSI Special Committee (which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of Houlihan Lokey’s written opinion addressed to the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board dated October 28, 2020), as to, as of October 28, 2020, the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of OCSI Common Stock (other than the Excluded Holders) of the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

Houlihan Lokey’s opinion was directed to the OCSI Special Committee (in its capacity as such) and, as requested by the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board (in its capacity as such), and only addressed the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of OCSI Common Stock (other than the Excluded Holders) of the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement and did not address any other aspect or implication of the Merger or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection therewith or otherwise. The summary of Houlihan Lokey’s opinion in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of its written opinion, which is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in connection with the preparation of its opinion. However, neither Houlihan Lokey’s opinion nor the summary of its opinion and the related analyses set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus are intended to be, and do not constitute, advice or a recommendation to the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board, any security holder of OCSI or any other person as to how to act or vote with respect to any matter relating to the Mergers.

In arriving at its opinion, Houlihan Lokey, among other things:

- reviewed the Merger Agreement;
- reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to OCSI and OCSL that Houlihan Lokey deemed to be relevant;
- reviewed certain information relating to the historical, current and future operations, financial condition and prospects of OCSI and OCSL made available to Houlihan Lokey by Oaktree, including (a) financial projections prepared by the management of Oaktree relating to OCSI (the “OCSI Projections”), (b) financial projections prepared by the management of Oaktree relating to OCSL (the “OCSL Projections”), and (c) solely for illustrative purposes, financial projections prepared by the management of Oaktree relating to OCSL after giving effect to the Merger (the “Pro Forma OCSL Projections”);

- spoke with certain members of the management of Oaktree and certain of its representatives and advisors regarding the respective businesses, operations, financial condition and prospects of OCSI and OCSL, the Merger and related matters;
- compared the financial and operating performance of OCSI and OCSL with that of companies with publicly traded equity securities that Houlihan Lokey deemed to be relevant;
- considered the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions that Houlihan Lokey deemed to be relevant;
- reviewed the NAV per share of OCSI Common Stock and the NAV per share of OCSL Common Stock as of June 30, 2020, prepared and provided to Houlihan Lokey by Oaktree, as adjusted for estimated transaction expenses provided by Oaktree (the “Adjusted June 30 NAVs”);
- compared the Exchange Ratio, determined on the basis of the Adjusted June 30 NAVs, to the relative value reference ranges that Houlihan Lokey believed were indicated by its financial analyses of OCSI and OCSL;
- reviewed the current and historical market prices for certain of OCSI’s and OCSL’s publicly traded equity securities; and
- conducted such other financial studies, analyses and inquiries and considered such other information and factors as Houlihan Lokey deemed appropriate.

Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all data, material and other information furnished, or otherwise made available, to it, discussed with or reviewed by it, or publicly available, and did not assume any responsibility with respect to such data, material and other information. In addition, management of Oaktree advised Houlihan Lokey, and Houlihan Lokey assumed, that the OCSI Projections, the OCSL Projections and the Pro Forma OCSL Projections were reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management as to the future financial results and condition of OCSI, OCSL on a standalone basis and OCSL after giving effect to the Merger, respectively. At the OCSI Special Committee’s direction, Houlihan Lokey assumed that the OCSI Projections and the OCSL Projections provided a reasonable basis on which to evaluate OCSI, OCSL and the Merger and Houlihan Lokey, at the OCSI Special Committee’s direction, used and relied upon the OCSI Projections and the OCSL Projections for purposes of its analyses and opinion. Houlihan Lokey expressed no view or opinion with respect to the OCSI Projections, the OCSL Projections, the Pro Forma OCSL Projections or the respective assumptions on which they were based. Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that there had been no change in the business, assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or prospects of OCSI or OCSL since the respective dates of the most recent financial statements and other information, financial or otherwise, provided to Houlihan Lokey that would be material to its analyses or opinion, and that there was no information or any facts that would make any of the information reviewed by Houlihan Lokey incomplete or misleading.

Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that (a) the representations and warranties of all parties to the Merger Agreement and all other related documents and instruments referred to therein were true and correct, (b) each party to the Merger Agreement and such other related documents and instruments would fully and timely perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party, (c) all conditions to the consummation of the Merger would be satisfied without waiver thereof, and (d) the Merger would be consummated in a timely manner in accordance with the terms described in the Merger Agreement and such other related documents and instruments, without any amendments or modifications thereto that would be material to its analyses or opinion. Houlihan Lokey also assumed that the Merger, together with the Second Merger, would qualify, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that (i) the Merger would be consummated in a manner that complies in all respects with all applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations, and (ii) all governmental, regulatory, and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger would be obtained and that no delay, limitations, restrictions or conditions would be imposed or amendments, modifications or waivers made that would result in the disposition of any assets of OCSI or OCSL, or otherwise have an effect on the Merger, OCSI or OCSL or any expected benefits of the Merger that would be material to its analyses or opinion. In addition, Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the final form of the Merger Agreement would not differ from the copy of the Merger Agreement reviewed by Houlihan Lokey prior to delivering its opinion in any respect material to its analyses or opinion.

Furthermore, in connection with its opinion, Houlihan Lokey was not requested to, and did not, make any physical inspection or independent appraisal or evaluation of any of the assets, properties or liabilities (fixed, contingent, derivative, off-balance-sheet or otherwise) of OCSI, OCSL or any other party. Houlihan Lokey did not estimate, and expressed no opinion regarding, the liquidation value of any entity or business. Houlihan Lokey did not undertake any independent analysis of any potential or actual litigation, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities, to which OCSI or OCSL was or may have been a party or was or may have been subject, or of any governmental investigation of any possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which OCSI or OCSL was or may have been a party or was or may have been subject.

Houlihan Lokey was not requested to, and did not, (a) initiate or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or solicit any indications of interest from, third parties with respect to the Merger, the securities, assets, businesses or operations of OCSI, OCSL or any other party, or any alternatives to the Merger, or (b) advise the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board or any other party with respect to alternatives to the Merger. Houlihan Lokey’s opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Houlihan Lokey as of, the date of the opinion. As the OCSI Special Committee was aware, the credit, financial and stock markets had been experiencing unusual volatility and Houlihan Lokey expressed no opinion or view as to any potential effects of such volatility on the Merger, and Houlihan Lokey’s opinion did not purport to address potential developments in any such markets. Furthermore, as the OCSI Special Committee was aware, there was significant uncertainty as to the potential direct and indirect business, financial, economic and market implications and consequences of the spread of the novel coronavirus and COVID-19 and the actions and measures that countries, central banks, international financing and funding organizations, stock markets, businesses and individuals may take to address the spread of the novel coronavirus and COVID-19 including, without limitation, those actions and measures pertaining to fiscal or monetary policies, legal and regulatory matters and the credit, financial and stock markets (collectively, the “Pandemic Effects”), and the Pandemic Effects could have a material impact on Houlihan Lokey’s analyses and opinion. Houlihan Lokey did not undertake, and is under no obligation, to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion, or otherwise comment on or consider events occurring or coming to its attention after the date of its opinion. Houlihan Lokey did not express any opinion as to what the value of OCSL Common Stock actually would be when issued pursuant to the Merger or the price or range of prices at which OCSI Common Stock or OCSL Common Stock may be purchased or sold, or otherwise be transferable, at any time. Houlihan Lokey assumed that the shares of OCSL Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to holders of OCSI Common Stock would be listed on the Nasdaq immediately following the consummation of the Merger.

Houlihan Lokey’s opinion was furnished for the use of the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board (each in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and may not be used for any other purpose without Houlihan Lokey’s prior written consent. Houlihan Lokey’s opinion was not intended to, and did not constitute, a recommendation to the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board, any security holder or any other party as to how to act or vote with respect to any matter relating to the Merger or otherwise.

Houlihan Lokey's opinion only addressed the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of OCSI Common Stock other than the Excluded Holders, of the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement and did not address any other aspect or implication of the Merger, any related transaction or any agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection therewith or otherwise, including, without limitation, the termination of the OCSI Investment Advisory Agreement and the OCSI Administration Agreement or the Second Merger. Houlihan Lokey was not requested to opine as to, and its opinion did not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things: (i) the underlying business decision of the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board, OCSI, its security holders or any other party to proceed with or effect the Merger, (ii) the terms of any arrangements, understandings, agreements or documents related to, or the form, structure or any other portion or aspect of, the Merger or otherwise (other than the Exchange Ratio to the extent expressly specified in the opinion), (iii) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Merger to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of OCSI, or to any other party, except if and only to the extent expressly set forth in the last sentence of the opinion, (iv) the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might have been available for OCSI, OCSL or any other party, (v) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Merger to any one class or group of OCSI's or any other party's security holders or other constituents vis-à-vis any other class or group of OCSI's or such other party's security holders or other constituents (including, without limitation, the allocation of any consideration amongst or within such classes or groups of security holders or other constituents), (vi) whether or not OCSI, OCSL, their respective security holders or any other party is receiving or paying reasonably equivalent value in the Merger, (vii) the solvency, creditworthiness or fair value of OCSI, OCSL or any other participant in the Merger, or any of their respective assets, under any applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance or similar matters, or (viii) the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation to or consideration payable to or received by any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Merger, any class of such persons or any other party, relative to the Exchange Ratio or otherwise. Furthermore, Houlihan Lokey did not express any opinion, counsel or interpretation regarding matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other similar professional advice. Houlihan Lokey assumed that such opinions, counsel or interpretations had been or would be obtained from the appropriate professional sources. Furthermore, Houlihan Lokey relied, with the consent of the OCSI Special Committee, on the assessments by the OCSI Special Committee, the OCSI Board, OCSI and their respective advisors, as to all legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance and tax matters with respect to OCSI, OCSL and the Merger or otherwise.

In preparing its opinion to the OCSI Special Committee, Houlihan Lokey performed a variety of analyses, including those described below. The summary of Houlihan Lokey's analyses is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Houlihan Lokey's opinion. The preparation of such an opinion is a complex process involving various quantitative and qualitative judgments and determinations with respect to the financial, comparative and other analytical methods employed and the adaptation and application of these methods to the unique facts and circumstances presented. As a consequence, neither Houlihan Lokey's opinion nor its underlying analyses is readily susceptible to summary description. Houlihan Lokey arrived at its opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any individual analysis, methodology or factor. While the results of each analysis were taken into account in reaching Houlihan Lokey's overall conclusion with respect to fairness, Houlihan Lokey did not make separate or quantifiable judgments regarding individual analyses. Accordingly, Houlihan Lokey believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, methodologies and factors, without considering all analyses, methodologies and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying Houlihan Lokey's analyses and opinion.

In performing its analyses, Houlihan Lokey considered general business, economic, industry and market conditions, financial and otherwise, and other matters as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of its opinion. No company, transaction or business used in Houlihan Lokey's analyses for comparative purposes is identical to OCSI or the proposed Merger and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. The estimates contained in the OCSI Projections and the OCSL Projections and the implied exchange ratio reference ranges indicated by Houlihan Lokey's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, any analyses relating to the value of assets, businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which may depend on a variety of factors, many of which are beyond the control of OCSI and OCSL. Much of the information used in, and accordingly the results of, Houlihan Lokey's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Houlihan Lokey's opinion was only one of many factors considered by the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board in evaluating the proposed Merger. Neither Houlihan Lokey's opinion nor its analyses were determinative of the Merger Consideration or of the views of the OCSI Special Committee or the OCSI Board with respect to the Merger or the Merger Consideration. The type and amount of consideration payable in the Merger were determined through negotiation between OCSI and OCSL, and the decision to enter into the Merger Agreement was solely that of the OCSI Special Committee and the OCSI Board.

Material Financial Analyses

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Houlihan Lokey in connection with the preparation of its opinion and reviewed with the OCSI Special Committee on October 28, 2020. The order of the analyses does not represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Houlihan Lokey. The analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the analyses. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the analyses, as well as the methodologies underlying, and the assumptions, qualifications and limitations affecting, each analysis, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Houlihan Lokey's analyses.

For purposes of its analyses, Houlihan Lokey reviewed the Adjusted June 30 NAVs of OCSI and OCSL, prepared and provided to Houlihan Lokey by Oaktree, and compared the implied exchange ratio, determined on the basis of the Adjusted June 30 NAVs, of 1.3801 shares of OCSL Common Stock for each share of OCSI Common Stock to the relative value reference ranges that Houlihan Lokey believed were indicated by its financial analyses of OCSI and OCSL.

For purposes of its analyses, Houlihan Lokey reviewed a number of financial metrics, including:

- Last Quarter Annualized Dividends Per Share — generally, the annualized amount of the relevant company's recurring cash distributions (excluding one-time or special dividends) for the most recent calendar quarter, divided by the number of shares outstanding of such company.
- Net Asset Value Per Share — generally, the total value of all assets, less any liabilities, of the relevant company, divided by the number of shares outstanding of such company as of a specified date.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Mergers

The obligations of OCSL and OCSI to complete the Mergers are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including the condition that all regulatory approvals required by law to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Mergers, have been obtained and remain in full force and effect, and all statutory waiting periods required by applicable law in respect thereof have expired (including expiration of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act). OCSL and OCSI have agreed to cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all licenses, permits, variances, exemptions, approvals, qualifications or orders from any governmental or regulatory authority necessary to consummate the Mergers.

There can be no assurance that such regulatory approvals will be obtained, that such approvals will be received on a timely basis or that such approvals will not impose conditions or requirements that, individually or in the aggregate, would or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, assets or business of the combined company following completion of the Mergers.

Third Party Consents Required for the Mergers

Under the Merger Agreement, OCSL and OCSI have agreed to cooperate with each other and use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, in good faith, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, including to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings (including any required applications, notices or other filings under the HSR Act), to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits of all governmental entities and all permits, consents, approvals, confirmations and authorizations of all third parties, in each case, that are necessary or advisable, to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (including the Mergers) in the most expeditious manner practicable, and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and governmental entities. [As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, OCSL and OCSI believe that, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, they have obtained all necessary third party consents (including consent under the HSR Act) other than stockholder approval.] There can be no assurance that any permits, consents, approvals, confirmations or authorizations will be obtained or that such permits, consents, approvals, confirmations or authorizations will not impose conditions or requirements that, individually or in the aggregate, would or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, assets or business of the combined company following the Mergers.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary, which includes the material terms of the Merger Agreement, is qualified by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you. OCSL and OCSI encourage you to read the Merger Agreement carefully and in its entirety.

Structure of the Merger

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub will be merged with and into OCSI. OCSI will be the surviving company and will continue its existence as a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware. As of the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease. Immediately after the occurrence of the Effective Time, in the Second Merger, the surviving company will merge with and into OCSL in accordance with the DGCL with OCSL continuing as the surviving company.

Closing; Completion of the Proposed Merger

It is currently expected that the Merger will be completed promptly following receipt of the required stockholder approvals at the OCSL Annual Meeting and the OCSI Special Meeting and satisfaction or waiver of the other closing conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement. The Second Merger will occur immediately after the Merger is completed.

The Merger will occur on the date that is three (3) business days after the satisfaction or waiver of the latest to occur of the conditions to closing set forth in the Merger Agreement or at another time as may be agreed to in writing by the parties to the Merger Agreement. Assuming approval of the proposals presented at the OCSL Annual Meeting and the OCSI Special Meeting and the other conditions to closing the Merger are satisfied or waived, OCSL and OCSI expect to complete the Merger in the first calendar quarter of 2021.

Merger Consideration

At the Effective Time, each share of OCSI Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Cancelled Shares) will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of OCSL Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio (as defined below), plus any cash (without interest) in lieu of fractional shares.

As of the Determination Date, each of OCSI and OCSL will deliver to the other a calculation of its NAV as of such date, in each case using a pre-agreed set of assumptions, methodologies and adjustments. Based on such calculations, the parties will calculate the OCSI Per Share NAV and the OCSL Per Share NAV. The "Exchange Ratio" will be equal to the quotient (rounded to four decimal places) of (i) the OCSI Per Share NAV divided by (ii) the OCSL Per Share NAV.

OCSI and OCSL will update and redeliver the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value or the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value, respectively, in the event of a material change to such calculation between the Determination Date and the closing of the Mergers and if needed to ensure that the calculation is determined within 48 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) prior to the Effective Time.

Each of OCSI and OCSL will use the portfolio valuation methods approved by the OCSI Board or the OCSL Board, as applicable, for valuing the securities and other assets of OCSI or OCSL, as applicable, as of September 30, 2020, unless otherwise agreed by each of the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board.

The Exchange Ratio will be appropriately adjusted (to the extent not already taken into account in determining the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value and/or the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value, as applicable) if, between the Determination Date and the Effective Time, the respective outstanding shares of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock have been increased or decreased or changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities, in each case, as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up, combination or exchange of shares, or if a stock dividend or dividend payable in any other securities is declared with a record date within such period.

No fractional shares of OCSL Common Stock will be issued upon the conversion of OCSI Common Stock into the right to receive shares of OCSL Common Stock. Each holder of shares of OCSI Common Stock converted pursuant to the Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of OCSL Common Stock will receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the product of (i) such fractional part of a share of OCSL Common Stock multiplied by (ii) the volume-weighted average trading price of a share of OCSL Common Stock on Nasdaq for the five (5) consecutive trading days ending on the third (3rd) trading day preceding the Closing Date.

Subject to the effect of applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws, following the Effective Time, the record holder of shares (other than Cancelled Shares) of OCSI Common Stock at the Effective Time will be entitled to receive, without interest, the amount of dividends or other distributions which theretofore had become payable with respect to the whole shares of OCSL Common Stock which the shares of OCSI Common Stock have been converted into the right to receive.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Shares

At the Effective Time, each share of OCSI Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Cancelled Shares) will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration. Each such share of OCSI Common Stock will no longer be outstanding and will be automatically cancelled and cease to exist as of the Effective Time, with the holders of such shares ceasing to have any rights with respect to any OCSI Common Stock other than the right to receive the Merger Consideration and any dividends or other distributions payable in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

After the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of OCSI will be closed, and there will be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of OCSI of the shares of OCSI Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

Withholding

OCSL or the exchange agent, as applicable, will be entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts payable to any OCSI Stockholder such amounts as it determines in good faith are required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the making of such payment under applicable tax laws. If any amounts are withheld and paid over to the appropriate governmental entity, such withheld amounts will be treated as having been paid to the OCSI Stockholders from whom they were withheld.

Representations and Warranties

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties of OCSL, Merger Sub, OCSI and Oaktree relating to their respective businesses. With the exception of certain representations that must be true and correct in all or virtually all respects, or in all material respects, no representation or warranty will be deemed untrue, and neither party will be deemed to have breached a representation or warranty as a consequence of the existence of any fact, circumstance or event unless such fact, circumstance or event, individually or when taken together with all other facts, circumstances and events inconsistent with any representation made by such party (without considering “materiality” or “material adverse effect” qualifications), has had or is reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect (as defined below) with respect to the party giving the representation or warranty. The representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement will not survive after the Effective Time.

The Merger Agreement is described in, and included as Annex A to, this document only to provide you with information regarding its terms and conditions and not to provide any other factual information regarding the parties or their respective businesses. Accordingly, the representations and warranties and other provisions of the Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but instead should be read only in conjunction with the information provided elsewhere in this document.

For purposes of the Merger Agreement, “material adverse effect” with respect to OCSL, OCSI or Oaktree, as applicable, means any event, development, change, effect or occurrence that is, or would reasonably be expected to be, individually or in the aggregate, materially adverse to (1) the business, operations, condition (financial or otherwise) or results of operations of such party and its consolidated subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (2) the ability of such party to timely perform its material obligations under the Merger Agreement or consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby. None of the following events, developments, changes, effects or occurrences will constitute or be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred or is reasonably expected to occur with respect to clause (1) in the immediately preceding sentence:

- changes in general economic, social or political conditions or financial markets in general, including the commencement or escalation of a war, armed hostilities or other material international or national calamity or acts of terrorism or earthquakes, hurricanes, other natural disasters or acts of God, COVID-19 or any other pandemic (including the impact on economies generally and the results of any actions taken by governmental entities in response thereto);

The events, developments, changes, effects and occurrences set forth in the first two bullets in the immediately preceding paragraph will otherwise be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred to the extent such events, developments, changes, effects or occurrences have a materially disproportionate adverse impact on such party and its consolidated subsidiaries, taken as whole, relative to other participants of similar sizes engaged in the same industries in which such party conducts its businesses.

In addition, before the completion of the Mergers, each of OCSL and OCSI has agreed that, except as may be required by law or as expressly contemplated by the Merger Agreement or as set forth in its disclosure schedules, it will not, and will not permit any of its consolidated subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of OCSI or OCSL, as applicable (which prior written consent will not be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld):

Additional Agreements

Further Assurances; Regulatory Matters

The Merger Agreement contains covenants relating to the preparation of this document, the holding of the OCSL Annual Meeting and the OCSI Special Meeting and obtaining certain regulatory and third party consents. The Merger Agreement obligates the parties to cooperate with each other and use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, in good faith, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, including to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits of all governmental entities and all permits, consents, approvals, confirmations and authorizations of all third parties that are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement in the most expeditious manner practicable, and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and governmental entities.

The parties are required to file any required applications, notices or other filings under the HSR Act as promptly as practicable. In connection with such filings, the parties are required to use reasonable best efforts to cooperate with one another, to keep the other party informed of any communications received from governmental entities and permit the other party to review such communications. The parties must consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and permits of all governmental entities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and each party must keep the other reasonably apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The parties are not required to make payments or provide other consideration for the repayment, restructuring or amendment of terms of indebtedness in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, other than the consent fees set forth in the disclosure schedules to the Merger Agreement.

Stockholder Approval

OCSI has agreed to hold the OCSI Special Meeting as promptly as practicable following the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part for the purpose of obtaining the approval of OCSI Stockholders of the Merger Proposal. OCSI will be required to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from OCSI Stockholders the vote required to approve the Merger Proposal, unless the OCSI Board withdraws its recommendation related to the Merger Proposal.

Similarly, OCSL has agreed to hold the OCSL Annual Meeting as promptly as practicable following the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part for the purpose of obtaining the approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal. OCSL will be required to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from OCSL Stockholders the vote required to approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal, unless the OCSL Board withdraws its recommendation related to the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

Nasdaq Listing

OCSL is required to use reasonable best efforts to cause the shares comprising the Merger Consideration to be approved for listing on Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance, at or prior to the Effective Time.

Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance

OCSL has agreed to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, and advance expenses, to the present and former directors and officers of OCSI or any of its consolidated subsidiaries (collectively, the "D&O Indemnified Parties") against all costs or expenses (including, reasonable attorneys' fees actually incurred, reasonable experts' fees, reasonable travel expenses, court costs, transcript fees and telecommunications, postage and courier charges), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages penalties, amounts paid in settlement or other liabilities in connection with any proceeding arising with respect to all acts or omissions in such capacities at any time at or prior to the Effective Time (including any matters arising in connection with the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby), to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. If an indemnified liability arises, (i) OCSL has agreed to advance to the applicable D&O Indemnified Party, upon request, reimbursement of documented expenses reasonably and actually incurred so long as such D&O Indemnified Party, or someone on his or her behalf, undertakes to repay such advanced expenses if he or she is ultimately determined to be not entitled to indemnification and such D&O Indemnified Party complies with other applicable provisions imposed under the Investment Company Act and interpretations thereof by the SEC or its staff and (ii) OCSL and the applicable D&O Indemnified Party will cooperate in the defense of such matter.

Unless OCSL and OCSI otherwise agree, unless OCSI or the surviving company or its successor has purchased a "tail" insurance policy prior to the Effective Time as provided below, for at least six (6) years from and after the Effective Time, OCSL will cause the surviving company or its successor to pay for and maintain in full force and effect, a "tail" insurance policy for the extension of the directors' and officers' liability coverage of OCSI's existing directors' and officers' insurance policies, with coverage and amounts not less than, and terms and conditions that are not materially less advantageous to the insureds as, OCSI's existing policies with respect to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (provided that the annual cost for such insurance will in no event exceed 300% of the aggregate annual premiums currently paid by OCSI on an annualized basis, but in such case, the surviving company or its successor will purchase as much of such coverage as possible for a cost not exceeding such amount). If OCSL or any of its successors or assigns consolidates with or merges into another entity and is not the surviving entity, or transfers all or substantially all of its assets to another entity, then OCSL will cause the successors and assigns of OCSL to assume the foregoing obligations.

No Solicitation

Each of OCSI and OCSL has agreed to, and to cause its affiliates, consolidated subsidiaries, and its and each of their respective officers, directors, trustees, managers, employees, consultants, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants and other advisors, representatives and agents to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated all discussions or negotiations with respect to, or that are intended to or could reasonably be expected to lead to, a "Takeover Proposal" (as described below) from a third party and not to: (i) directly or indirectly solicit or take any other action (including by providing information) designed to, or which could reasonably be expected to, facilitate any inquiries or the making or submission or implementation of any proposal or offer (including any proposal or offer to its stockholders) with respect to any Takeover Proposal; (ii) approve, publicly endorse or recommend or enter into any agreement, arrangement, discussions or understandings with respect to any Takeover Proposal or enter into any contract or understanding requiring it to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate, or that is intended to or that could reasonably be expected to result in the abandonment of, termination of or failure to consummate, the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (iii) initiate or participate in any way in any negotiations or discussions regarding, or furnish or disclose to any person or entity (other than OCSL, OCSI and their respective affiliates or representatives) any information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate or in furtherance of any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal; (iv) publicly propose or publicly announce an intention to take any of the foregoing actions; or (v) grant any (x) approval pursuant to any takeover statute to any person or entity (other than OCSL, OCSI and or its respective affiliates) or with respect to any transaction (other than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement) or (y), unless required by applicable fiduciary duties, waiver or release under any standstill or any similar agreement with respect to equity securities of OCSI or OCSL. If OCSI or OCSL receives a Takeover Proposal or similar request for information, it must notify OCSL or OCSI, as applicable, as promptly as reasonably practicable (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours), provide the other party with copies of any written materials received by it or its representatives in connection therewith and the identity of the potential acquirer, and keep the other party informed on a reasonably current basis of the status (including the status of negotiations) of such Takeover Proposal or similar request for information.

Takeover Proposals

OCSI Takeover Proposals

If, prior to the OCSI Special Meeting, (i) OCSI receives a bona fide unsolicited Takeover Proposal from a third party, (ii) the OCSI Special Committee determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that (x) failure to consider such Takeover Proposal would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSI directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable law and (y) such Takeover Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in an "OCSI Superior Proposal" (as described below); and (iii) OCSI gives OCSL at least two (2) business days' prior written notice of the identity of the third party making such Takeover Proposal, the terms and conditions of such Takeover Proposal and OCSI's intention to furnish information to, or participate in discussions or negotiations with, such third party, then OCSI may engage in discussions and negotiations with such third party and may adopt, approve or recommend, or publicly propose to adopt, approve or recommend such Takeover Proposal, including entering into an agreement with respect thereto (collectively, a "Takeover Approval"), so long as certain notice and other procedural requirements are satisfied, including providing notice to OCSI within twenty-four (24) hours after determining that a Takeover Proposal constitutes an OCSI Superior Proposal.

In addition, OCSI may take other actions if the OCSI Special Committee determines, after consultation with its outside counsel, that the continued recommendation of the Merger Proposal to OCSI Stockholders would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSI directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable law as a result of an OCSI Superior Proposal, including withdrawing, qualifying, or modifying (in a manner adverse to OCSL), or publicly proposing to withdraw, qualify or modify (in a manner adverse to OCSL), the recommendation of the OCSI Board that OCSI Stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby or taking any other action inconsistent with such recommendation (collectively with any Takeover Approval, an "OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change"). OCSI may terminate the Merger Agreement and enter into an agreement with a third party who has made an OCSI Superior Proposal, subject to negotiating in good faith to amend the Merger Agreement so that the OCSI Superior Proposal is no longer deemed an OCSI Superior Proposal and satisfying certain other procedural requirements. Other than in connection with a Takeover Proposal, nothing in the Merger Agreement will prohibit or restrict the OCSI Board from withdrawing or qualifying or publicly proposing to withdraw or qualify the approval, adoption, recommendation or declaration of the advisability of the Merger Proposal in response to an Intervening Event, subject to the procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Other than as described above, neither OCSI nor the OCSI Board may make any OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change, and no OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change will change the approval of the Merger Proposal or any other approval of the OCSI Board, including in any respect that would have the effect of causing any takeover statute or similar statute to be applicable to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

OCSL Takeover Proposals

If, prior to the OCSL Annual Meeting, (i) OCSL receives a bona fide unsolicited Takeover Proposal from a third party, (ii) the OCSL Special Committee determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that (x) failure to consider such Takeover Proposal would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSL directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable law and (y) such Takeover Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in an "OCSL Superior Proposal" (as described below); and (iii) OCSL gives OCSI at least two (2) business days' prior written notice of the identity of the third party making such Takeover Proposal, the terms and conditions of such Takeover Proposal and OCSL's intention to furnish information to, or participate in discussions or negotiations with, such third party then OCSL may engage in discussions and negotiations with such third party and effect a Takeover Approval so long as certain notice and other procedural requirements are satisfied, including providing notice to OCSI within twenty-four (24) hours after determining that a Takeover Proposal constitutes an OCSL Superior Proposal.

In addition, OCSL may take other actions if the OCSL Special Committee determines, after consultation with its outside counsel, that the continued recommendation of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal to OCSL Stockholders would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSL directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable law as a result of an OCSL Superior Proposal, including withdrawing, qualifying, or modifying (in a manner adverse to OCSI), or publicly proposing to withdraw, qualify or modify (in a manner adverse to OCSI), the recommendation of the OCSL Board that OCSL Stockholders approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal or taking any other action inconsistent with such recommendation (collectively with any Takeover Approval, an "OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change"). OCSL may terminate the Merger Agreement and enter into an agreement with a third party who has made an OCSL Superior Proposal, subject to negotiating in good faith to amend the Merger Agreement so that the OCSL Superior Proposal is no longer deemed an OCSL Superior Proposal and satisfying certain other procedural requirements. Other than in connection with a Takeover Proposal, nothing in the Merger Agreement will prohibit or restrict the OCSL Board from withdrawing or qualifying or publicly proposing to withdraw or qualify the approval, adoption, recommendation or declaration of the advisability of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal in response to an Intervening Event, subject to the procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Other than as described above, neither OCSL nor the OCSL Board may make any OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change, and no OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change will change the approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal or any other approval of the OCSL Board, including in any respect that would have the effect of causing any takeover statute or similar statute to be applicable to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Termination Fees

Set forth below are summaries of the termination fees that may be payable if the Merger Agreement is terminated prior to consummation of the Merger. OCSL or OCSI, as applicable, will be the entities entitled to receive any termination fees under the Merger Agreement.

OCSI Termination Fee

The Merger Agreement provides for the payment by a third party that makes an OCSI Superior Proposal (or its designee) to OCSL of a termination fee of $5,675,300 if the Merger Agreement is terminated by OCSI at any time prior to obtaining approval of the Merger Proposal by OCSI Stockholders and (A) OCSI is not in material breach of any of the terms of the Merger Agreement, and (B) the OCSI Board, including a majority of the OCSI Independent Directors, authorizes OCSI to enter into, and OCSI enters into, a definitive contract with respect to such OCSI Superior Proposal.

The Merger Agreement provides for the payment by a third party that makes the Takeover Proposal described in this paragraph (or its designee) to OCSL of a termination fee of $5,675,300 if (A) the Merger Agreement is terminated (i) by OCSL or OCSI if the Merger is not completed by the Termination Date, or the OCSI Stockholders do not approve the Merger Proposal at the OCSI Special Meeting, or (ii) by OCSL if OCSI willfully or intentionally breaches its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate, would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of certain OCSL closing conditions, and such breach is not curable prior to the Termination Date or, if curable prior to the Termination Date, has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of notice thereof by OCSL to OCSI (provided that OCSL is not then in material breach so as to result in the failure of certain OCSI closing conditions), (B) a Takeover Proposal (except that references to 25% in such definition will be deemed to be references to 50%) by the relevant third party is publicly disclosed after the date of the Merger Agreement and has not been withdrawn prior to the OCSI Special Meeting (in the case of a termination due to the failure of the OCSI Stockholders to approve the Merger Proposal) or termination of the Merger Agreement (in the case of (A)(ii) above or the failure to complete the Merger by the Termination Date) and (C) OCSI enters into a definitive agreement with respect to such Takeover Proposal within twelve (12) months after the Merger Agreement is terminated and such Takeover Proposal is subsequently completed (regardless of whether such consummation happens prior to or following such 12-month period).

OCSL Termination Fee

The Merger Agreement provides for the payment by a third party that makes an OCSL Superior Proposal (or its designee) to OCSI of a termination fee of $19,960,028 if the Merger Agreement is terminated by OCSL at any time prior to obtaining approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal by OCSL Stockholders and (A) OCSL is not in material breach of any of the terms of the Merger Agreement, and (B) the OCSL Board, including a majority of the OCSL Independent Directors, authorizes OCSL to enter into, and OCSL enters into, a definitive contract with respect to such OCSL Superior Proposal.

The Merger Agreement provides for the payment by a third party that makes the Takeover Proposal described in this paragraph (or its designee) to OCSI of a termination fee of $19,960,028 if (A) the Merger Agreement is terminated (i) by OCSL or OCSI if the Merger is not completed by the Termination Date, or the OCSL Stockholders do not approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal at the OCSL Annual Meeting, or (ii) by OCSI if OCSL willfully or intentionally breaches its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate, would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of certain OCSL closing conditions, and such breach is not curable prior to the Termination Date or, if curable prior to the Termination Date, has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of notice thereof by OCSI to OCSL (provided that OCSI is not then in material breach so as to result in the failure of certain OCSL closing conditions), (B) a Takeover Proposal (except that references to 25% in such definition will be deemed to be references to 50%) by the relevant third party is publicly disclosed after the date of the Merger Agreement and has not been withdrawn prior to the OCSL Annual Meeting (in the case of a termination due to the failure of the OCSL Stockholders to approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal) or termination of the Merger Agreement (in the case of (A)(ii) above or the failure to complete the Merger by the Termination Date) and (C) OCSL enters into a definitive agreement with respect to such Takeover Proposal within twelve (12) months after the Merger Agreement is terminated and such Takeover Proposal is subsequently completed (regardless of whether such consummation happens prior to or following such 12-month period).

Effect of Termination

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, it will become void and have no effect, and there will be no liability on the part of OCSL, Merger Sub, OCSI, or their respective affiliates or consolidated subsidiaries or any of their respective directors or officers, except that (1) OCSL and OCSI will remain liable to each other for any damages incurred or suffered by another party arising out of any willful or intentional breach of the Merger Agreement or a failure or refusal by a party to consummate the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby when such party was obligated to do so in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement and (2) certain designated provisions of the Merger Agreement will survive the termination, including the confidentiality and termination fee provisions.

Amendment of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement may be amended by the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time before or after approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal by OCSL Stockholders or the Merger Proposal by OCSI Stockholders; provided that after any approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal by OCSL Stockholders or the Merger Proposal by OCSI Stockholders, there may not be, without further approval of such stockholders, any amendment of the Merger Agreement that requires such further approval under applicable law. The Merger Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

Expenses and Fees

Except with respect to (i) all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the Merger, (ii) all filing and other fees in connection with any filing under the HSR Act and (iii) fees and expenses for legal services to OCSI, OCSL and Merger Sub in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (excluding fees for legal services to the OCSL Special Committee and the OCSI Special Committee), which, in each case, will be borne equally by OCSL and OCSI, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (including the Mergers) will be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (including the Mergers) are consummated.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT OF THE MERGERS

Management of OCSL has performed an analysis and determined that the Mergers will be accounted for as a tax-free reorganization, with OCSL as the accounting survivor. For financial reporting and U.S. federal income tax purposes, the historical cost basis of the acquired OCSI investments will be carried forward to OCSL upon the completion of the Mergers and no gain or loss will be recognized by OCSL as a result of the Mergers. In connection with the Mergers, the outstanding shares of OCSI Common Stock will be exchanged for newly issued shares of OCSL Common Stock. The aggregate NAV of the OCSL Common Stock received by OCSI Stockholders in connection with the Mergers will equal the aggregate NAV of shares of OCSI Common Stock held by OCSI Stockholders immediately prior to the Mergers, less transaction costs and tax-related distributions.

CERTAIN MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following discussion is a general summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Mergers, including an investment in shares of OCSL Common Stock to an OCSI Stockholder. This summary does not purport to be a complete description of the income tax consequences of the Mergers applicable to an investment in shares of OCSL Common Stock.

Neither OCSL nor OCSI has sought or will seek any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Mergers or any related transactions. The following discussion does not discuss the special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws that could result if OCSL invested in tax-exempt securities or certain other investment assets. You are urged to consult with your own tax advisors and financial planners as to the particular tax consequences of the Mergers to you, as applicable, including the applicability and effect of any state, local or foreign laws and the effect of possible changes in applicable tax laws.

This discussion addresses only those OCSI Stockholders that hold their OCSI Common Stock (and will hold their OCSL Common Stock) as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code, and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular OCSI Stockholders in light of their individual circumstances or to OCSI Stockholders that are subject to special rules, such as stockholders subject to the alternative minimum tax, tax-exempt organizations, insurance companies, stockholders that are treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes, dealers in securities, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for securities holdings, pension plans and trusts, persons who hold shares in OCSI Common Stock as part of a straddle or a hedging or conversion transaction, real estate investment trusts, other RICs, tax exempt organizations, banks and other financial institutions, U.S. stockholders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, non-U.S. stockholders engaged in a trade or business in the United States, nonresident alien individuals who are present in the United States for 183 days or more in a taxable year, persons who have ceased to be U.S. citizens or to be taxed as residents of the United States, controlled foreign corporations or passive foreign investment companies.

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax, gift or estate tax, or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the Mergers, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under Medicare tax on net investment income.

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. stockholder” or “U.S. holder” is a beneficial owner of OCSI Common Stock or OCSL Common Stock (as applicable) who for U.S. federal income tax purposes is: (i) a citizen or individual resident of the United States; (2) a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any State or the District of Columbia; (3) a trust if (a) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) such trust has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person; or (4) an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

For purposes of this discussion, a “non-U.S. stockholder” is a beneficial owner of OCSI Common Stock or OCSL Common Stock (as applicable) that is not a U.S. stockholder or an entity that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The tax treatment of a partner in a partnership (or an entity treated as a partnership) generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. An OCSI Stockholder that is a partner of a partnership should consult its own tax advisor.

The following discussion is based on the Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion. Each OCSI Stockholder should consult its tax advisor with respect to the particular tax consequence of the Mergers to such holder.

Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers

OCSL and OCSI intend for the Mergers, taken together, to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to the obligation of each of OCSI and of OCSL to consummate the Mergers that each of OCSI and OCSL will obtain an opinion from Proskauer, as counsel to OCSI and OCSL, generally to the effect that the Mergers will qualify as a “reorganization,” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The opinion will be based on facts and representations contained in representation letters provided by each of OCSI and OCSL and on customary factual assumptions.

The remainder of this disclosure assumes that the Mergers qualify as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a) of the Code.

U.S. Stockholders

OCSI Stockholders that are U.S. holders who receive shares of OCSL Common Stock in exchange for shares of OCSI Common Stock pursuant to the Mergers generally will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes, other than for cash received in lieu of fractional shares of OCSL Common Stock. The aggregate basis of the shares of OCSL Common Stock received in the Mergers will be the same as the aggregate basis of the OCSI Common Stock for which it is exchanged, decreased by any basis attributable to fractional interests in shares of OCSL Common Stock for which cash is received. The holding period of shares of OCSL Common Stock received in exchange for shares of OCSI Common Stock will include the holding period of the OCSI Common Stock for which it is exchanged.

If the OCSI Stockholder acquired different blocks of OCSI Common Stock at different times or at different prices, then the OCSI Stockholder’s basis and holding period in their shares of OCSL Common Stock will be determined by reference to each block of OCSI Common Stock exchanged.

A holder of OCSI Common Stock who receives cash instead of a fractional share of OCSL Common Stock will generally be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the Mergers and then as having sold that fractional share of OCSL Common Stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. holder of OCSI Common Stock generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in his or her fractional share interest. Except as described above, this gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the Mergers, the holding period for such shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Payments of cash in lieu of fractional shares to a holder of OCSI Common Stock may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption satisfactory to OCSL and the exchange agent or furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder’s U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Each holder of OCSI Common Stock who is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and who is a “significant holder” that receives OCSL Common Stock in the Mergers will be required to file a statement with such U.S. federal income tax return in accordance with U.S. Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-3 setting forth such holder’s basis in, and the fair market value of, the OCSI Common Stock that is exchanged for OCSL Common Stock by such significant holder (in each case determined immediately prior to the exchange). A “significant holder” is a holder of OCSI Common Stock who, immediately before the Mergers, owned at least 5% of the outstanding stock of OCSI or securities of OCSI with a basis for U.S. federal income tax purposes of at least $1,000,000.

Non-U.S. Stockholders

OCSI Stockholders that are non-U.S. stockholders who receive shares of OCSL Common Stock in exchange for shares of OCSI Common Stock pursuant to the Mergers generally will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The holding period and basis of the OCSL Common Stock received by a non-U.S. stockholder generally will be calculated in the same manner as for as U.S. stockholder as described above under “— U.S. stockholders”. Gain recognized by a non-U.S. stockholder upon the exchange of OCSI Common Stock for cash in lieu of fractional shares of OCSL Common Stock pursuant to the Mergers generally should not be subject to U.S. federal income tax.

A non-U.S. stockholder will be subject to information reporting and, in certain circumstances, backup withholding with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares received by such holder pursuant to the Mergers, unless such non-U.S. stockholder certifies under penalties of perjury that it is a non-U.S. stockholder (and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the holder is a United States person as defined under the Code) or such non-U.S. stockholder otherwise establishes an exemption from backup withholding. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against a non-U.S. stockholder’s U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Limitations on Utilization of Loss Carryforwards and Unrealized Losses

In general, it is expected that limitations under the Code will apply to loss carryforwards and unrealized losses of OCSI, as OCSI Stockholders before the Mergers are expected to hold less than 50% of the outstanding shares of OCSL immediately following the Mergers.

In this regard, the Mergers are expected to result in potential limitations on the ability of OCSL to use OCSI’s loss carryforwards and unrealized capital losses inherent in the tax basis of the assets acquired, once realized, and on the ability of OCSI’s taxable subsidiaries to use their net operating loss carryforwards. These potential limitations generally would be imposed on an annual basis. Losses in excess of the limitation may be carried forward indefinitely for capital loss carryforwards and post-2017 net operating loss carryforwards while pre-2018 net operating loss carryforwards are subject to a 20-year expiration from the year incurred. The limitations generally would equal the product of the fair market value of OCSI’s (or OCSI’s taxable subsidiaries, as the case may be) equity immediately prior to the Mergers and the “long-term tax-exempt rate,” as published quarterly by the IRS, in effect at such time. No assurance can be given as to what long-term tax-exempt rate will be in effect at the time of the Mergers.

OCSL will be prohibited from using its capital loss carryforwards, if any, and unrealized losses (once realized) against the unrealized gains in OCSI’s portfolio at the time of the Mergers, if any, to the extent such gains are realized within five years following the Mergers, if OCSI has a net unrealized built in gain at the time of the Mergers. The ability of OCSL to absorb its losses in the future depends upon a variety of factors that cannot be known in advance. Even if OCSL is able to utilize its capital loss carryforwards or unrealized losses, the tax benefit resulting from those losses will be shared by both OCSL Stockholders and OCSI Stockholders following the Mergers. Therefore, an OCSL Stockholder or OCSI Stockholder may pay more taxes, or pay taxes sooner, than such stockholder otherwise would have paid if the Mergers did not occur.

OCSL will also be prohibited from using OCSI’s capital loss carryforwards, if any, and unrealized losses (once realized) against the unrealized gains in OCSL’s portfolio at the time of the Mergers, if any, to the extent such gains are realized within five years following the Mergers, if OCSL has a net unrealized built in gain at the time of the Mergers.

Further, in addition to the other limitations on the use of losses, under Section 381 of the Code, for the tax year of the Mergers, only that percentage of OCSL's capital gain net income for such tax year (excluding capital loss carryforwards), if any, equal to the percentage of its tax year that remains following the Mergers can be reduced by OCSI's capital loss carryforwards (as otherwise limited under Sections 382, 383 and 384 of the Code, as described above).

Distribution of Income and Gains

OCSI's tax year is expected to end as a result of the Mergers. OCSI generally will be required to declare to OCSI Stockholders of record one or more distributions of all of its previously undistributed net investment income and net realized capital gain (if any), in order to maintain OCSI's treatment as a RIC during its tax year ending with the date of the Mergers and to eliminate any U.S. federal income tax on its taxable income in respect of such tax year.

Moreover, if OCSL has net investment income or net realized capital gain, but has not distributed such income or gain prior to the Mergers and an OSCI Stockholder acquires shares of OCSL Common Stock in the Mergers, a portion of any subsequent distributions from OCSL may, in effect, be a taxable return of part of the stockholder's investment. Similarly, if an OCSI Stockholder acquires OCSL Common Stock in the Mergers when OCSL holds appreciated securities, the stockholder may receive a taxable return of part of its investment if and when OCSL sells the appreciated securities and distributes the realized gain.

The preceding discussion is intended only as a summary of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Mergers and does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. Moreover, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the Mergers. OCSI Stockholders are strongly encouraged to consult their own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences resulting from the Mergers, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of United States federal, state, local and other tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

U.S. Federal Income Taxation of an Investment in OCSL Common Stock

The following discussion is a general summary of the material U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to OCSL, to OCSL's qualification and taxation as a RIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Subchapter M of the Code and to an investment in OCSL Common Stock.

This summary does not purport to be a complete description of all the income tax considerations applicable to such an investment. For example, this summary does not describe all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to certain types of holders subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws, including stockholders subject to the alternative minimum tax, tax-exempt organizations, insurance companies, dealers in securities, a trader in securities that elects to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for its securities holdings, pension plans and trusts, financial institutions, real estate investment trusts, RICs, U.S. persons with a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, non-U.S. stockholders (as defined below) engaged in a trade or business in the United States or entitled to claim the benefits of an applicable income tax treaty, persons who have ceased to be U.S. citizens or to be taxed as residents of the United States, "controlled foreign corporations," "passive foreign investment companies" and persons that will hold OCSL Common Stock as a position in a "straddle," "hedge" or as part of a "constructive sale" for U.S. federal income tax purposes or to the owners or partners of a stockholder.

This summary assumes that investors hold OCSL Common Stock as capital assets (within the meaning of the Code). The discussion is based upon the Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed U.S. Treasury regulations and published rulings and court decisions all as currently in effect, all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations, possibly retroactively, which could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

Table of Contents

OCSL has not sought, and does not expect to seek, any ruling from the IRS regarding any matter discussed herein, and this discussion is not binding on the IRS. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, and a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences discussed herein. This summary does not discuss any aspects of U.S. estate or gift tax or foreign, state or local tax. It does not discuss the special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws that could result if OCSL invests in tax-exempt securities or certain other investment assets. For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. stockholder” generally is a beneficial owner of OCSL Common Stock who is for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof, including, for this purpose, the District of Columbia;
- a trust if (i) a U.S. court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more U.S. persons (as defined in the Code) have the authority to control all of the substantial decisions of the trust, or (ii) the trust has in effect a valid election to be treated as a domestic trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes; or
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source.

For purposes of this discussion, a “non-U.S. stockholder” generally is a beneficial owner of OCSL Common Stock that is neither a U.S. stockholder nor an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

If a partnership (including an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds OCSL Common Stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Prospective beneficial owners of OCSL Common Stock that are partnerships or partners in such partnerships should consult their own tax advisers with respect to the purchase, ownership and disposition of OCSL Common Stock.

Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences to an investor of an investment in OCSL Common Stock will depend on the facts of such investor’s particular situation. Investors are encouraged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the specific consequences of such an investment, including tax reporting requirements, the applicability of U.S. federal, state, local and foreign tax laws, eligibility for the benefits of any applicable income tax treaty and the effect of any possible changes in the tax laws.

Election to be Taxed as a RIC

OCSL has elected to be treated, and intends to operate in a manner so as to continuously qualify annually thereafter, as a RIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a RIC, OCSL generally does not pay corporate-level U.S. federal income taxes on any net ordinary income or capital gains that OCSL timely distributes (or are deemed to timely distribute) to OCSL Stockholders as dividends. Instead, dividends OCSL distributes (or are deemed to timely distribute) generally are taxable to the holders of OCSL Common Stock, and any net operating losses, foreign tax credits and most other tax attributes generally will not pass through to the holders of OCSL Common Stock. OCSL will be subject to U.S. federal corporate-level income tax on any undistributed income and gains. To qualify as a RIC, OCSL must, among other things, meet certain source-of-income and asset diversification requirements (as described below). In addition, OCSL must distribute to OCSL Stockholders, for each taxable year, at least 90% of OCSL’s investment company taxable income (which generally is OCSL’s net ordinary taxable income and realized net short-term capital gains in excess of realized net long-term capital losses, determined without regard to the dividends-paid deduction) (the “Annual Distribution Requirement”) for any taxable year. The following discussion assumes that OCSL continues to qualify as a RIC.

Taxation as a Regulated Investment Company

If OCSL qualifies as a RIC and meets the Annual Distribution Requirement, OCSL will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the portion of OCSL’s investment company taxable income and net capital gain

(realized net long-term capital gain in excess of realized net short-term capital loss) that OCSL timely distributes (or are deemed to distribute) to OCSL Stockholders. OCSL would, however, be subject to a 4% nondeductible federal excise tax if OCSL does not distribute, actually or on a deemed basis, an amount at least equal to the sum of (i) 98% of OCSL's ordinary income for the calendar year, (ii) 98.2% of OCSL's net capital gains for the one-year period ending on October 31 of the calendar year and (iii) any income realized, but not distributed, in the preceding period (to the extent that income tax was not imposed on such amounts), less certain reductions, as applicable (together, the "Excise Tax Distribution Requirements").

In order to qualify as a RIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Subchapter M of the Code, OCSL must, among other things:

- continue to qualify and have in effect an election to be treated as a Business Development Company under the Investment Company Act at all times during each taxable year;
- derive in each taxable year at least 90% of OCSL's gross income from dividends, interest, payments with respect to loans of certain securities, gains from the sale of stock or other securities or foreign currencies, net income from certain "qualified publicly traded partnerships," or other income (including certain deemed inclusions) derived with respect to OCSL's business of investing in such stock or securities or foreign currencies or net income derived from an interest in a "qualified publicly traded partnership" (the "90% Gross Income Test");
- diversify OCSL's holdings so that at the end of each quarter of the taxable year:
- OCSL ensures that at least 50% of the value of OCSL's assets consists of cash, cash equivalents, U.S. government securities, securities of other RICs and other securities, if such other securities of any one issuer do not represent more than 5% of the value of OCSL's assets or more than 10% of the outstanding voting securities of the issuer; and
- OCSL ensures that no more than 25% of the value of OCSL's assets is invested in the securities, other than U.S. government securities or securities of other RICs, of one issuer, or of two or more issuers that are controlled, as determined under applicable Code rules, by OCSL and that are engaged in the same or similar or related trades or businesses, or the securities of one or more "qualified publicly traded partnerships" (the "Diversification Tests").

In addition to OCSL's dividend reinvestment plan, OCSL may choose to pay a majority of a required dividend in OCSL Common Stock rather than cash. In order for the distribution to qualify for the Annual Distribution Requirement, the dividend must be payable at the election of each stockholder in cash or OCSL Common Stock (or a combination of the two), but may have a "cash cap" that limits the total amount of cash paid to not less than 20% of the entire distribution. If stockholders in the aggregate elect to receive an amount of cash greater than OCSL's cash cap, then each stockholder who elected to receive cash will receive a pro rata share of the cash and the rest of their distribution in OCSL Common Stock. The value of the portion of the distribution made in OCSL Common Stock will be equal to the amount of cash for which the OCSL Common Stock is substituted, and OCSL U.S. stockholders will be subject to tax on such amount as though they had received cash.

Stockholders who participate in OCSL's dividend reinvestment plan will be required to include the full amount of the dividend (including the portion payable in stock) as ordinary income (or, in certain circumstances, long-term capital gain) to the extent of OCSL's current and accumulated earnings and profits for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a result, stockholders may be required to pay income taxes with respect to such dividends in excess of the cash dividends received. Furthermore, with respect to non-U.S. stockholders, OCSL may be required to withhold U.S. tax with respect to such dividends, including in respect of all or a portion of such dividend that is payable in OCSL Common Stock. It is unclear whether and to what extent OCSL will be able to pay taxable dividends of the type described in this paragraph.

OCSL may have investments that require income to be included in investment company taxable income in a year prior to the year in which OCSL actually receives a corresponding amount of cash in respect of such income. For example, if OCSL holds corporate stock with respect to which Section 305 of the Code requires inclusion in income of amounts of deemed dividends even if no cash distribution is made, OCSL must include in OCSL's taxable income in each year the full amount of OCSL's allocable share of these deemed dividends. Additionally, if OCSL holds debt obligations that are treated under applicable U.S. federal income tax rules as having OID (such as debt instruments with PIK interest or, in certain cases, that have increasing interest rates or are issued with warrants), OCSL must include in OCSL's taxable income in each year a portion of the OID that accrues over the life of the obligation, regardless of whether OCSL receives cash representing such income in the same taxable year. OCSL may also have to include in OCSL's taxable income other amounts that OCSL has not yet received in cash, such as accruals on a contingent payment debt instrument or deferred loan origination fees that are paid after origination of the loan or are paid in non-cash compensation such as warrants or stock.

A RIC is limited in its ability to deduct expenses in excess of its investment company taxable income. If OCSL's deductible expenses in a given year exceed OCSL's investment company taxable income, OCSL will have a net operating loss for that year. A RIC is not able to offset its investment company taxable income with net operating losses on either a carryforward or carryback basis, and these net operating losses generally will not pass through to stockholders. In addition, expenses can be used only to offset investment company taxable income, and may not be used to offset net capital gain. A RIC may not use any net capital losses (that is, realized capital losses in excess of realized capital gains) to offset the RIC's investment company taxable income, but may carry forward those losses, and use them to offset future capital gains, indefinitely. Further, a RIC's deduction of net business interest expense is limited to 30% (generally increased to 50% for taxable years beginning in 2019 or 2020) of its "adjusted taxable income" plus "floor plan financing interest expense." It is not expected that any portion of any underwriting or similar fee will be deductible for U.S. federal income tax purposes to OCSL or the holders of OCSL Common Stock. Due to these limits on the deductibility of expenses, net capital losses and business interest expenses, OCSL may, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, have aggregate taxable income for several years that OCSL is required to distribute and that is taxable to stockholders even if this income is greater than the aggregate net income OCSL actually earned during those years.

In order to enable OCSL to make distributions to the holders of OCSL Common Stock that will be sufficient to enable OCSL to satisfy the Annual Distribution Requirement or the Excise Tax Distribution Requirements in the event that the circumstances described in the preceding two paragraphs apply, OCSL may need to liquidate or sell some of OCSL's assets at times or at prices that OCSL would not consider advantageous, OCSL may need to raise additional equity or debt capital, OCSL may need to take out loans, or OCSL may need to forego new investment opportunities or otherwise take actions that are disadvantageous to OCSL's business (or be unable to take actions that are advantageous to OCSL's business). Even if OCSL is authorized to borrow and to sell assets in order to satisfy the Annual Distribution Requirement or the Excise Tax Distribution Requirements, under the Investment Company Act, OCSL generally is not permitted to make distributions to OCSL's stockholders while OCSL's debt obligations and senior securities are outstanding unless certain "asset coverage" tests or other financial covenants are met. If OCSL is unable to obtain cash from other sources to enable OCSL to satisfy the Annual Distribution Requirement, OCSL may fail to qualify for the U.S. federal income tax benefits allowable to RICs and, thus, become subject to a corporate-level U.S. federal income tax (and any applicable state and local taxes). If OCSL is unable to obtain cash from other sources to enable OCSL to satisfy the Excise Tax Distribution Requirements, OCSL may be subject to an additional tax, as described above.

For the purpose of determining whether OCSL satisfies the 90% Gross Income Test and the Diversification Tests, the character of OCSL's distributive share of items of income, gain, losses, deductions and credits derived through any investments in companies that are treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes (other than certain publicly traded partnerships), or are otherwise treated as disregarded from OCSL for U.S. federal income tax purposes, generally will be determined as if OCSL realized these tax items directly. Further, for purposes of calculating the value of OCSL's investment in the securities of an issuer for purposes of determining the 25% requirement of the Diversification Tests, OCSL's proper proportion of any investment in the securities of that issuer that are held by a member of OCSL's "controlled group" must be aggregated with OCSL's investment in that issuer. A controlled group is one or more chains of corporations connected through stock ownership with OCSL if (a) at least 20% of the total combined voting power of all classes of voting stock of each of the corporations is owned directly by one or more of the other corporations, and (b) OCSL directly owns at least 20% or more of the combined voting stock of at least one of the other corporations.

Failure to Qualify as a RIC

If OCSL fails to satisfy the 90% Gross Income Test for any taxable year or the Diversification Tests for any quarter of a taxable year, OCSL might nevertheless continue to qualify as a RIC for such year if certain relief provisions of the Code apply (which might, among other things, require OCSL to pay certain corporate-level U.S. federal taxes or to dispose of certain assets). Subject to a limited exception applicable to RICs that qualified for RIC status under Subchapter M of the Code for at least one year prior to disqualification and that requalify as a RIC no later than the second year following the non-qualifying year, OCSL could be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any unrealized net built-in gains in the assets held by OCSL during the period in which OCSL failed to qualify as a RIC that are recognized during the 5-year period after OCSL's requalification as a RIC, unless OCSL made a special election to pay corporate-level U.S. federal income tax on these net built-in gains at the time of OCSL's requalification as a RIC.

If OCSL fails to qualify for treatment as a RIC and such relief provisions do not apply to OCSL, OCSL would be subject to U.S. federal income tax on all of OCSL's taxable income at regular corporate U.S. federal income tax rates (and OCSL also would be subject to any applicable state and local taxes), regardless of whether OCSL makes any distributions to the holders of OCSL Common Stock. OCSL would not be able to deduct distributions to OCSL's stockholders, nor would distributions to the holders of OCSL Common Stock be required to be made for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Any distributions OCSL makes generally would be taxable to the holders of OCSL Common Stock as ordinary dividend income and, subject to certain limitations under the Code, would be eligible for the current maximum rate applicable to qualifying dividend income of individuals and other non-corporate U.S. stockholders, to the extent of OCSL's current or accumulated earnings and profits. Subject to certain limitations under the Code, U.S. stockholders of OCSL Common Stock that are corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes would be eligible for the dividends-received deduction. Distributions in excess of OCSL's current and accumulated earnings and profits would be treated first as a return of capital to the extent of the holder's adjusted tax basis in its shares of OCSL Common Stock, and any remaining distributions would be treated as capital gain.

If, before the end of any quarter of OCSL's taxable year, OCSL believes that OCSL may fail the Diversification Tests, OCSL may seek to take certain actions to avert a failure. However, the action frequently taken by RICs to avert a failure, the disposition of non-diversified assets, may be difficult for OCSL to pursue because of the limited liquidity of OCSL's investments.

Although OCSL expects to operate in a manner so as to qualify continuously as a RIC, OCSL may decide in the future to be taxed as a "C" corporation, even if OCSL would otherwise qualify as a RIC, if OCSL determines that treatment as a C corporation for a particular year would be in OCSL's best interests. The remainder of this discussion assumes that OCSL will continuously qualify as a RIC for each taxable year.

OCSL's Investments — General

Certain of OCSL's investment practices may be subject to special and complex U.S. federal income tax provisions that may, among other things, (1) treat dividends that would otherwise constitute qualified dividend income as non-qualified dividend income, (2) disallow, suspend or otherwise limit the allowance of certain losses or deductions, (3) convert lower-taxed long-term capital gain into higher-taxed short-term capital gain or ordinary income, (4) convert an ordinary loss or a deduction into a capital loss (the deductibility of which is more limited), (5) cause OCSL to recognize income or gain without receipt of a corresponding cash payment, (6) adversely affect the time as to when a purchase or sale of stock or securities is deemed to occur, (7) adversely alter the characterization of certain complex financial transactions and (8) produce income that will not be qualifying income for purposes of the 90% Gross Income Test. OCSL intends to monitor OCSL's transactions and may make certain tax elections to mitigate the potential adverse effect of these provisions, but there can be no assurance that OCSL will be eligible for any such tax elections or that any adverse effects of these provisions will be mitigated.

Gain or loss recognized by OCSL from warrants or other securities acquired by OCSL, as well as any loss attributable to the lapse of such warrants, generally will be treated as capital gain or loss. Such gain or loss generally will be long-term or short-term depending on how long OCSL held a particular warrant or security.

A portfolio company in which OCSL invests may face financial difficulties that require OCSL to work-out, modify or otherwise restructure OCSL's investment in the portfolio company. Any such transaction could, depending upon the specific terms of the transaction, cause OCSL to recognize taxable income without a corresponding receipt of cash, which could affect OCSL's ability to satisfy the Annual Distribution Requirement or the Excise Tax Distribution Requirements or result in unusable capital losses and future non-cash income. Any such transaction could also result in OCSL receiving assets that give rise to non-qualifying income for purposes of the 90% Gross Income Test.

OCSL's investment in non-U.S. securities may be subject to non-U.S. income, withholding and other taxes. In that case, OCSL's yield on those securities would be decreased. Stockholders generally will not be entitled to claim a U.S. foreign tax credit or deduction with respect to non-U.S. taxes paid by OCSL.

If OCSL purchases shares in a "passive foreign investment company" ("PFIC"), OCSL may be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a portion of any "excess distribution" received on, or any gain from the disposition of, such shares even if OCSL distributes such income as a taxable dividend to the holders of OCSL Common Stock. Additional charges in the nature of interest generally will be imposed on OCSL in respect of deferred taxes arising from any such excess distribution or gain. If OCSL invests in a PFIC and elects to treat the PFIC as a "qualified electing fund" under the Code ("QEF"), in lieu of the foregoing requirements, OCSL will be required to include in income each year OCSL's proportionate share of the ordinary earnings and net capital gain of the QEF, even if such income is not distributed by the QEF. Any required inclusions from the QEF election will be considered "good income" for purposes of the 90% Gross Income Test. Alternatively, OCSL may be able to elect to mark-to-market at the end of each taxable year OCSL's shares in a PFIC; in this case, OCSL will recognize as ordinary income any increase in the value of such shares, and as ordinary loss any decrease in such value to the extent that any such decrease does not exceed prior increases included in OCSL's income. OCSL's ability to make either election will depend on factors beyond OCSL's control, and is subject to restrictions which may limit the availability of the benefit of these elections. Under either election, OCSL may be required to recognize in a year income in excess of any distributions OCSL receives from PFICs and any proceeds from dispositions of PFIC stock during that year, and such income will nevertheless be subject to the Annual Distribution Requirement and will be taken into account for purposes of determining whether OCSL satisfies the Excise Tax Distribution Requirements. See "— Taxation as a Regulated Investment Company" above.

Under Section 988 of the Code, gains or losses attributable to fluctuations in exchange rates between the time OCSL accrues income, expenses or other liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and the time OCSL actually collects such income or pays such expenses or liabilities are generally treated as ordinary income or loss. Similarly, gains or losses on foreign currency forward contracts, the disposition of debt obligations denominated in a foreign currency, and other financial transactions denominated in a foreign currency, to the extent attributable to fluctuations in exchange rates between the acquisition and disposition dates, are also treated as ordinary income or loss.

Taxation of U.S. Stockholders

The following discussion applies only to U.S. stockholders. If you are not a U.S. stockholder, this section does not apply to you.

Distributions by OCSL generally are taxable to U.S. stockholders as ordinary income or capital gains. Distributions of OCSL's investment company taxable income, determined without regard to the deduction for dividends paid, will be taxable as ordinary income to U.S. stockholders to the extent of OCSL's current or accumulated earnings and profits, whether paid in cash or reinvested in additional OCSL Common Stock. To the extent such distributions OCSL pays to non-corporate U.S. stockholders (including individuals) are attributable to dividends from U.S. corporations and certain qualified foreign corporations, such distributions ("Qualifying Dividends") generally are taxable to U.S. stockholders at the preferential rates applicable to long-term capital gains. However, it is anticipated that distributions paid by OCSL will generally not be attributable to dividends and, therefore, generally will not qualify for the preferential rates applicable to Qualifying Dividends or the dividends-received deduction available to corporations under the Code. Distributions of OCSL's net capital gains (which generally are OCSL's realized net long-term capital gains in excess of realized net short-term capital losses) that are properly reported by OCSL as "capital gain dividends" will be taxable to a U.S. stockholder as long-term capital gains that are currently taxable at reduced rates in the case of non-corporate taxpayers, regardless of the U.S. stockholder's holding period for his, her or its OCSL Common Stock and regardless of whether paid in cash or reinvested in additional OCSL Common Stock. Distributions in excess of OCSL's earnings and profits first will reduce a U.S. stockholder's adjusted tax basis in such U.S. stockholder's OCSL Common Stock and, after the adjusted tax basis is reduced to zero, will constitute capital gains to such U.S. stockholder.

A portion of OCSL's ordinary income dividends, but not capital gain dividends, paid to corporate U.S. stockholders may, if certain conditions are met, qualify for up to a 50% dividends-received deduction to the extent OCSL has received dividends from certain corporations during the taxable year, but only to the extent these ordinary income dividends are treated as paid out of OCSL's earnings and profits. OCSL expects only a small portion of OCSL's dividends to qualify for this deduction. A corporate U.S. stockholder may be required to reduce its basis in its common stock with respect to certain "extraordinary dividends," as defined in Section 1059 of the Code. Corporate U.S. stockholders should consult their own tax advisors in determining the application of these rules in their particular circumstances.

U.S. stockholders who have not opted out of OCSL's dividend reinvestment plan will have their cash dividends and distributions automatically reinvested in additional shares of OCSL Common Stock, rather than receiving cash dividends and distributions. Any dividends or distributions reinvested under the plan will nevertheless remain taxable to U.S. stockholders. A U.S. stockholder will have an adjusted basis in the additional OCSL Common Stock purchased through the plan equal to the dollar amount that would have been received if the U.S. stockholder had received the dividend or distribution in cash, unless OCSL were to issue new shares that are trading at or above NAV, in which case, the U.S. stockholder's basis in the new shares would generally be equal to their fair market value. The additional shares will have a new holding period commencing on the day following the day on which the shares are credited to the U.S. stockholder's account.

OCSL may distribute OCSL's net long-term capital gains, if any, in cash or elect to retain some or all of such gains, pay taxes at the U.S. federal corporate-level income tax rate on the amount retained, and designate the retained amount as a "deemed distribution." If OCSL elects to retain net long-term capital gains and deem them distributed, each U.S. common stockholder will be treated as if they received a distribution of their pro rata share of the retained net long-term capital gain and the U.S. federal income tax paid. As a result, each U.S. common stockholder will (i) be required to report their pro rata share of the retained gain on their tax return as long-term capital gain, (ii) receive a refundable tax credit for their pro rata share of federal tax paid by OCSL on the retained gain, and (iii) increase the tax basis of their shares of OCSL Common Stock by an amount equal to the deemed distribution less the tax credit. In order to utilize the deemed distribution approach, OCSL must provide written notice to OCSL's stockholders prior to the expiration of 60 days after the close of the relevant taxable year.

For purposes of determining (1) whether the Annual Distribution Requirement is satisfied for any year and (2) the amount of capital gain dividends paid for that year, OCSL may, under certain circumstances, elect to treat a dividend that is paid during the following taxable year as if it had been paid during the taxable year in question. If OCSL makes such an election, the U.S. stockholder will still be treated as receiving the dividend in the taxable year in which the distribution is made. However, any dividend declared by OCSL in October, November or December of any calendar year, payable to stockholders of record on a specified date in such a month and actually paid during January of the following year, will be treated as if it had been received by OCSL Stockholders on December 31 of the year in which the dividend was declared.

If a U.S. stockholder purchases shares of OCSL Common Stock shortly before the record date of a distribution, the price of the shares will include the value of the distribution and the U.S. stockholder investor will be subject to tax on the distribution even though economically it may represent a return of his, her or its investment.

A U.S. stockholder generally will recognize taxable gain or loss if the U.S. stockholder redeems, sells or otherwise disposes of his, her or its shares of OCSL Common Stock. The amount of gain or loss will be measured by the difference between such U.S. stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the OCSL Common Stock sold, redeemed or otherwise disposed of and the amount of the proceeds received in exchange. Any gain or loss arising from such sale, redemption or other disposition generally will be treated as long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. stockholder has held his, her or its shares for more than one year. Otherwise, such gain or loss will be classified as short-term capital gain or loss. However, any capital loss arising from the sale, redemption or other disposition of shares of OCSL Common Stock held for six months or less will be treated as long-term capital loss to the extent of the amount of capital gain dividends received, or undistributed capital gain deemed received, with respect to such shares. In addition, all or a portion of any loss recognized upon a disposition of shares of OCSL Common Stock may be disallowed if substantially identical stock or securities are purchased (whether through reinvestment of distributions or otherwise) within 30 days before or after the disposition. In such a case, the basis of the OCSL Common Stock acquired will be increased to reflect the disallowed loss.

In general, individual and certain other non-corporate U.S. stockholders that are individuals, trusts or estates are taxed at preferential rates on their net capital gain (i.e., the excess of realized net long-term capital gains over realized net short-term capital losses), including any long-term capital gain derived from an investment in OCSL's shares. Such rate is lower than the maximum rate on ordinary income currently payable by individuals. Corporate U.S. stockholders currently are subject to U.S. federal income tax on net capital gain at the maximum rate also applied to ordinary income. Non-corporate U.S. stockholders with net capital losses for a year (i.e., capital losses in excess of capital gains) generally may deduct up to $3,000 of such losses against their ordinary income each year; any net capital losses of a non-corporate U.S. stockholder in excess of $3,000 generally may be carried forward and used in subsequent years as provided in the Code. Corporate U.S. stockholders generally may not deduct any net capital losses for a year, but may carry back such losses for three years or carry forward such losses for five years.

OCSL will send to each of OCSL's U.S. stockholders, as promptly as possible after the end of each calendar year, a notice detailing, on a per share and per distribution basis, the amounts includible in the U.S. stockholder's taxable income for the applicable year as ordinary income and as long-term capital gain. In addition, the U.S. federal tax status of each year's distributions generally will be reported to the IRS (including the amount of dividends, if any, eligible for the preferential rates applicable to long-term capital gains). Dividends paid by OCSL generally will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction or the preferential tax rate applicable to Qualifying Dividends because OCSL's income generally will not consist of dividends. Distributions out of current or accumulated earnings and profits also generally will not be eligible for the 20% pass through deduction under Section 199A of the Code, although under recently proposed regulations (that have not yet been finalized) qualified real estate investment trust dividends earned by OCSL may qualify for the Section 199A deduction. Distributions may also be subject to additional state, local and non-U.S. taxes depending on a U.S. stockholder's particular situation.

Net Investment Income Tax

An additional 3.8% surtax generally is applicable in respect of the net investment income of non-corporate U.S. stockholders (other than certain trusts) on the lesser of (i) the U.S. stockholder's "net investment income" for a taxable year and (ii) the excess of the U.S. stockholder's modified adjusted gross income for the taxable year over $200,000 ($250,000 in the case of joint filers). For these purposes, "net investment income" generally includes interest and taxable distributions and deemed distributions paid with respect to shares of common stock, and net gain attributable to the disposition of common stock (in each case, unless the shares of common stock are held in connection with certain trades or businesses), but will be reduced by any deductions properly allocable to these distributions or this net gain.

Taxation of non-U.S. stockholders

The following discussion applies only to non-U.S. stockholders. If you are not a non-U.S. stockholder, this section does not apply to you. Whether an investment in shares of OCSL Common Stock is appropriate for a non-U.S. stockholder will depend upon that person's particular circumstances. An investment in shares of OCSL Common Stock by a non-U.S. stockholder may have adverse tax consequences and, accordingly, may not be appropriate for a non-U.S. stockholder. Non-U.S. stockholders should consult their own tax advisors before investing in OCSL Common Stock.

Distributions on, and Sale or Other Disposition of, OCSL Common Stock

Distributions of OCSL's investment company taxable income to non-U.S. stockholders generally will be subject to U.S. withholding tax (unless lowered or eliminated by an applicable income tax treaty) to the extent payable from OCSL's current or accumulated earnings and profits unless an exception applies.

If a non-U.S. stockholder receives distributions and such distributions are effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of the non-U.S. stockholder and, if an income tax treaty applies, attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States of such non-U.S. stockholder, such distributions generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at the rates applicable to U.S. persons. In that case, OCSL will not be required to withhold U.S. federal income tax if the non-U.S. stockholder complies with applicable certification and disclosure requirements. Special certification requirements apply to a non-U.S. stockholder that is a foreign trust and such entities are urged to consult their own tax advisors.

Actual or deemed distributions of OCSL's net capital gain (which generally are OCSL's realized net long-term capital gains in excess of realized net short-term capital losses) to a non-U.S. stockholder, and gains recognized by a non-U.S. stockholder upon the sale of OCSL Common Stock, will not be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax and generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless (a) the distributions or gains, as the case may be, are effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of the non-U.S. stockholder and, if an income tax treaty applies, are attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the non-U.S. stockholder in the United States (as discussed above) or (b) the non-U.S. stockholder is an individual, has been present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year, and certain other conditions are satisfied. For a corporate non-U.S. stockholder, distributions (both actual and deemed), and gains recognized upon the sale of OCSL Common Stock that are effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business may, under certain circumstances, be subject to an additional "branch profits tax" (unless lowered or eliminated by an applicable income tax treaty). Non-U.S. stockholders of OCSL Common Stock are encouraged to consult their own advisors as to the applicability of an income tax treaty in their individual circumstances.

In general, no U.S. source withholding taxes will be imposed on dividends paid by OCSL to non-U.S. stockholders to the extent the dividends are designated as “interest related dividends” or “short term capital gain dividends.” Under this exemption, interest related dividends and short term capital gain dividends generally represent distributions of interest or short term capital gain that would not have been subject to U.S. withholding tax at the source if they had been received directly by a non-U.S. stockholder, and that satisfy certain other requirements. No assurance can be given that OCSL will distribute any interest related dividends or short term capital gain dividends.

If OCSL distributes OCSL’s net capital gain in the form of deemed rather than actual distributions (which OCSL may do in the future), a non-U.S. stockholder will be entitled to a U.S. federal income tax credit or tax refund equal to the non-U.S. stockholder’s allocable share of the tax OCSL pays on the capital gain deemed to have been distributed. In order to obtain the refund, the non-U.S. stockholder must obtain a U.S. taxpayer identification number (“TIN”) (if one has not been previously obtained) and file a U.S. federal income tax return even if the non-U.S. stockholder would not otherwise be required to obtain a U.S. TIN or file a U.S. federal income tax return.

Non-U.S. stockholders who have not opted out of OCSL’s dividend reinvestment plan will have their cash dividends and distributions automatically reinvested in additional shares of OCSL Common Stock, rather than receiving cash dividends and distributions. Any dividends or distributions reinvested under the plan will nevertheless remain taxable to non-U.S. stockholders to the same extent as if such dividends were received in cash. In addition, OCSL has the ability to declare a large portion of a dividend in shares of OCSL Common Stock, even if a non-U.S. stockholder has opted out of OCSL’s dividend reinvestment plan, in which case, as long as a portion of such dividend is paid in cash (which portion could be as low as 20%) and certain requirements are met, the entire distribution will be treated as a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a result, OCSL’s non-U.S. stockholders will be taxed on 100% of the fair market value of a dividend paid entirely or partially in OCSL Common Stock on the date the dividend is received in the same manner (and to the extent such non-U.S. stockholder is subject to U.S. federal income taxation) as a cash dividend (including the application of withholding tax rules described above), even if most or all of the dividend is paid in OCSL Common Stock. In such a circumstance, OCSL may be required to withhold all or substantially all of the cash OCSL would otherwise distribute to a non-U.S. stockholder.

Certain Additional Tax Considerations

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

OCSL may be required to withhold, for U.S. federal income taxes, a portion of all taxable distributions payable to stockholders (a) who fail to provide OCSL with their correct TINs or who otherwise fail to make required certifications or (b) with respect to whom the IRS notifies OCSL that this stockholder is subject to backup withholding. Certain stockholders specified in the Code and the U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder are exempt from backup withholding, but may be required to provide documentation to establish their exempt status. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld will be allowed as a refund or a credit against the stockholder’s U.S. federal income tax liability if the appropriate information is timely provided to the IRS. Failure by a stockholder to furnish a certified TIN to OCSL could subject the stockholder to a $50 penalty imposed by the IRS.

Withholding and Information Reporting on Foreign Financial Accounts

A non-U.S. stockholder who is otherwise subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding of U.S. federal income tax on dividends, unless the non-U.S. stockholder provides OCSL or the dividend paying agent with an IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or an acceptable substitute form), or otherwise meets the documentary evidence requirements for establishing that it is a non-U.S. stockholder or establishes an exemption from backup withholding.

Pursuant to Sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code and the U.S. Treasury regulations thereunder, the relevant withholding agent generally will be required to withhold 30% of any dividends paid with respect to common stock to: (i) a foreign financial institution, unless the foreign financial institution agrees to verify, report and disclose its U.S. accountholders, and meets certain other specified requirements or is subject to an applicable “intergovernmental agreement”; or (ii) a non-financial foreign entity beneficial owner, unless the entity certifies that it does not have any substantial U.S. owners or provides the name, address and TIN of each substantial U.S. owner, and meets certain other specified requirements. If payment of this withholding tax is made, non-U.S. stockholders that otherwise are eligible for an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding taxes with respect to these dividends or proceeds will be required to seek a credit or refund from the IRS to obtain the benefit of this exemption or reduction. In certain cases, the relevant foreign financial institution or non-financial foreign entity may qualify for an exemption from, or be deemed to be in compliance with, these rules. Certain jurisdictions have entered into agreements with the United States that may supplement or modify these rules.

All stockholders should consult their own tax advisers with respect to the U.S. federal income and withholding tax consequences, and state, local and non-U.S. tax consequences, of an investment in OCSL Common Stock. OCSL will not pay any additional amounts in respect to any amounts withheld.

OCSL PROPOSAL 1 — ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Under OCSL's restated certificate of incorporation, as amended ("OCSL's certificate of incorporation"), directors are divided into three classes. At each annual meeting of stockholders of OCSL, the successors to the directors whose terms expire at such meeting will be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders held in the third year following the year of his or her election and when his or her successor has been duly elected and qualifies or any director's earlier resignation, removal from office, death or incapacity.

Each of Ms. Gero and Mr. Jacobson has been nominated for re-election to the OCSL Board for a three-year term expiring at the 2024 annual meeting of stockholders of OCSL. At the Companies' joint annual meeting of stockholders on April 6, 2018, Mr. Jacobson was re-elected to the OCSL Board. Effective upon the conclusion of the Companies' joint annual meeting of stockholders on March 7, 2019, Deborah A. Gero was appointed to the OCSL Board. For Ms. Gero's and Mr. Jacobson's biographical information, see "Management of OCSL and OCSI — Director and Executive Officer Information — Biographical Information — Independent Directors."

No person being nominated by the OCSL Board as a director is being proposed for election pursuant to any agreement or understanding between any such person and OCSL.

Any OCSL Stockholder can vote for or withhold authority on each of the director nominees of OCSL. Votes to "withhold authority" and broker non-votes will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the election of any director nominee. In the absence of instructions to the contrary, it is the intention of the persons named as proxies to vote such proxy "FOR" the election of the nominees named above. If a nominee should decline or be unable to serve as a director, it is intended that the proxy will be voted for the election of such person nominated by the OCSL Board as a replacement. The OCSL Board does not have any reason to believe that any director nominee named will be unable or unwilling to serve.

The OCSL Board unanimously recommends a vote "FOR" each of OCSL's director nominees proposed by the OCSL Board in connection with the Director Proposal.

OCSL PROPOSAL 2 — RATIFY THE APPOINTMENT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS THE INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM FOR THE 2021 FISCAL YEAR

Upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee of the OCSL Board, the OCSL Board has retained EY as OCSL's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2021, subject to ratification by OCSL Stockholders.

It is expected that a representative of EY will participate in the virtual OCSL Annual Meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement if he or she chooses and will be available to answer questions.

Independent Auditor's Fees

The following table presents fees for professional services rendered by EY for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2020 and 2019.

	2020 OCSL	2019 OCSL
Audit Fees	$1,090,000	$1,215,000
Audit-Related Fees	$ —	$ —
Aggregate Non-Audit Fees:
Tax Fees	$ 165,000	$ 166,500
All Other Fees	—	—
Total Aggregate Non-Audit Fees	$ 165,000 ⁽¹⁾	$ 166,500 ⁽²⁾
Total Fees	$1,255,000	$1,381,500

(1) Non-audit fees represent 13.1% of total fees.

(2) Non-audit fees represent 12.1% of total fees.

Audit Fees. Audit fees consist of fees billed for professional services rendered for the audit of OCSL's year-end financial statements and services that are normally provided by the independent registered public accounting firm in connection with statutory and regulatory filings.

Audit-Related Fees. Audit-related services consist of fees billed for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of OCSL's financial statements and are not reported under "Audit Fees." These services include attest services that are not required by statute or regulation and consultations concerning financial accounting and reporting standards.

Tax Fees. Tax fees consist of fees billed for professional services for tax compliance. These services include assistance regarding federal, state and local tax compliance.

All Other Fees. All other fees would include fees for products and services other than the services reported above.

Aggregate Non-Audit Fees. Aggregate non-audit fees billed by EY to Oaktree and its affiliates who provide on-going services to OCSL during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 was $7,347,860. OCSL's Audit Committee does not consider the provision of such services to be incompatible with maintaining EY's independence.

Required Vote

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by OCSL Stockholders at the OCSL Annual Meeting in person or by proxy is required to approve this proposal. Abstentions will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on this proposal. Because brokers will have discretionary authority to vote for the ratification of the selection of OCSL's registered independent public accounting firm in the event that they do not receive voting instructions from the beneficial owner of shares of OCSL Common Stock, there should not be any broker non-votes with respect to this proposal.

The OCSL Board unanimously recommends a vote "FOR" the proposal to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for OCSL for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2021.

Audit Committee Report

The following is the report of the Audit Committee of OCSL with respect to OCSL's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020.

As part of its oversight of OCSL's financial statements, OCSL's Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with both management and its independent registered public accounting firm OCSL's audited financial statements filed with the SEC as of and for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020. OCSL's management advised OCSL's Audit Committee that all financial statements were prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), and reviewed significant accounting issues with the Audit Committee. OCSL's Audit Committee discussed with its independent registered public accounting firm the matters required to be discussed by Auditing Standards No. 1301 (Communication with Audit Committees). The independent registered public accounting firm also provided to OCSL's Audit Committees the written disclosures and letter required by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent registered public accounting firm's communications with OCSL's Audit Committee concerning independence, and OCSL's Audit Committee discussed the subject of independence with the independent registered public accounting firm.

OCSL's Audit Committee has established a pre-approval policy that describes the permitted audit, audit-related, tax and other services to be provided by its independent registered public accounting firm. Pursuant to the policies, OCSL's Audit Committee pre-approves the audit and non-audit services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm in order to assure that the provision of such services does not impair the firm's independence.

Any requests for audit, audit-related, tax, and other services that have not received general pre-approval must be submitted to OCSL's Audit Committee for specific pre-approval, irrespective of the amount, and cannot commence until such approval has been granted. Normally, pre-approval is provided at regularly scheduled meetings of OCSL's Audit Committee. However, OCSL's Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to subcommittees of one or more of its members. The member or members to whom such authority is delegated shall report any pre-approval decisions to OCSL's Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. OCSL's Audit Committee does not delegate its responsibilities to pre-approve services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm to management.

OCSL's Audit Committee has reviewed the audit fees paid by OCSL to its independent registered public accounting firm. It has also reviewed non-audit services and fees to assure compliance with OCSL's and its Audit Committee's policies restricting the independent registered public accounting firm from performing services that might impair its independence.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee of OCSL recommended to the OCSL Board that the financial statements as of and for the year ended September 30, 2020, be included in OCSL's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2020, for filing with the SEC. The Audit Committee of OCSL also recommended the selection of EY to serve as the independent registered public accounting firm of OCSL for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2021.

Under Delaware law and OCSL’s certificate of incorporation, OCSL Stockholders will not be entitled to rights of appraisal with respect to the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal. Accordingly, to the extent that an OCSL Stockholder objects to the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal, such OCSL Stockholder will not have the right to have a court judicially determine (and the OCSL Stockholder will not receive) the fair value for its shares of OCSL Common Stock under the provisions of Delaware law governing appraisal rights.

Required Vote

OCSL Stockholders may vote “FOR” or “AGAINST,” or they may “ABSTAIN” from voting on, the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal. The affirmative vote “FOR” the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal of the holders of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of outstanding shares of OCSL Common Stock at the OCSL Annual Meeting in person or by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present is required for approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will have no effect on the outcome of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal. Proxies received will be voted “FOR” the approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal unless OCSL Stockholders designate otherwise.

On the recommendation of the OCSL Special Committee, the OCSL Board unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” The Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

Required Vote

OCSI Stockholders may vote “FOR” or “AGAINST,” or they may “ABSTAIN” from voting on, the Merger Proposal. The affirmative vote “FOR” the Merger Proposal of a majority of the outstanding shares of OCSI Common Stock is required to approve the Merger Proposal. MANAGEMENT OF OCSL AND OCSI

The business and affairs of each of OCSL and OCSI are managed under the oversight of its Board. The Board of each of OCSL and OCSI currently consists of five members, of whom four are Independent Directors. The Board of each of OCSL and OCSI may modify the number of its members in accordance with each Company’s bylaws, except that no decrease in the number of directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director. Nasdaq requires that each Company maintain a majority of Independent Directors on its Board and provides that a director of a Business Development Company is considered to be independent if he or she is not an “interested person”, as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act. Board Leadership Structure

Each Board monitors and performs oversight roles with respect to the applicable Company's business and affairs, including with respect to investment practices and performance, compliance with regulatory requirements and the services, expenses and performance of service providers. Among other things, each Board approves the appointment of the applicable Company's investment adviser and officers, reviews and monitors the services and activities performed by each Company's investment adviser and officers and approves the engagement of, and reviews the performance of, the independent registered public accounting firm.

Under the respective bylaws of OCSL and OCSI, each Board may designate a chairman to preside over the meetings of such Board and meetings of stockholders and to perform such other duties as may be assigned to him or her by the respective Board. Neither Company has a fixed policy as to whether the chairman of the Board should be an Independent Director; each Company believes that it should maintain the flexibility to select the chairman and reorganize its leadership structure, from time to time, based on the criteria that is in such Company's best interests and the best interests of such Company's stockholders at such times. Each Board has established corporate governance procedures to guard against, among other things, an improperly constituted Board. Pursuant to each Company's Corporate Governance Policy, whenever the chairman of such Board is not an Independent Director, the chairman of such Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee or, if there has been appointed a lead Independent Director, the lead Independent Director will act as the presiding Independent Director at meetings of the "Non-Management Directors" (which will include the Independent Directors and other directors who are not officers of such Company even though they may have another relationship with that Company or its management that prevents them from being Independent Directors). Currently, Mr. Zimmerman serves as the designated lead Independent Director of each Board.

Presently, Mr. Frank serves as the Chairman of each of the Boards. Mr. Frank's familiarity with Oaktree's investment platform and extensive knowledge of the financial services industry qualify him to serve as the Chairman of each Company. Each Company believes that it is best served through this existing leadership structure, as Mr. Frank's relationship with Oaktree provides an effective bridge and encourages an open dialogue between Oaktree and the respective Board.

Each Company's corporate governance practices include regular meetings of its Independent Directors in executive session without the presence of interested directors and management, the establishment of an Audit Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Compensation Committee comprised solely of Independent Directors and the appointment of a chief compliance officer, with whom the Independent Directors of such Company meet with in executive session at least once a year, for administering the Company's compliance policies and procedures. While certain non-management members of each Board may participate on the boards of directors of other public companies, each Company monitors such participation to ensure it is not excessive and does not interfere with their duties to such Company.

Boards' Role in Risk Oversight

The OCSL Board and OCSI Board perform their risk oversight function primarily through (i) five and four standing committees, respectively, which report to the applicable Board and, with the exception of the Co-Investment Committee, are comprised solely of Independent Directors, and (ii) active monitoring by such Company's chief compliance officer and its compliance policies and procedures.

As described below in more detail, each Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Co-Investment Committee assists the applicable Board, and the Risk and Conflicts Committee assists the OCSL Board, in fulfilling its risk oversight responsibilities. Each Audit Committee's risk oversight responsibilities include overseeing the applicable Company's accounting and financial reporting processes, systems of internal controls regarding finance and accounting, and audits of the applicable Company's financial statements, as well as the establishment of guidelines and making recommendations to the applicable Board regarding the valuation of the applicable Company's loans and investments. Each Compensation Committee's risk oversight responsibilities include reviewing and approving the reimbursement by the applicable Company of the compensation of its chief financial officer and chief compliance officer and their staffs and other non-investment professionals at Oaktree that perform duties for such Company. Each Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's risk oversight responsibilities include selecting, researching and nominating directors for election by the applicable Company's stockholders, developing and recommending to the applicable Board a set of corporate governance principles and overseeing the evaluation of such Board and management. Each Co-Investment Committee's risk oversight responsibilities include reviewing and approving certain co-investment transactions in accordance with the conditions of the exemptive order the Companies have received from the SEC. The OCSL Risk and Conflicts Committee's risk oversight responsibilities include assisting the OCSL Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities in connection with OCSL's management of its credit risk and consideration of conflicts of interest.

Each Board also performs its risk oversight responsibilities with the assistance of such Company's chief compliance officer. Each Board annually reviews a written report from the Company's chief compliance officer discussing the adequacy and effectiveness of the compliance policies and procedures of each respective Company. The chief compliance officer's annual report addresses: (i) the operation of the compliance policies and procedures of the Company, its investment adviser and certain other entities since the last report; (ii) any material changes to such policies and procedures since the last report; (iii) any recommendations for material changes to such policies and procedures as a result of the chief compliance officer's annual review; and (iv) any compliance matter that has occurred since the date of the last report about which the Board would reasonably need to know to oversee compliance. In addition, each Company's chief compliance officer meets in executive session with the applicable Board's Independent Directors at least once a year.

Each Company believes that the role of the Board in risk oversight is effective and appropriate given the extensive regulation to which it is already subject as a Business Development Company. As Business Development Companies, the Companies are required to comply with certain regulatory requirements that control the levels of risk in their respective businesses and operations.

Delinquent Section 16(a) Reports

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Companies' directors and executive officers, and persons who own 10% or more of the Company's common stock, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership of its equity securities with the SEC. Based solely on a review of the copies of those forms filed with the SEC, or written representations that no such forms were required, except for one Form 4 for each of OCSL and OCSI (reporting three transactions and one transaction, respectively) filed late by Leonard Tannenbaum on January 9, 2020 and May 7, 2020, respectively, each Company believes that its directors, executive officers and 10% or more beneficial owners complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020.

relationship with the applicable Company. Each Company monitors the status of its directors and officers through the activities of such Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and through a questionnaire to be completed by each director no less frequently than annually, with updates periodically if information provided in the most recent questionnaire has materially changed.

In order to evaluate the materiality of any such relationship, each Board uses the definition of director independence set forth in the Nasdaq listing rules. Section 5605 provides that a director of a Business Development Company shall be considered to be independent if he or she is not an "interested person" of the Company, as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act. Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act defines an "interested person" to include, among other things, any person who has, or within the last two years had, a material business or professional relationship with the Company.

Each Board has determined that each of the current directors is independent and has no relationship with the applicable Company, except as a director and stockholder of the Company, with the exception of Mr. Frank. Mr. Frank is an interested person of each Company due to his positions at Oaktree and its affiliates.

Each Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for determining criteria for service on the applicable Board, identifying, researching and nominating directors for election by its stockholders, selecting nominees to fill vacancies on such Board or a committee of such Board, developing and recommending to such Board a set of corporate governance principles and overseeing the self-evaluation of such Board and its committees and evaluation of management.

The members of each Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are Messrs. Jacobson, Ruben and Zimmerman, each of whom is not an interested person of such Company as defined in the Investment Company Act and is independent for purposes of the Nasdaq listing rules. Mr. Ruben serves as the Chairman of the OCSL and OCSI Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees. Each Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met four times during fiscal year 2020.

Each Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers qualified director nominees recommended by stockholders of such Company when such recommendations are submitted in accordance with either such Company's bylaws and any other applicable law, rule or regulation regarding director nominations. Stockholders of a Company may submit candidates for nomination for such Company's Board by writing to: Board of Directors, Oaktree Specialty Lending Corporation or Oaktree Strategic Income Corporation, as applicable, 333 South Grand Avenue, 28th Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90071. When submitting a nomination for consideration, a stockholder must provide certain information about each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election as a director, including: (i) the name, age, business address and residence address of the person; (ii) the principal occupation or employment of the person; (iii) the class or series and number of shares of Company common stock owned beneficially or of record by the person; and (iv) any other information relating to the person that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Such notice must be accompanied by the proposed nominee's written consent to be named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected.

In evaluating director nominees, each Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers the following factors:

- the appropriate size and composition of its Board;
- its needs with respect to the particular talents and experience of its directors;
- the knowledge, skills and experience of nominees in light of prevailing business conditions and the knowledge, skills and experience already possessed by other members of its Board;
- the capacity and desire to serve as a member of its Board and to represent the balanced, best interests of its stockholders as a whole;
- experience with accounting rules and practices; and
- the desire to balance the considerable benefit of continuity with the periodic addition of the fresh perspective provided by new members.

Each Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's goal is to assemble a Board that brings it a variety of perspectives and skills derived from high quality business and professional experience.

Other than the foregoing, there are no stated minimum criteria for director nominees, although each Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may also consider such other factors as it may deem are in the Company's best interests and those of its stockholders. Neither Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee assigns specific weights to particular criteria, and no particular criterion is necessarily applicable to all prospective nominees. Each Company believes that the backgrounds and qualifications of the directors, considered as a group, should provide a significant composite mix of experience, knowledge and abilities that will allow each Board to fulfill its responsibilities. The Boards do not have a specific diversity policy, but considers diversity of race, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, disability, cultural background and professional experiences as well as applicable legal requirements in evaluating candidates for Board membership.

Each Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee identifies nominees by first evaluating the current members of the Board willing to continue in service. Current members of the Board with skills and experience that are relevant to the applicable business and who are willing to continue in service are considered for re-nomination, balancing the value of continuity of service by existing members of the Board with that of obtaining a new perspective. If any member of the Board does not wish to continue in service or if the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee the Board decides not to re-nominate a member for re-election or the Board decides to add a new director to the Board, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee would identify the desired skills and experience of a new nominee in light of the criteria above. Current members of each Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Board would review and discuss, for nomination, the individuals meeting the criteria of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Research may also be performed to identify qualified individuals. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of each Company has not, but may choose to, engage an independent consultant or other third party to identify or evaluate or assist in identifying potential nominees to such Company's Board.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Transactions with Related Persons

From October 17, 2017 through May 3, 2020, each of OCSL and OCSI was externally managed by OCM pursuant to separate investment advisory agreements. On May 4, 2020, OCM effected the novations of such investment advisory agreements to Oaktree. Immediately following such novations, OCSL and OCSI entered into the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement and the OCSI Investment Advisory Agreement, respectively. Mr. Frank, an interested member of each Board, has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in Oaktree. Oaktree is a registered investment adviser under the Advisers Act that is a subsidiary of OCG. OCG operates as an independent business within Brookfield, with its own product offerings and investment, marketing and support teams.

Under the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement, fees payable to Oaktree equal (a) a base management fee and (b) an incentive fee based on OCSL's performance. The base management fee is calculated at an annual rate of 1.50% of the value of OCSL's total gross assets at the end of each quarter, including any investment made with borrowings, but excluding cash and cash equivalents. Effective May 3, 2019, the base management fee on OCSL's gross assets, including any investments made with borrowings, but excluding any cash and cash equivalents, that exceed the product of (A) 200% (as calculated in accordance with the Investment Company Act and giving effect to exemptive relief OCSL received from the SEC with respect to debentures issued by a small business investment company subsidiary) and (B) OCSL's NAV is 1.00%. The incentive fee consists of two parts. The first part is calculated and payable quarterly in arrears and equals 17.5% of OCSL's "pre-incentive fee net investment income" for the immediately preceding quarter, subject to a preferred return, or "hurdle," and a "catch up" feature. The second part is determined and payable in arrears as of the end of each fiscal year (or upon termination of the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement) and equals 17.5% of OCSL's realized capital gains, if any, on a cumulative basis from the beginning of the fiscal year ended September 30, 2019 through the end of each fiscal year, computed net of all realized capital losses and unrealized capital depreciation on a cumulative basis, less the aggregate amount of any previously paid capital gain incentive fees.

Under the OCSI Investment Advisory Agreement, fees payable to Oaktree equal (a) a base management fee of 1.00% of the average value of OCSI's total gross assets at the end of the two most recently completed quarters, including any investment made with borrowings, but excluding cash and cash equivalents, and (b) an incentive fee based on OCSI's performance. The incentive fee consists of two parts. The first part is calculated and payable quarterly in arrears and equals 17.5% of OCSI's "pre-incentive fee net investment income" for the immediately preceding quarter, subject to a preferred return, or "hurdle," and a "catch up" feature. The second part is determined and payable in arrears as of the end of each fiscal year (or upon termination of the OCSI Investment Advisory Agreement) and equals 17.5% of OCSI's realized capital gains, if any, on a cumulative basis from the beginning of the fiscal year ended September 30, 2019 through the end of each fiscal year, computed net of all realized capital losses and unrealized capital depreciation on a cumulative basis, less the aggregate amount of any previously paid capital gain incentive fees.

For purposes of each of the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement and the OCSI Investment Advisory Agreement, "pre-incentive fee net investment income" means interest income, dividend income and any other income (including any other fees such as commitment, origination, structuring, diligence and consulting fees or other fees that the applicable Company receives from portfolio companies, other than fees for providing managerial assistance) accrued during the fiscal quarter, minus operating expenses for the quarter (including the base management fee, expenses payable under the OCSL Administration Agreement or the OCSI Administration Agreement, as applicable, and any interest expense and dividends paid on any issued and outstanding preferred stock, but excluding the incentive fee). Pre-incentive fee net investment income includes, in the case of investments with a deferred interest feature (such as original issue discount debt instruments with payment-in-kind interest and zero coupon securities), accrued income that the applicable Company has not yet received in cash. Pre-incentive fee net investment income does not include any realized capital gains, realized capital losses or unrealized capital appreciation or depreciation.

Each of the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement and the OCSI Investment Advisory Agreement may be terminated without penalty, upon 60 days' written notice, by the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the applicable Company or by the vote of the applicable Company's directors or by Oaktree.

For the two-year period commencing on October 17, 2017, OCM waived management and incentive fees payable to OCM that exceeded what would have been paid during that period to Fifth Street Management LLC (the "Former Adviser") in the aggregate under such Company's investment advisory agreement with the Former Adviser that was in effect prior to October 17, 2017.

Each Company has entered into an administration agreement with Oaktree Administrator, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of OCM. Pursuant to the OCSL Administration Agreement and the OCSI Administration Agreement, Oaktree Administrator provides administrative services to the applicable Company necessary for the operations of such Company, which include providing to each Company office facilities, equipment and clerical, bookkeeping and record keeping services at such facilities and such other services as Oaktree Administrator, subject to review by the applicable Board, shall from time to time deem to be necessary or useful to perform its obligations under the OCSL Administration Agreement or the OCSI Administration Agreement, as applicable. Oaktree Administrator also provides to each Company portfolio collection functions for interest income, fees and warrants and is responsible for the financial and other records that each Company is required to maintain and prepares, prints and disseminates reports to each Company's stockholders and reports and all other materials filed with the SEC. In addition, Oaktree Administrator assists each Company in determining and publishing such Company's NAV, overseeing the preparation and filing of such Company's tax returns, and generally overseeing the payment of such Company's expenses and the performance of administrative and professional services rendered to such Company by others. Oaktree Administrator may also offer to provide, on the applicable Company's behalf, managerial assistance to such Company's portfolio companies.

For providing these services, facilities and personnel, each Company reimburses Oaktree Administrator the allocable portion of overhead and other expenses incurred by Oaktree Administrator in performing its obligations under the OCSL Administration Agreement or the OCSI Administration Agreement, as applicable, including each Company's allocable portion of the rent of its principal executive offices (which are located in a building owned by a Brookfield affiliate) at market rates and each Company's allocable portion of the costs of compensation and related expenses of its chief financial officer and chief compliance officer and their respective staffs and other non-investment professionals at Oaktree that perform duties for such Company. Such reimbursement is at cost, with no profit to, or markup by, Oaktree Administrator. Each of the OCSL Administration Agreement and the OCSI Administration Agreement may be terminated without penalty, upon 60 days' written notice, by the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the applicable Company or by the vote of the applicable Company's directors or by Oaktree Administrator. For the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020, OCSL and OCSI incurred approximately $1.8 million and $1.1 million of administration fees, respectively, under the OCSL Administration Agreement and the OCSI Administration Agreement, as applicable.

Review, Approval or Ratification of Transactions with Related Persons

The Independent Directors of each Company are required to review, approve or ratify any transactions with related persons (as such term is defined in Item 404 of Regulation S-K).

Material Conflicts of Interest

Each Company's executive officers, directors and certain members of Oaktree serve or may serve as officers, directors or principals of entities that operate in the same or a related line of business as each Company does or of investment funds managed by Oaktree or its affiliates. For example, Oaktree presently serves as the investment adviser to both Companies and to OSI II, a private Business Development Company. All of the executive officers of OCSL serve in substantially similar capacities for OCSI and OSI II, and all of the OCSL Independent Directors serve as OCSI Independent Directors and one Independent Director also serves as an Independent Director of OSI II. Each of OCSL and OCSI has historically invested in senior secured loans, including first lien, unitranche and second lien debt instruments that pay interest at rates which are determined periodically on the basis of a floating base lending rate, made to private middle-market companies whose debt is rated below investment grade, similar to those that OCSI targets for investment. OSI II also makes similar investments as either or both of OCSL or OCSI. Oaktree and its affiliates also manage and sub-advise private investment funds and accounts, and may manage other such funds and accounts in the future, which have investment mandates that are similar, in whole and in part, with a Company. Therefore, there may be certain investment opportunities that satisfy the investment criteria for OCSL, OCSI and OSI II as well as private investment funds and accounts advised or sub-advised by Oaktree or its affiliates. In addition, Oaktree and its affiliates may have obligations to investors in other entities that they advise or sub-advise, the fulfillment of which might not be in the best interests of us or our stockholders. For example, the personnel of Oaktree may face conflicts of interest in the allocation of investment opportunities to the Companies and such other funds and accounts.

Oaktree has investment allocation guidelines that govern the allocation of investment opportunities among the investment funds and accounts managed or sub-advised by Oaktree and its affiliates. To the extent an investment opportunity is appropriate for OCSL, OCSI, OSI II or any other investment fund or account managed or sub-advised by Oaktree or its affiliates, Oaktree will adhere to its investment allocation guidelines in order to determine a fair and equitable allocation.

Each of the Companies may invest alongside funds and accounts managed or sub-advised by Oaktree and its affiliates in certain circumstances where doing so is consistent with applicable law and SEC staff interpretations. For example, each of the Companies may invest alongside such accounts consistent with guidance promulgated by the staff of the SEC permitting each such Company and such other accounts to purchase interests in a single class of privately placed securities so long as certain conditions are met, including that Oaktree, acting on behalf of the applicable Company and on behalf of other clients, negotiates no term other than price or terms related to price.

In addition, on October 18, 2017, affiliates of Oaktree received exemptive relief from the SEC to allow certain managed funds and accounts, each of whose investment adviser is OCM or an investment adviser controlling, controlled by or under common control with OCM, such as Oaktree, to participate in negotiated co-investment transactions where doing so is consistent with the applicable registered fund's or Business Development Company's investment objective and strategies as well as regulatory requirements and other pertinent factors, and pursuant to the conditions of the exemptive relief. Each potential co-investment opportunity that falls under the terms of the exemptive relief and is appropriate for either or both Companies and any affiliated fund or account, and satisfies the then-current board-established criteria, will be offered to such Company and such other eligible funds and accounts and reviewed by the applicable Company's Co-Investment Committee. If there is a sufficient amount of securities to satisfy all participants, the securities will be allocated among the participants in accordance with their proposed order size and if there is an insufficient amount of securities to satisfy all participants, the securities will be allocated pro rata based on the investment proposed by the applicable investment adviser to such participant, up to the amount proposed to be invested by each, which is reviewed and approved by an independent committee of legal, compliance and accounting professionals at Oaktree. On December 15, 2020, the Companies, with Oaktree and certain other affiliates, received a modified exemptive order that allows proprietary accounts to participate in co-investment transactions subject to certain conditions. Each Company may also invest alongside funds managed by Oaktree and its affiliates in certain circumstances where doing so is consistent with applicable law and SEC staff interpretations. For example, the Companies may invest alongside such accounts consistent with guidance promulgated by the staff of the SEC permitting each Company and such other accounts to purchase interests in a single class of privately placed securities so long as certain conditions are met, including that Oaktree, acting on behalf of such Company and on behalf of other clients, negotiates no term other than price.

Although Oaktree will endeavor to allocate investment opportunities in a fair and equitable manner, a Company and its common stockholders could be adversely affected to the extent investment opportunities are allocated among such Company and other investment vehicles managed or sponsored by, or affiliated with, its executive officers, directors and members of Oaktree. Each Company might not participate in each individual opportunity, but will, on an overall basis, be entitled to participate equitably with other entities managed by Oaktree and its affiliates. Oaktree is committed to treating all clients fairly and equitably such that none receive preferential treatment vis-à-vis the others over time, in a manner consistent with its fiduciary duty to each of them; however, in some instances, especially in instances of limited liquidity, the factors may not result in pro rata allocations or may result in situations where certain funds or accounts receive allocations where others do not.

Pursuant to each of the OCSL Investment Advisory Agreement and the OCSI Investment Advisory Agreement, Oaktree's liability is limited and the applicable Company is required to indemnify Oaktree against certain liabilities. This may lead Oaktree to act in a riskier manner in performing its duties and obligations under the applicable Investment Advisory Agreement than it would if it were acting for its own account, and creates a potential conflict of interest.

Pursuant to the OCSL Administration Agreement and the OCSI Administration Agreement, Oaktree Administrator furnishes the applicable Company with the facilities, including its principal executive office, and administrative services necessary to conduct its day-to-day operations. Each Company pays the Oaktree Administrator its allocable portion of overhead and other expenses incurred by the Oaktree Administrator in performing its obligations under the OCSL Administration Agreement or the OCSI Administration Agreement, as applicable, including, without limitation, a portion of the rent at market rates and compensation of such Company's chief financial officer, chief compliance officer, their respective staffs and other non-investment professionals at Oaktree that perform duties for such Company.

* Percentage of class held refers only to equity held, if any. Calculated on a fully diluted basis.

(1) All debt investments are income producing unless otherwise noted. All equity investments are non-income producing unless otherwise noted.

(2) See Note 3 in the notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements in OCSL's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for portfolio composition by geographic region.

(3) Equity ownership may be held in shares or units of companies related to the portfolio companies.

(4) Interest rates may be adjusted from period to period on certain term loans and revolvers. These rate adjustments may be either temporary in nature due to tier pricing arrangements or financial or payment covenant violations in the original credit agreements or permanent in nature per loan amendment or waiver documents.

Table of Contents

- (5) Each of OCSL's investments is pledged as collateral under its Credit Facility (as defined in Note 6 to the notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements in OCSL's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020).
- (6) The interest rate on the principal balance outstanding for all floating rate loans is indexed to the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") and/or an alternate base rate (e.g., prime rate), which typically resets semi-annually, quarterly, or monthly at the borrower's option. The borrower may also elect to have multiple interest reset periods for each loan. For each of these loans, OCSL has provided the applicable margin over LIBOR or the alternate base rate based on each respective credit agreement and the cash interest rate as of period end. All LIBOR shown above is in U.S. dollars unless otherwise noted. As of September 30, 2020, the reference rates for OCSL's variable rate loans were the 30-day LIBOR at 0.15%, the 60-day LIBOR at 0.19%, the 90-day LIBOR at 0.22%, the 180-day LIBOR at 0.27%, the 360-day LIBOR at 0.37%, the PRIME at 3.25%, the 30-day UK LIBOR at 0.05%, the 180-day UK LIBOR at 0.22%, the 30-day EURIBOR at (0.57)% and the 180-day EURIBOR at (0.36)%. Most loans include an interest floor, which generally ranges from 0% to 1%.
- (7) Principal includes accumulated payment in kind ("PIK") interest and is net of repayments, if any. "£" signifies the investment is denominated in British Pounds. "€" signifies the investment is denominated in Euros. All other investments are denominated in U.S. dollars.
- (8) Control Investments generally are defined by the Investment Company Act as investments in companies in which OCSL owns more than 25% of the voting securities or maintains greater than 50% of the board representation.
- (9) As defined in the Investment Company Act, OCSL is deemed to be both an "Affiliated Person" of and to "Control" these portfolio companies as OCSL owns more than 25% of the portfolio company's outstanding voting securities or has the power to exercise control over management or policies of such portfolio company (including through a management agreement). See Schedule 12-14 in the notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements in OCSL's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for transactions during the year ended September 30, 2020 in which the issuer was both an Affiliated Person and a portfolio company that OCSL is deemed to control.
- (10) First Star Speir Aviation 1 Limited is a wholly-owned holding company formed by OCSL in order to facilitate its investment strategy. In accordance with Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2013-08, OCSL has deemed the holding company to be an investment company under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP") and therefore deemed it appropriate to consolidate the financial results and financial position of the holding company and to recognize dividend income versus a combination of interest income and dividend income. Accordingly, the debt and equity investments in the wholly-owned holding company are disregarded for accounting purposes since the economic substance of these instruments are equity investments in the operating entities.
- (11) Investment is not a "qualifying asset" as defined under Section 55(a) of the Investment Company Act. Under the Investment Company Act, OCSL may not acquire any non-qualifying asset unless, at the time the acquisition is made, qualifying assets represent at least 70% of OCSL's total assets. As of September 30, 2020, qualifying assets represented 75.4% of OCSL's total assets and non-qualifying assets represented 24.6% of OCSL's total assets.
- (12) Income producing through payment of dividends or distributions.
- (13) PIK interest income for this investment accrues at an annualized rate of 15%, however, the PIK interest is not contractually capitalized on the investment. As a result, the principal amount of the investment does not increase over time for accumulated PIK interest. As of September 30, 2020, the accumulated PIK interest balance for each of the A notes and the B notes was $4.3 million. The fair value of this investment is inclusive of PIK.
- (14) See Note 3 in the notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements in OCSL's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for portfolio composition.
- (15) This investment was on PIK non-accrual status as of September 30, 2020. PIK non-accrual status is inclusive of other non-cash income, where applicable.
- (16) This investment was valued using net asset value as a practical expedient for fair value. Consistent with Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") guidance under ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures ("ASC 820"), these investments are excluded from the hierarchical levels.
- (17) Affiliate Investments generally are defined by the Investment Company Act as investments in companies in which OCSL owns between 5% and 25% of the voting securities.
- (18) Non-Control/Non-Affiliate Investments are investments that are neither Control Investments nor Affiliate Investments.
- (19) Investment has undrawn commitments. Unamortized fees are classified as unearned income which reduces cost basis, which may result in a negative cost basis. A negative fair value may result from the unfunded commitment being valued below par.
- (20) As of September 30, 2020, these investments were categorized as Level 3 within the fair value hierarchy established by ASC 820.
- (21) This investment was on cash non-accrual status as of September 30, 2020. Cash non-accrual status is inclusive of PIK and other non-cash income, where applicable.

- * Percentage of class held refers only to equity held, if any. Calculated on a fully diluted basis.
- (1) All debt investments are income producing unless otherwise noted. All equity investments are non-income producing unless otherwise noted.
- (2) See Note 3 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in OCSI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for portfolio composition by geographic region.
- (3) Interest rates may be adjusted from period to period on certain term loans and revolving. These rate adjustments may be either temporary in nature due to tier pricing arrangements or financial or payment covenant violations in the original credit agreements or permanent in nature per loan amendment or waiver documents.
- (4) Each of OCSI's investments is pledged as collateral under one or more of its credit facilities. A single investment may be divided into parts that are individually pledged as collateral to separate credit facilities.
- (5) Equity ownership may be held in shares or units of companies related to the portfolio companies.
- (6) The interest rate on the principal balance outstanding for all floating rate loans is indexed to LIBOR and/or an alternate base rate (e.g., prime rate), which typically resets semi-annually, quarterly, or monthly at the borrower's option. The borrower may also elect to have multiple interest reset periods for each loan. For each of these loans, OCSI has provided the applicable margin over LIBOR or the alternate base rate based on each respective credit agreement and the cash interest rate as of period end. All LIBOR shown above is in U.S. dollars unless otherwise noted. As of September 30, 2020, the reference rates for OCSI's variable rate loans were the 30-day LIBOR at 0.15%, the 60-day LIBOR at 0.19%, the 90-day LIBOR at 0.22%, the 180-day LIBOR at 0.27%, the 360-day LIBOR at 0.37%, the PRIME at 3.25%, the 180-day UK LIBOR at 0.22% and the 180-day EURIBOR at (0.36)%. Most loans include an interest floor, which generally ranges from 0% to 1%.
- (7) Principal includes accumulated PIK interest and is net of repayments, if any. "£" signifies the investment is denominated in British Pounds. "€" signifies the investment is denominated in Euros. All other investments are denominated in U.S. dollars.
- (8) Control Investments generally are defined by the Investment Company Act as investments in companies in which OCSI owns more than 25% of the voting securities or maintains greater than 50% of the board representation.
- (9) Investment is not a "qualifying asset" as defined under Section 55(a) of the Investment Company Act. Under the Investment Company Act, OCSI may not acquire any non-qualifying asset unless, at the time the acquisition is made, qualifying assets represent at least 70% of OCSI's total assets. As of September 30, 2020, qualifying assets represented 83.1% of OCSI's total assets and non-qualifying assets represented 16.9% of OCSI's total assets.
- (10) As defined in the Investment Company Act, OCSI is deemed to be both an "Affiliated Person" of and to "Control" this portfolio company as OCSI owns more than 25% of the portfolio company's outstanding voting securities or has the power to exercise control over management or policies of such portfolio company (including through a management agreement). See Schedule 12-14 in the notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in OCSI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for transactions during the year ended September 30, 2020 in which the issuer was both an Affiliated Person and a portfolio company that OCSI is deemed to control.
- (11) See Note 3 to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in OCSI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 for portfolio composition.
- (12) This investment was valued using net asset value as a practical expedient for fair value. Consistent with FASB guidance under ASC 820, these investments are excluded from the hierarchical levels.
- (13) Non-Control/Non-Affiliate Investments are investments that are neither Control Investments nor Affiliate Investments. Affiliate Investments generally are defined by the Investment Company Act as investments in companies in which OCSI owns between 5% and 25% of the voting securities.
- (14) Investment has undrawn commitments. Unamortized fees are classified as unearned income which reduces cost basis, which may result in a negative cost basis. A negative fair value may result from the unfunded commitment being valued below par.
- (15) As of September 30, 2020, these investments are categorized as Level 3 within the fair value hierarchy established by ASC 820.

- (16) This investment was on cash non-accrual status as of September 30, 2020. Cash non-accrual is inclusive of PIK and other non-cash income, where applicable.

Capital Stock

OCSL's authorized capital stock consists of 250,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of which 140,960,651 shares were outstanding as of November 23, 2020.

OCSL Common Stock is listed on Nasdaq under the ticker symbol "OCSL." No stock has been authorized for issuance under any equity compensation plans. Under Delaware law, OCSL Stockholders generally will not be personally liable for OCSL's debts or obligations.

Set forth below is a chart describing the classes of OCSL securities outstanding as of November 23, 2020:

(1) Title of Class	(2) Amount Authorized	(3) Amount Held by OCSL or for OCSL's Account	(4) Amount Outstanding Exclusive of Amount Under Column 3
Equity Securities
Common Stock	250,000,000	—	140,960,651
Debt Securities
2025 Notes	$ 300,000,000	—	$ 300,000,000

Under the terms of OCSL's certificate of incorporation, all shares of OCSL Common Stock have equal rights as to earnings, assets, dividends and voting and, when they are issued, are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable. Distributions may be paid to the holders of OCSL Common Stock if, as and when declared by the OCSL Board out of funds legally available therefore. Shares of OCSL Common Stock have no preemptive, exchange, conversion or redemption rights and are freely transferable, except where their transfer is restricted by federal and state securities laws or by contract. In the event of OCSL's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, each share of OCSL Common Stock would be entitled to share ratably in all of OCSL's assets that are legally available for distribution after OCSL pays all debts and other liabilities. Each share of OCSL Common Stock is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, including the election of directors. The holders of OCSL Common Stock possess exclusive voting power. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors, which means that holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of OCSL Common Stock are able to elect all of OCSL's directors, and holders of less than a majority of such shares are unable to elect any director.

Limitation on Liability of Directors and Officers; Indemnification and Advance of Expenses

Under OCSL's certificate of incorporation, OCSL will fully indemnify any person who was or is involved in any actual or threatened action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative) by reason of the fact that such person is or was one of OCSL's directors or officers or is or was serving at OCSL's request as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. OCSL's certificate of incorporation also provides that OCSL's directors will not be personally liable for monetary damages to OCSL for breaches of their fiduciary duty as directors, except for a breach of their duty of loyalty to OCSL or OCSL's stockholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. So long as OCSL is regulated under the Investment Company Act, the above indemnification and limitation of liability will be limited by the Investment Company Act or by any valid rule, regulation or order of the SEC thereunder. The Investment Company Act provides, among other things, that a company may not indemnify any director or officer against liability to it or its stockholders to which he or she might otherwise be subject by reason of his or her willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his or her office unless a determination is made by final decision of a court, by vote of a majority of a quorum of directors who are disinterested, non-party directors or by independent legal counsel that the liability for which indemnification is sought did not arise out of the foregoing conduct.

Delaware law also provides that indemnification permitted under the law shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the directors and officers may be entitled under the corporation's bylaws, any agreement, a vote of stockholders or otherwise.

OCSL's certificate of incorporation permits OCSL to secure insurance on behalf of any person who is or was or has agreed to become a director or officer or is or was serving at OCSL's request as a director or officer of another enterprise for any liability arising out of his or her actions, regardless of whether the DGCL would permit indemnification. OCSL has obtained liability insurance for OCSL's officers and directors.

Delaware Law and Certain Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaw Provisions; Anti-Takeover Measures

OCSL is subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL. In general, the statute prohibits a publicly held Delaware corporation from engaging in a "business combination" with "interested stockholders" for a period of three years after the date of the transaction in which the person became an interested stockholder, unless the business combination is approved in a prescribed manner. A "business combination" includes certain mergers, asset sales and other transactions resulting in a financial benefit to the interested stockholder. Subject to exceptions, an "interested stockholder" is a person who, together with his, her or its affiliates and associates, owns, or within three years did own, 15% or more of the corporation's voting stock.

OCSL's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that:

- the OCSL Board be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in size as possible, with staggered three-year terms;
- directors may be removed only for cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of OCSL capital stock entitled to vote; and
- any vacancy on the OCSL Board, however the vacancy occurs, including a vacancy due to an enlargement of the OCSL Board, may only be filled by vote of the directors then in office.

The classification of the OCSL Board and the limitations on removal of directors and filling of vacancies could have the effect of making it more difficult for a third party to acquire OCSL, or of discouraging a third party from acquiring OCSL.

OCSL's certificate of incorporation and bylaws also provide that:

- any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders at an annual meeting or special meeting of stockholders may only be taken if it is properly brought before such meeting and may not be taken by written action in lieu of a meeting; and
- special meetings of the stockholders may only be called by the OCSL Board, chairman or chief executive officer.

OCSL's bylaws provide that, in order for any matter to be considered "properly brought" before a meeting, a stockholder must comply with requirements regarding advance notice to OCSL. These provisions could delay until the next stockholders' meeting stockholder actions which are favored by the holders of a majority of OCSL's outstanding voting securities. These provisions may also discourage another person or entity from making a tender offer for OCSL Common Stock, because such person or entity, even if it acquired a majority of OCSL's outstanding voting securities, would be able to take action as a stockholder (such as electing new directors or approving a merger) only at a duly called stockholders meeting, and not by written consent.

The DGCL provides generally that the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on any matter is required to amend a corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, unless a corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws requires a greater percentage. Under OCSL's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, any amendment or repeal of the bylaws by the stockholders shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the shares of OCSL's capital stock then outstanding and entitled to vote in the election of directors. The vote of at least 66 2/3% of the shares of OCSL's capital stock then outstanding and entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting together as a single class, will be required to amend or repeal any provision of OCSL's certificate of incorporation pertaining to the OCSL Board, limitation of liability, indemnification, stockholder action or amendments to OCSL's certificate of incorporation. In addition, OCSL's certificate of incorporation permits the OCSL Board to amend or repeal OCSL's bylaws by a majority vote.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK OF OCSI

The following description summarizes material provisions of the DGCL and OCSI's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. This summary is not necessarily complete, and OCSI refers you to the DGCL and OCSI's certificate of incorporation and bylaws for a more detailed description of the provisions summarized below.

Capital Stock

OCSI's authorized capital stock consists of 150,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of which 29,466,768 shares were outstanding as of November 23, 2020.

OCSI Common Stock is listed on Nasdaq under the ticker symbol "OCSI." No stock has been authorized for issuance under any equity compensation plans. Under Delaware law, OCSI Stockholders generally will not be personally liable for OCSI's debts or obligations.

Set forth below is a chart describing the classes of OCSI securities outstanding as of November 23, 2020:

(1) Title of Class	(2) Amount Authorized	(3) Amount Held by OCSI or for OCSI's Account	(4) Amount Outstanding Exclusive of Amount Under Column 3
Equity Securities
Common Stock	150,000,000	—	29,466,768

Under the terms of OCSI's certificate of incorporation, all shares of OCSI Common Stock have equal rights as to earnings, assets, dividends and voting and, when they are issued, are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable. Distributions may be paid to the holders of OCSI Common Stock if, as and when declared by the OCSI Board out of funds legally available therefore. Shares of OCSI Common Stock have no preemptive, exchange, conversion or redemption rights and are freely transferable, except where their transfer is restricted by federal and state securities laws or by contract. In the event of OCSI's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, each share of OCSI Common Stock would be entitled to share ratably in all of OCSI's assets that are legally available for distribution after OCSI pays all debts and other liabilities. Each share of OCSI Common Stock is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, including the election of directors. The holders of OCSI Common Stock possess exclusive voting power. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors, which means that holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of OCSI Common Stock are able to elect all of OCSI's directors, and holders of less than a majority of such shares are unable to elect any director.

Limitation on Liability of Directors and Officers; Indemnification and Advance of Expenses

Under OCSI's certificate of incorporation, OCSI will fully indemnify any person who was or is involved in any actual or threatened action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative) by reason of the fact that such person is or was one of OCSI's directors or officers or is or was serving at OCSI's request as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. OCSI's certificate of incorporation also provides that OCSI's directors will not be personally liable for monetary damages to OCSI for breaches of their fiduciary duty as directors, except for a breach of their duty of loyalty to OCSI or OCSI's stockholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. So long as OCSI is regulated under the Investment Company Act, the above indemnification and limitation of liability will be limited by the Investment Company Act or by any valid rule, regulation or order of the SEC thereunder. The Investment Company Act provides, among other things, that a company may not indemnify any director or officer against liability to it or its stockholders to which he or she might otherwise be subject by reason of his or her willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his or her office unless a determination is made by final decision of a court, by vote of a majority of a quorum of directors who are disinterested, non-party directors or by independent legal counsel that the liability for which indemnification is sought did not arise out of the foregoing conduct.

Delaware law also provides that indemnification permitted under the law shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the directors and officers may be entitled under the corporation's bylaws, any agreement, a vote of stockholders or otherwise.

OCSI's certificate of incorporation permits OCSI to secure insurance on behalf of any person who is or was or has agreed to become a director or officer or is or was serving at OCSI's request as a director or officer of another enterprise for any liability arising out of his or her actions, regardless of whether the DGCL would permit indemnification. OCSI has obtained liability insurance for OCSI's officers and directors.

Subject to exceptions, an "interested stockholder" is a person who, together with his, her or its affiliates and associates, owns, or within three years did own, 15% or more of the corporation's voting stock.

The classification of the OCSI Board and the limitations on removal of directors and filling of vacancies could have the effect of making it more difficult for a third party to acquire OCSI, or of discouraging a third party from acquiring OCSI.

OCSI's certificate of incorporation and bylaws also provide that:

- any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders at an annual meeting or special meeting of stockholders may only be taken if it is properly brought before such meeting and may not be taken by written action in lieu of a meeting; and

In addition, OCSI's certificate of incorporation permits the OCSI Board to amend or repeal OCSI's bylaws by a majority vote.

DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN OF OCSL

OCSL has adopted a dividend reinvestment plan that provides for reinvestment of OCSL's distributions on behalf of OCSL Stockholders, unless a stockholder elects to receive cash as provided below. As a result, if the OCSL Board declares a cash distribution, then OCSL Stockholders who have not "opted out" of OCSL's dividend reinvestment plan will have their cash distributions automatically reinvested in additional shares of OCSL Common Stock, rather than receiving the cash distributions.

No action will be required on the part of a registered stockholder to have their cash distributions reinvested in shares of OCSL Common Stock. A registered stockholder may elect to receive an entire distribution in cash by notifying American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, the plan administrator and OCSL's transfer agent and registrar, in writing so that such notice is received by the plan administrator no later than three days prior to the distribution payment date for distributions to stockholders. The plan administrator will set up an account for shares acquired through the plan for each stockholder who has not elected to receive distributions in cash and hold such shares in non-certificated form. Upon request by a stockholder participating in the plan, received in writing not less than three days prior to the distribution payment date, the plan administrator will, instead of crediting shares to the participant's account, issue a certificate registered in the participant's name for the number of whole shares of OCSL Common Stock and a check for any fractional share. Those stockholders whose shares are held by a broker or other financial intermediary may receive distributions in cash by notifying their broker or other financial intermediary of their election. If the stockholder request is received less than three days prior to the distribution payment date then that distribution will be reinvested. However, all subsequent distributions will be paid out in cash on all balances.

OCSL intends to use newly issued shares to implement the plan when shares of OCSL Common Stock are trading at or above NAV. Under such circumstances, the number of shares to be issued to a stockholder is determined by dividing the total dollar amount of the distribution payable to such stockholder by the greater of (a) the NAV per share of OCSL Common Stock, and (b) 95% of the market price per share of OCSL Common Stock at the close of trading on the payment date fixed by the OCSL Board for such distribution. Market price per share on that date will be the closing price for such shares on Nasdaq or, if no sale is reported for such day, at the average of their reported bid and asked prices. OCSL reserves the right to purchase shares in the open market in connection with OCSL's implementation of the plan if either (1) the price at which newly-issued shares are to be credited does not exceed 110% of the last determined NAV of the shares; or (2) OCSL has advised the plan administrator that since such NAV was last determined, OCSL has become aware of events that indicate the possibility of a material change in the per share NAV as a result of which the NAV of the shares on the payment date might be higher than the price at which the plan administrator would credit newly-issued shares to stockholders. Shares purchased in open market transactions by the plan administrator will be allocated to a stockholder based on the average purchase price, excluding any brokerage charges or other charges, of all shares of OCSL Common Stock purchased in the open market.

There will be no brokerage charges or other charges for distribution reinvestment to stockholders who participate in the plan. OCSL will pay the plan administrator's fees under the plan. If a participant elects by written notice to the plan administrator to have the plan administrator sell part or all of the shares held by the plan administrator in the participant's account and remit the proceeds to the participant, the plan administrator is authorized to deduct a $15.00 transaction fee plus a $0.10 per share brokerage commission from the proceeds.

Stockholders who receive distributions in the form of stock generally are subject to the same federal, state and local tax consequences as are stockholders who elect to receive their distributions in cash; however, since their cash distributions will be reinvested, such stockholders will not receive cash with which to pay any applicable taxes on reinvested distributions. A stockholder's basis for determining gain or loss upon the sale of stock received in a distribution from OCSL will be equal to the total dollar amount of the distribution payable to the stockholder. Any stock received in a distribution will have a holding period for tax purposes commencing on the day following the day on which the shares are credited to the stockholder's account.

Participants may terminate their accounts under the plan by notifying the plan administrator via its website at www.amstock.com, by filling out the transaction request form located at the bottom of their statement and sending it to the plan administrator at P.O. Box 922, Wall Street Station, New York, New York, 10269-0560, or by calling the plan administrator at 1-866-665-2281.

OCSL may terminate the plan upon notice in writing mailed to each participant at least 30 days prior to any record date for the payment of any distribution by OCSL. All correspondence concerning the plan should be directed to the plan administrator by mail at P.O. Box 922, Wall Street Station, New York, New York 10269-0560, or by telephone at 1-866-665-2281.

BROKERAGE ALLOCATION AND OTHER PRACTICES

Since OCSL and OCSI generally acquire and dispose of their respective investments in privately negotiated transactions, OCSL and OCSI infrequently use brokers in the normal course of business. Subject to policies established by each of the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board, Oaktree is primarily responsible for the execution of the publicly traded securities portion of OCSL's and OCSI's portfolio transactions and the allocation of brokerage commissions. Oaktree does not execute transactions through any particular broker or dealer, but seeks to obtain the best net results for OCSL and OCSI, taking into account such factors as price (including the applicable brokerage commission or dealer spread), size of order, difficulty of execution, and operational facilities of the firm and the firm's risk and skill in positioning blocks of securities. While Oaktree will generally seek reasonably competitive trade execution costs, OCSL and OCSI will not necessarily pay the lowest spread or commission available. Subject to applicable legal requirements, Oaktree may select a broker based partly upon brokerage or research services provided to Oaktree, OCSL, OCSI and any other clients. In return for such services, OCSL and OCSI may pay a higher commission than other brokers would charge if Oaktree determines in good faith that such commission is reasonable in relation to the services provided.

Neither OCSL nor OCSI have paid any brokerage commissions during the three most recent fiscal years.

ARTICLE I THE MERGER

1.1. The Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law (the “DGCL”), at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall merge with and into OCSI, and the separate corporate existence of the Merger Sub shall cease. OCSI shall be the surviving company in the Merger and shall continue its existence as a corporation under the Laws of the State of Delaware.

1.2. Closing. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, the closing of the Merger (the “Closing”) shall take place at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Time, at the offices of Proskauer Rose LLP, 1001 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Suite 600 South, Washington, DC 20004, on the date that is three (3) Business Days after the satisfaction or waiver of the latest to occur of the conditions set forth in Article VIII (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions), unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties to this Agreement (the “Closing Date”).

1.3. Effective Time. The Merger shall become effective as set forth in the certificate of merger (the “First Certificate of Merger”) that shall be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the “DE SOS”) on the Closing Date. The term “Effective Time” shall be the date and time when the Merger becomes effective as set forth in the First Certificate of Merger.

1.4. Effects of the Merger. At and after the Effective Time, the Merger shall have the effects set forth in the DGCL.

1.5. Conversion of Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of OCSI, OCSL or Merger Sub or the holder of any of the following securities:

(a) Each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Company.

(b) All shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of OCSI (the “OCSI Common Stock”) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that are owned by OCSL or any of its Consolidated Subsidiaries (including Merger Sub) shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist and no shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of OCSL (the “OCSL Common Stock”) or any other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor (such shares, the “Cancelled Shares”).

shall cease to exist as of the Effective Time, and each such share of OCSI Common Stock, all of which are in non-certificated book-entry form, shall thereafter represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration, cash in lieu of fractional shares into which such shares of OCSI Common Stock have been converted pursuant to Section 2.2 and any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 2.4(b).

(e) The Exchange Ratio shall be appropriately adjusted (to the extent not already taken into account in determining the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value and/or the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value, as applicable) if, between the Determination Date and the Effective Time, the respective outstanding shares of OCSL Common Stock or OCSI Common Stock shall have been increased or decreased or changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities, in each case, as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up, combination or exchange of shares, or if a stock dividend or dividend payable in any other securities shall be authorized and declared with a record date within such period. Nothing in this Section 1.5(e) shall be construed to permit any party hereto to take any action that is otherwise prohibited or restricted by any other provision of this Agreement.

1.6. Effect on OCSL Common Stock. Each share of OCSL Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain outstanding.

1.7. Termination of Certain Contractual Obligations. Immediately after the Effective Time and immediately prior to the Second Merger, the OCSI Advisory Agreement and the OCSI Administration Agreement shall be automatically terminated and of no further force and effect (the "Terminations").

1.8. The Second Merger.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with the DGCL, at the Second Effective Time, the Surviving Company shall merge with and into OCSL and the separate corporate existence of the Surviving Company shall cease. OCSL shall be the surviving company in the Second Merger and shall continue its existence as a corporation under the Laws of the State of Delaware. The Second Merger shall become effective as set forth in the certificate of merger (the "Second Certificate of Merger") that OCSL shall file with the DE SOS on the Closing Date (the "Second Effective Time"), it being understood that OCSL and the Surviving Company shall cause the Second Effective Time to occur immediately following the Terminations. At and after the Second Effective Time, the Second Merger shall have the effects set forth in the DGCL.

(b) At the Second Effective Time, by virtue of the Second Merger and without any action on the part of OCSL or the Surviving Company or the holder of any of the following securities, (i) each share of common stock of the Surviving Company issued and outstanding as of immediately prior to the Second Effective Time shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be exchanged therefor; and (ii) each share of OCSL Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Second Effective Time shall remain outstanding as a share of OCSL Common Stock.

1.9. Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.

(a) The Certificate of Incorporation of OCSI shall be amended and restated in the form of the Certificate of Incorporation of Merger Sub as of the Effective Time, and the Bylaws of Merger Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the Bylaws of the Surviving Company as of the Effective Time, until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable Law and the respective terms of such Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, as applicable.

(b) At the Second Effective Time, the Certificate of Incorporation of OCSL as in effect immediately prior to the Second Effective Time shall be the Certificate of Incorporation of OCSL, as the surviving company of the Second Merger, as of the Second Effective Time, until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable Law and the terms of such Certificate of Incorporation. Subject to applicable Law, the directors and officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors and officers of the Surviving Company and shall hold office until their respective successors are duly elected and qualify, or their earlier death, resignation or removal. Subject to applicable Law, the directors and officers of OCSL immediately prior to the Second Effective Time shall be the directors and officers of OCSL immediately after consummation of the Second Merger and shall hold office until their respective successors are duly elected and qualify, or their earlier death, resignation or removal.

ARTICLE II MERGER CONSIDERATION

2.1. Delivery of Evidence of OCSL Common Stock. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, OCSL shall deposit with its transfer agent evidence of book-entry shares representing OCSL Common Stock issuable as Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.5(c).

2.2. Fractional Shares. Each holder of OCSI Common Stock converted pursuant to the Merger that would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of OCSL Common Stock pursuant to Section 1.5(c) shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the product of (i) such fractional part of a share of OCSL Common Stock multiplied by (ii) the volume-weighted average trading price of a share of OCSL Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market ("Nasdaq") for the five (5) consecutive Trading Days ending on the third (3rd) Trading Day preceding the Closing Date (as reported by Bloomberg L.P. or its successor or, if not reported thereon, another authoritative source selected by OCSL that is reasonably acceptable to OCSI). For purposes of this Section 2.2, all fractional shares to which a single record holder would be entitled shall be aggregated and calculations shall be rounded to three decimal places.

2.3. Paying and Exchange Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, OCSL shall appoint OCSL's transfer agent or other bank or trust company to act as exchange agent (the "Paying and Exchange Agent") hereunder, pursuant to an agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to each of OCSL and OCSI. Following the Effective Time, OCSL shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Paying and Exchange Agent cash sufficient to pay the aggregate cash for fractional shares in accordance with Section 2.2. Any cash deposited with the Paying and Exchange Agent shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Exchange Fund."

2.4. Delivery of Merger Consideration.

(a) Each holder of record of shares of OCSI Common Stock (other than the Cancelled Shares) in book-entry form that were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.5(c) and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of OCSL Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor and any dividends and other distributions pursuant to Section 2.4(b), shall, promptly after the Effective Time, be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of OCSL Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.4(b).

(b) Subject to the effect of applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws, following the Effective Time, the record holder of shares (other than Cancelled Shares) of OCSI Common Stock at the Effective Time shall be entitled to receive, without interest, the amount of dividends or other distributions which theretofore had become payable with respect to the whole shares of OCSL Common Stock which the shares of OCSI Common Stock have been converted into the right to receive.

2.5. No Further Ownership Rights. All Merger Consideration paid by OCSL in accordance with the terms of Article I and Article II shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to OCSI Common Stock in respect of which such Merger Consideration was paid. From and after the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of OCSI shall be closed, and there shall be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of OCSI of the shares of OCSI Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

2.6. Net Asset Value Calculation.

(a) OCSL shall deliver to OCSI a calculation of the net asset value of OCSL as of a date mutually agreed between OCSL and OCSI, such date to be no earlier than 48 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) prior to the Effective Time (such agreed date, the “Determination Date”), calculated in good faith as of such date and based on the same assumptions and methodologies, and applying the same categories of adjustments to net asset value (except as may be mutually agreed by the parties), historically used by OCSL in preparing the calculation of the net asset value per share of OCSL Common Stock (with an accrual for any dividend declared by OCSL and not yet paid) (the “Closing OCSL Net Asset Value”); provided that OCSL shall update the calculation of the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value in the event that there is a material change to the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value prior to the Closing (including any dividend declared after the Determination Date but prior to Closing) and as needed to ensure the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value is determined within 48 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) prior to the Effective Time; provided further that the OCSL Board, including the OCSL Special Committee, shall be required to approve, and OFA shall certify in writing to OCSI, the calculation of the Closing OCSL Net Asset Value.

(b) OCSI shall deliver to OCSL a calculation of the net asset value of OCSI as of the Determination Date, calculated in good faith as of such date and based on the same assumptions and methodologies, and applying the same categories of adjustments to net asset value (except as may be mutually agreed by the parties), historically used by OCSI in preparing the calculation of the net asset value per share of OCSI Common Stock (with an accrual for any dividend declared by OCSI and not yet paid) (the “Closing OCSI Net Asset Value”); provided that OCSI shall update the calculation of the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value in the event there is a material change to the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value prior to the Closing (including any dividend declared after the Determination Date but prior to Closing) and as needed to ensure the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value is determined within 48 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) prior to the Effective Time; provided further that the OCSI Board, including the OCSI Special Committee, shall be required to approve, and OFA shall certify in writing to OCSL, the calculation of the Closing OCSI Net Asset Value.

(c) In connection with preparing the calculations provided pursuant to this Section 2.6, each of OCSI and OCSL will use the portfolio valuation methods approved by the OCSI Board or the OCSL Board, as applicable, for valuing the securities and other assets of OCSI or OCSL, as applicable, as of September 30, 2020, unless otherwise agreed by each of the OCSL Board and the OCSI Board.

(d) OFA agrees to give each of OCSL and OCSI and its respective Representatives, upon reasonable request, reasonable access to the individuals who have prepared each calculation provided pursuant to this Section 2.6 and to the information, books, records, work papers and back-up materials used or useful in preparing each such calculation, including any reports prepared by valuation agents, in order to assist such party with its review of such calculation so long as such individual remains employed by OFA or its Affiliates.

2.7. Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to stockholders of OCSI as of the first anniversary of the Effective Time may be paid to OCSL, upon OCSL’s written demand to the Paying and Exchange Agent. In such event, any former stockholders of OCSI who have not theretofore complied with any applicable requirements to receive cash in lieu of fractional shares of OCSL Common Stock shall thereafter look only to OCSL with respect to such cash in lieu of fractional shares, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of OCSL, OCSI, the Surviving Company, Merger Sub, the Paying and Exchange Agent or any other Person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of OCSI

Common Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws.

2.8. Withholding Rights. OCSL or the Paying and Exchange Agent, as applicable, shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of OCSI Common Stock such amounts as it determines in good faith are required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or under any provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and paid over to the appropriate Governmental Entity, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the recipient.

Within the past five years (or otherwise as part of a “plan (or series of related transactions)” within the meaning of Section 355(e) of the Code of which the Merger is also a part), neither OCSL nor any of its Consolidated Subsidiaries has been a “distributing corporation” or a “controlled corporation” in a distribution of stock which qualified or was intended to qualify under Section 355(a) of the Code and to which Section 355 of the Code (or so much of Section 356 of the Code, as it relates to Section 355 of the Code) applied or was intended to apply. Neither OCSL nor any of its Consolidated Subsidiaries is required to include in income any adjustment pursuant to Section 481(a) of the Code, no such adjustment has been proposed by the IRS and no pending request for permission to change any accounting method has been submitted by OCSL or any of its Consolidated Subsidiaries. Neither OCSL nor any of its Consolidated Subsidiaries has participated in a “listed transaction” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.6011-4(b)(2). For each taxable year of OCSL ending on or before the Effective Time, OCSL has satisfied the distribution requirements imposed on a regulated investment company under Section 852 of the Code.

and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, including to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all Permits of all Governmental Entities and all permits, consents, approvals, confirmations and authorizations of all third parties, in each case, that are necessary or advisable, to consummate the Transactions (including the Mergers) in the most expeditious manner practicable, and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and Governmental Entities.

In furtherance (but not in limitation) of the foregoing, each of OCSL and OCSI shall as promptly as practicable file any required applications, notices or other filings under the HSR Act. Subject to applicable Law, OCSI and OCSL shall have the right to review in advance, and, to the extent practicable, each shall consult the other on all the information relating to OCSI or OCSL, as the case may be, and any of their respective Consolidated Subsidiaries, that appear in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third-party or any Governmental Entity in connection with the Transactions. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. The parties shall consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all Permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Permits of all Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the Transactions and each party will keep the other reasonably apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the Transactions. OCSL, on the one hand, and OCSI, on the other hand, shall each, in connection with the efforts referenced in this Section 7.1(a) to obtain all requisite Permits for the Transactions under the HSR Act, use its reasonable best efforts to (i) cooperate in all respects with each other in connection with any filing or submission and in connection with any investigation or other inquiry; (ii) keep the other party informed of any communication received by such party from, or given by such party to, the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”), the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (the “DOJ”), or any other Governmental Entity and (iii) subject to applicable Law, permit the other party to review, in advance, any written communication given by it to or received from, and consult with each other in advance of any meeting or conference with, the FTC, the DOJ, or any other Governmental Entity, and to the extent permitted by the FTC, the DOJ, or other applicable Governmental Entity, give the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences subject to applicable Law.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing in this Agreement shall require either OCSL and its Consolidated Subsidiaries or OCSI and its Consolidated Subsidiaries to make payments or provide other consideration for the repayment, restructuring or amendment of terms of indebtedness in connection with the Transactions (including the Mergers), other than any consent fees set forth in Section 3.3(b) of the OCSI Disclosure Schedule and Section 4.3(b) of the OCSL Disclosure Schedule.

7.2. Regulatory Matters.

(a) OCSL and OCSI shall as promptly as practicable jointly prepare and file with the SEC the Registration Statement. OCSL shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing and to keep the Registration Statement effective as long as necessary to consummate the Mergers. OCSI and OCSL shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be promptly mailed to their respective stockholders upon such effectiveness. OCSI shall use reasonable best efforts to furnish all information concerning OCSI and the holders of OCSI Common Stock as may be reasonably requested by OCSL in connection with any such action.

(b) Each of OCSL and OCSI shall cooperate with the other in the preparation of the Registration Statement and shall furnish to the other all information reasonably requested as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Registration Statement. Prior to the Effective Time, each party hereto shall promptly notify the other party (i) upon becoming aware of any event or circumstance that is required to be described in an amendment to the Registration Statement or in a supplement to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and (ii) after the receipt by it of any comments of the SEC with respect to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Registration Statement.

(c) Subject to applicable Law, each of OCSL and OCSI shall promptly advise the other upon receiving any communication from any Governmental Entity, the consent or approval of which is required for consummation of the Transactions, that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Regulatory Approval will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval may be materially delayed or conditioned.

7.3. Stockholder Approval.

(a) As of the date of this Agreement, the OCSI Board has adopted resolutions approving the OCSI Matters, including the Merger, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, declaring the Merger advisable, and directing that the OCSI Matters, including the Merger, be submitted to OCSI's stockholders for their consideration, with the recommendation that the OCSI stockholders approve the same. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 7.7, unless the OCSI Board has withdrawn the OCSI Board Recommendation in compliance with Section 7.7, OCSI shall submit to its stockholders the OCSI Matters on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and any other matters required to be approved or adopted by its stockholders in order to carry out the Transactions. In furtherance of that obligation, OCSI shall take, in accordance with applicable Law and the OCSI Certificate and the OCSI Bylaws, all actions necessary to send a notice as promptly as practicable (but in no event later than 5 Business Days) following the date on which the SEC declares the Registration Statement effective of which the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus forms a part, to convene the OCSI Stockholders Meeting, as promptly as practicable thereafter, to consider and vote upon approval of the OCSI Matters including the Merger, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement as well as any other such matters. The record date for the OCSI Stockholders Meeting shall be determined in prior consultation with OCSL. Unless the OCSI Board has withdrawn the OCSI Board Recommendation in compliance with Section 7.7, OCSI shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain from OCSI's stockholders the vote required to approve the OCSI Matters, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, including, subject to Section 7.7, by providing to OCSI's stockholders the OCSI Board's recommendation of the OCSI Matters and including such recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and by, at the request of OCSL, postponing or adjourning the OCSI Stockholders Meeting to obtain a quorum or solicit additional proxies; provided that OCSI shall not postpone or adjourn the OCSI Stockholders Meeting for any other reason without the prior written consent of OCSL (which prior written consent shall not be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, OCSI's obligations pursuant to this Section 7.3\(a\) (including its obligation to submit to its stockholders the OCSI Matters and any other matters required to be approved or adopted by its stockholders in order to carry out the Transactions) shall not be affected by (i) the commencement, public proposal, public disclosure or communication to OCSI, its Representatives or its stockholders of any Takeover Proposal (including any OCSI Superior Proposal), (ii) OCSI effecting a Takeover Approval or delivering a Notice of an OCSI Superior Proposal or (iii) an OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change.

(b) As of the date of this Agreement, the OCSL Board has adopted resolutions approving the OCSL Matters on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, and directing that the OCSL Matters be submitted to OCSL's stockholders for their consideration, with the recommendation that the OCSL stockholders approve the same. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 7.8, unless the OCSL Board has withdrawn the OCSL Board Recommendation in compliance with Section 7.8, OCSL shall submit to its stockholders the OCSL Matters on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and any other matters required to be approved or adopted by its stockholders in order to carry out the Transactions. In furtherance of that obligation, OCSL shall take, in accordance with applicable Law and the OCSL Certificate and the OCSL Bylaws, all actions necessary to send a notice as promptly as practicable (but in no event later than 5 Business Days) following the date on which the SEC declares the Registration Statement effective of which the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus forms a part, to convene the OCSL Stockholders Meeting, as promptly as practicable thereafter, to consider and vote upon approval of the OCSL Matters including the issuance of shares of OCSL Common Stock as Merger Consideration, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement as well as any other such matters. The record date for the OCSL Stockholders Meeting shall be determined in prior consultation OCSI. Unless the OCSL Board has withdrawn the OCSL Board Recommendation in compliance with Section 7.8, OCSL shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain from OCSL's stockholders the OCSL Requisite

Vote to approve the OCSL Matters, on terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, including, subject to Section 7.8, providing to OCSL's stockholders the OCSL Board's recommendation of the approval of the OCSL Matters and including such recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and by, at the request of OCSI, postponing or adjourning the OCSL Stockholders Meeting to obtain a quorum or solicit additional proxies; provided that OCSL shall not postpone or adjourn the OCSL Stockholders Meeting for any other reason without the prior written consent of OCSI (which prior written consent shall not be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, OCSL's obligations pursuant to this Section 7.3(b) (including its obligation to submit to its stockholders the OCSL Matters and any other matters required to be approved or adopted by its stockholders in order to carry out the Transactions) shall not be affected by (i) the commencement, public proposal, public disclosure or communication to OCSL, its Representatives or its stockholders of any Takeover Proposal (including any OCSL Superior Proposal), (ii) OCSL effecting a Takeover Approval or delivering a Notice of an OCSL Superior Proposal or (iii) an OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change.

7.4. Nasdaq Listing. OCSL shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of OCSL Common Stock to be issued as Merger Consideration under this Agreement to be approved for listing on the Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance, at or prior to the Effective Time.

7.5. Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance.

(a) Following the Effective Time, OCSL shall, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law, defend and hold harmless and advance expenses to the present and former directors and officers of OCSI or any of its Consolidated Subsidiaries (in each case, when acting in such capacity) (each, an "Indemnified Party" and collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") against all costs or expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees actually incurred, reasonable experts' fees, reasonable travel expenses, court costs, transcript fees and telecommunications, postage and courier charges), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages, penalties, amounts paid in settlement or other liabilities (collectively, "Indemnified Liabilities") incurred in connection with any Proceeding arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including the Transactions). In the event of any such Indemnified Liabilities, (i) OCSL shall advance to such Indemnified Party, upon request, reimbursement of documented expenses reasonably and actually incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law provided that the Person to whom expenses are advanced, or someone on his or her behalf, provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such Person is not entitled to indemnification and complies with other applicable provisions imposed under the Investment Company Act and interpretations thereof by the SEC or its staff and (ii) OCSL and the applicable Indemnified Parties shall cooperate in the defense of such matter.

(b) Unless OCSL and OCSI shall otherwise agree, prior to the Effective Time, OCSI shall, and, if OCSI is unable to, OCSL shall, cause the Surviving Company or its successor, effective as of the Effective Time, to obtain and fully pay the premium for a "tail" insurance policy for the extension of the directors' and officers' liability coverage of OCSI's existing directors' and officers' insurance policies for a claims reporting or discovery period of six years from and after the Effective Time (the "Tail Period") with coverage and amounts not less than, and terms and conditions that are not materially less advantageous to the insureds as, OCSI's existing policies with respect to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (the "Current D&O Insurance"). If OCSI and the Surviving Company or its successor for any reason fail to obtain such "tail" insurance policy as of the Effective Time, the Surviving Company or its successor shall, and OCSL shall cause the Surviving Company or its successor to, continue to maintain in effect for the Tail Period the Current D&O Insurance in place as of the date of this Agreement with coverage and amounts not less than, and terms and conditions that are not materially less advantageous to the insureds as, provided in the Current D&O Insurance, or the Surviving Company or its successor shall, and OCSL shall cause the Surviving Company or its successor to, purchase comparable insurance for the Tail Period; provided, that in no event shall the annual cost of such insurance exceed during the Tail Period 300% of the current aggregate annual premium paid by OCSI for such purpose; provided, further, that if the cost of such insurance coverage exceeds such amount, the Surviving Company or its successor shall obtain a policy with the greatest coverage available for a cost not exceeding such amount.

(c) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 7.5(a), upon learning of any Proceeding described above, shall promptly notify OCSL in writing; provided, that the failure to so notify shall not affect the obligations of OCSL under Section 7.5(a) unless OCSL is materially prejudiced as a consequence.

(d) If OCSL or any of its successors or assigns consolidates with or merges into any other entity and is not the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or transfers all or substantially all of its assets to any other entity, then and in each such case, OCSL shall cause proper provision to be made so that the successors and assigns of OCSL shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.5.

(e) The provisions of this Section 7.5 are (i) intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives and (ii) in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such person may have by Contract or otherwise.

7.6. No Solicitation.

(a) Each of OCSI and OCSL shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates, Consolidated Subsidiaries, and its and each of their respective officers, directors, trustees, managers, employees, consultants, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants and other advisors, representatives and agents (collectively, "Representatives") to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any discussions or negotiations with any parties that may be ongoing with respect to, or that are intended to or could reasonably be expected to lead to, a Takeover Proposal, and demand the immediate return or destruction (which destruction shall be certified in writing to OCSI or OCSL, as applicable) of all confidential information previously furnished to any Person (other than OCSI, OCSL or their respective Affiliates or Representatives) with respect to any Takeover Proposal. Prior to the Effective Time, subject to Section 7.7 in the case of OCSI and Section 7.8 in the case of OCSL, each of OCSI and OCSL shall not, and shall cause its respective Affiliates, Consolidated Subsidiaries and its and their respective Representatives not to: (i) directly or indirectly solicit, initiate, induce, encourage or take any other action (including by providing information) designed to, or which could reasonably be expected to, facilitate any inquiries or the making or submission or implementation of any proposal or offer (including any proposal or offer to its stockholders) with respect to any Takeover Proposal; (ii) approve, publicly endorse or recommend or enter into any agreement, arrangement, discussions or understandings with respect to any Takeover Proposal (including any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding or confidentiality agreement) or enter into any Contract or understanding (including any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding or confidentiality agreement) requiring it to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate, or that is intended to or that could reasonably be expected to result in the abandonment of, termination of or failure to consummate, the Merger or any other Transaction; (iii) initiate or participate in any way in any negotiations or discussions regarding, or furnish or disclose to any Person (other than OCSL, OCSI or their respective Affiliates or Representatives) any information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate or in furtherance of any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal; (iv) publicly propose or publicly announce an intention to take any of the foregoing actions; or (v) grant any (x) approval pursuant to any Takeover Statute to any Person (other than OCSL, OCSI or their respective Affiliates) or with respect to any transaction (other than the Transactions) or (y) unless required by applicable fiduciary duties, waiver or release under any standstill or any similar agreement with respect to equity securities of OCSI or OCSL; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, each party (A) may inform Persons of the provisions contained in this Section 7.6, and (B) shall be permitted to grant a waiver of, or terminate, any "standstill" or similar obligation of any third party with respect to equity securities of OCSL or OCSI in order to allow such third party to confidentially submit a Takeover Proposal.

(b) Each of OCSI and OCSL shall as promptly as reasonably practicable (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours after receipt) (i) notify the other party in writing of any request for information or any Takeover Proposal and the terms and conditions of such request, Takeover Proposal or inquiry (including the identity of the Person (or group of Persons) making such request, Takeover Proposal or inquiry) and (ii) provide to the other party copies of any written materials received by OCSI or OCSL or their respective Representatives in connection with any of the foregoing, and the identity of the Person (or group of Persons) making any such request, Takeover Proposal or inquiry or with whom any discussions or negotiations are taking place. Each of OCSI and OCSL agrees that it shall keep the other party informed on a reasonably current basis of the status and the material terms and conditions (including amendments or proposed amendments) of any such request, Takeover Proposal or inquiry and keep the other party informed on a reasonably current basis of any information requested of or provided by OCSI or OCSL and as to the status of all discussions or negotiations with respect to any such request, Takeover Proposal or inquiry.

7.7. OCSI Takeover Proposals.

(a) If on or after the date of this Agreement and at any time prior to the OCSI Stockholders Meeting: (i) OCSI receives a bona fide unsolicited Takeover Proposal (under circumstances in which OCSI has complied in all material respects with the provisions of Sections 7.6(a) and (b)); (ii) the OCSI Special Committee shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that (x) failure to consider such Takeover Proposal would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSI directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable Law and (y) such Takeover Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in an OCSI Superior Proposal; and (iii) OCSI gives OCSL at least two (2) Business Days prior written notice of the identity of the Person making such Takeover Proposal, the terms and conditions of such Takeover Proposal and OCSI's intention to furnish information to, or participate in discussions or negotiations with, the Person making such Takeover Proposal then, subject to compliance with this Section 7.7(a), OCSI may:

(i) engage in negotiations or discussions with such Person who has made the unsolicited bona fide Takeover Proposal and provide information in response to a request therefor by a Person who has made such Takeover Proposal if OCSI (A) receives from such Person an executed confidentiality agreement with customary terms (including a standstill) and (B) provides OCSL a copy of all such information that has not previously been delivered to OCSL simultaneously with delivery to such Person (or such Person's Representatives and Affiliates); and

(ii) after fulfilling its obligations under Section 7.7(b) below, adopt, approve or recommend, or publicly propose to adopt, approve or recommend such Takeover Proposal, including entering into an agreement with respect thereto (collectively, a "Takeover Approval").

If on or after the date of this Agreement and at any time prior to the OCSI Stockholders Meeting, the OCSI Special Committee shall have determined after consultation with its outside legal counsel that continued recommendation of the OCSI Matters to OCSI's stockholders would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSI directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable Law as a result of an OCSI Superior Proposal, OCSI may (A) withdraw or qualify (or modify or amend in a manner adverse to OCSL), or publicly propose to withdraw or qualify (or modify or amend in a manner adverse to OCSL), the approval, adoption, recommendation or declaration of advisability by the OCSI Board of the OCSI Matters, including the recommendation of the OCSI Board that the stockholders of OCSI adopt this Agreement and approve the Transactions (the "OCSI Recommendation"), and (B) take any action or make any statement, filing or release, in connection with the OCSI Stockholders Meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with the OCSI Recommendation (any action described in clause (A) and (B) referred to collectively with any Takeover Approval as a "OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change").

(b) Upon any determination that a Takeover Proposal constitutes an OCSI Superior Proposal, OCSI shall promptly provide (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours of such determination) to OCSL a written notice (a "Notice of an OCSI Superior Proposal") (i) advising OCSL that the OCSI Board has received an OCSI Superior Proposal, (ii) specifying in reasonable detail the material terms and conditions of such OCSI Superior

Proposal, including the amount per share or other consideration that the stockholders of OCSI will receive in connection with the OCSI Superior Proposal and including a copy of all written materials provided to or by OCSI in connection with such OCSI Superior Proposal (unless previously provided to OCSL), and (iii) identifying the Person making such OCSI Superior Proposal. OCSI shall cooperate and negotiate in good faith with OCSL (to the extent OCSL desires to negotiate) during the five (5) calendar day period following OCSL's receipt of the Notice of an OCSI Superior Proposal (it being understood that any amendment to the financial terms or any other material term of such OCSI Superior Proposal shall require a new notice and a new two (2) calendar day period) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable OCSI to determine that such OCSI Superior Proposal is no longer an OCSI Superior Proposal and proceed with an OCSI Recommendation without an OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change. If thereafter the OCSI Special Committee determines, in its reasonable good faith judgment after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor and after giving effect to any proposed adjustments to the terms of this Agreement that such OCSI Superior Proposal remains an OCSI Superior Proposal or the failure to make such OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSI directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable Law, and OCSI has complied in all material respects with Section 7.7(a) above, OCSI may terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(c)(iv).

(c) Other than as permitted by Section 7.7(a), neither OCSI nor the OCSI Board shall make any OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change shall change the approval of the OCSI Matters or any other approval of the OCSI Board, including in any respect that would have the effect of causing any Takeover Statute or other similar statute to be applicable to the Transactions.

(d) OCSI shall provide OCSL with prompt written notice of any meeting of the OCSI Board at which the OCSI Board is reasonably expected to consider any Takeover Proposal (such written notice shall in any event be received by OCSL reasonably in advance of such meeting).

(e) Other than in connection with an OCSI Takeover Proposal, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or restrict the OCSI Board from taking any action described in clause (A) of the definition of OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change in response to an Intervening Event (an "OCSI Intervening Event Recommendation Change") if (A) prior to effecting any such OCSI Intervening Event Recommendation Change, OCSI promptly notifies OCSL, in writing, at least five (5) Business Days (the "OCSI Intervening Event Notice Period") before taking such action of its intent to consider such action (which notice shall not, by itself, constitute an OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change or an OCSI Intervening Event Recommendation Change), and which notice shall include a reasonably detailed description of the underlying facts giving rise to, and the reasons for taking, such action, (B) OCSI shall, and shall cause its Representatives to, during the OCSI Intervening Event Notice Period, negotiate with OCSL in good faith (to the extent OCSL desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement that would not permit the OCSI Board to make an OCSI Intervening Event Recommendation Change, and (C) the OCSI Special Committee determines, after consulting with outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, that the failure to effect such an OCSI Intervening Event Recommendation Change, as applicable, after taking into account any adjustments made by OCSL during the OCSI Intervening Event Notice Period, would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSI directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

(f) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to prohibit OCSI from (i) complying with its disclosure obligations under applicable U.S. federal or state Law with regard to any Takeover Proposal or (ii) making any disclosure to OCSI's stockholders if, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, OCSI determines that such disclosure would be required under applicable Law; provided, however, that any such disclosures (other than a "stop, look and listen" communication or similar communication of the type contemplated by Section 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act) shall be deemed to be an OCSI Adverse Recommendation Change unless the OCSI Board expressly publicly reaffirms the OCSI Recommendation (i) in such communication or (ii) within three (3) Business Days after being requested in writing to do so by OCSL.

7.8. OCSL Takeover Proposals.

(a) If on or after the date of this Agreement and at any time prior to the OCSL Stockholders Meeting: (i) OCSL receives a bona fide unsolicited Takeover Proposal (under circumstances in which OCSL has complied in all material respects with the provisions of Sections 7.6(a) and (b)); (ii) the OCSL Special Committee shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that (x) failure to consider such Takeover Proposal would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSL directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable Law and (y) such Takeover Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in an OCSL Superior Proposal; and (iii) OCSL gives OCSI at least two (2) Business Days prior written notice of the identity of the Person making such Takeover Proposal, the terms and conditions of such Takeover Proposal and OCSL's intention to furnish information to, or participate in discussions or negotiations with, the Person making such Takeover Proposal then, subject to compliance with this Section 7.8(a), OCSL may:

(i) engage in negotiations or discussions with such Person who has made the unsolicited bona fide Takeover Proposal and provide information in response to a request therefor by a Person who has made such Takeover Proposal if OCSL (A) receives from such Person an executed confidentiality agreement with customary terms (including a standstill) and (B) provides OCSI a copy of all such information that has not previously been delivered to OCSI simultaneously with delivery to such Person (or such Person's Representatives or Affiliates); and

(ii) after fulfilling its obligations under Section 7.8(b) below, effect a Takeover Approval.

If on or after the date of this Agreement and at any time prior to the OCSL Stockholders Meeting, the OCSL Special Committee shall have determined after consultation with its outside legal counsel that continued recommendation of the OCSL Matters to OCSL's stockholders would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSL directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable Law as a result of an OCSL Superior Proposal, OCSL may (A) withdraw or qualify (or modify or amend in a manner adverse to OCSI), or publicly propose to withdraw or qualify (or modify or amend in a manner adverse to OCSI), the approval, adoption, recommendation or declaration of advisability by the OCSL Board of the OCSL Matters, including the recommendation of the OCSL Board that the stockholders of OCSL approve the OCSL Matters (the "OCSL Recommendation"), and (B) take any action or make any statement, filing or release, in connection with the OCSL Stockholders Meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with the OCSL Recommendation (any action described in clause (A) and (B) referred to collectively with any Takeover Approval as an "OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change").

(b) Upon any determination that a Takeover Proposal constitutes an OCSL Superior Proposal, OCSL shall promptly provide (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours of such determination) to OCSI a written notice (a "Notice of an OCSL Superior Proposal") (i) advising OCSI that the OCSL Board has received an OCSL Superior Proposal, (ii) specifying in reasonable detail the material terms and conditions of such OCSL Superior Proposal, including the amount per share or other consideration that the stockholders of OCSL will receive in connection with the OCSL Superior Proposal and including a copy of all written materials provided to or by OCSL in connection with such OCSL Superior Proposal (unless previously provided to OCSI), and (iii) identifying the Person making such OCSL Superior Proposal. OCSL shall cooperate and negotiate in good faith with OCSI (to the extent OCSI desires to negotiate) during the five (5) calendar day period following OCSI's receipt of the Notice of an OCSL Superior Proposal (it being understood that any amendment to the financial terms or any other material term of such OCSL Superior Proposal shall require a new notice and a new two (2) calendar day period) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable OCSL to determine that such OCSL Superior Proposal is no longer an OCSL Superior Proposal and proceed with an OCSL Recommendation without an OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change. If thereafter the OCSL Special Committee determines, in its reasonable good faith judgment after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor and after giving effect to any proposed adjustments to the terms of this

Agreement that such OCSL Superior Proposal remains an OCSL Superior Proposal or the failure to make such OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSL directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable Law, and OCSL has complied in all material respects with Section 7.8(a) above, OCSL may terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(d)(iv).

(c) Other than as permitted by Section 7.8(a), neither OCSL nor the OCSL Board shall make any OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change shall change the approval of the OCSL Matters or any other approval of the OCSL Board, including in any respect that would have the effect of causing any Takeover Statute or other similar statute to be applicable to the Transactions.

(d) OCSL shall provide OCSI with prompt written notice of any meeting of the OCSL Board at which the OCSL Board is reasonably expected to consider any Takeover Proposal (such written notice shall in any event be received by OCSI reasonably in advance of such meeting).

(e) Other than in connection with an OCSL Takeover Proposal, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or restrict the OCSL Board from taking any action described in clause (A) of the definition of OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change in response to an Intervening Event (a "OCSL Intervening Event Recommendation Change") if (A) prior to effecting any such OCSL Intervening Event Recommendation Change, OCSL promptly notifies OCSI, in writing, at least five (5) Business Days (the "OCSL Intervening Event Notice Period") before taking such action of its intent to consider such action (which notice shall not, by itself, constitute an OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change or an OCSL Intervening Event Recommendation Change), and which notice shall include a reasonably detailed description of the underlying facts giving rise to, and the reasons for taking, such action, (B) OCSL shall, and shall cause its Representatives to, during the OCSL Intervening Event Notice Period, negotiate with OCSI in good faith (to the extent OCSI desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement that would not permit the OCSL Board to make an OCSL Intervening Event Recommendation Change, and (C) the OCSL Special Committee determines, after consulting with outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, that the failure to effect such an OCSL Intervening Event Recommendation Change, as applicable, after taking into account any adjustments made by OCSI during the OCSL Intervening Event Notice Period, would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the OCSL directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

(f) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to prohibit OCSL from (i) complying with its disclosure obligations under applicable U.S. federal or state Law with regard to any Takeover Proposal or (ii) making any disclosure to OCSL's stockholders if, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, OCSL determines that such disclosure would be required under applicable Law; provided, however, that any such disclosures (other than a "stop, look and listen" communication or similar communication of the type contemplated by Section 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act) shall be deemed to be an OCSL Adverse Recommendation Change unless the OCSL Board expressly publicly reaffirms the OCSL Recommendation (i) in such communication or (ii) within three (3) Business Days after being requested in writing to do so by OCSI.

7.9. Access to Information.

(a) Upon reasonable notice, except as may otherwise be restricted by applicable Law, each of OCSI and OCSL shall, and shall cause each of its Consolidated Subsidiaries to, afford to the directors, officers, accountants, counsel, advisors and other Representatives of the other party, reasonable access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to its properties, books, Contracts, and records and, during such period, such party shall, and shall cause its Consolidated Subsidiaries to, make available (including via EDGAR) to the other party all other information concerning its business and properties as the other party may reasonably request; provided that the foregoing shall not require OCSI or OCSL, as applicable, to afford access to or to disclose any information that in such party's reasonable judgment would violate any confidentiality obligations to which such party is subject to if after using its reasonable best efforts with respect thereto, it was unable to obtain any required consent to provide such access or make such disclosure; provided, further, that either OCSI or OCSL may restrict access to the extent required by any applicable Law or as may be necessary to preserve attorney-client privilege under any circumstances in which such privilege may be jeopardized by such disclosure or access.

(b) No investigation by a party hereto or its representatives shall affect or be deemed to modify the representations and warranties of the other party set forth in this Agreement.

7.10. Publicity. The initial press release with respect to the Transactions shall be a joint press release reasonably acceptable to each of OCSL and OCSI. Unless otherwise required by applicable Law or administrative action, (i) each of OCSI, OCSL and Merger Sub shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to qualify as a reorganization governed by Section 368(a) of the Code, including by not taking any action that such party knows is reasonably likely to prevent such qualification; and (ii) each of OCSI, OCSL and Merger Sub shall report the Mergers for U.S. federal income Tax purposes as a reorganization governed by Section 368(a) of the Code.

7.15. No Other Representations or Warranties. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that except for the representations and warranties of OCSI in Article III, representations and warranties of OCSL in Article IV and the representations and warranties of OFA in Article V, none of OFA, OCSI, OCSL or any of OCSI's or OCSL's respective Consolidated Subsidiaries or any other Person acting on behalf of the foregoing makes any representation or warranty, express or implied.

8.4. Frustration of Closing Conditions. None of OCSL, Merger Sub or OCSI may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in this Article VIII to be satisfied to excuse performance by such party of its obligations under this Agreement if such failure was caused by such party's failure to act in good faith or to use its commercially reasonable efforts to consummate the Merger and the Transactions.

ARTICLE IX

9.1. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after approval of the OCSI Matters by the stockholders of OCSI or the OCSL Matters by the stockholders of OCSL:

This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

9.6. Extension; Waiver. 11.3. Interpretation; Construction. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Articles, Sections, Exhibits or Schedules, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of or Exhibit or Schedule to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.” The terms “cash,” “dollars” and “$” mean United States dollars. All schedules and exhibits hereto shall be deemed part of this Agreement and included in any reference to this Agreement. Any singular term in this Agreement shall be deemed to include the plural, and any plural term the singular. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction contained in this Agreement is held by a court or a federal or state regulatory agency of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions and covenants and restrictions contained in this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated. If for any reason such court or regulatory agency determines that any term, provision, covenant or restriction is invalid, void or unenforceable, it is the express intention of the parties that such term, provision, covenant or restriction be enforced to the maximum extent permitted. The parties have jointly participated in negotiating and drafting this Agreement. In the event that an ambiguity or a question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any provision of this Agreement.

Table of Contents

11.4. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that each party need not sign the same counterpart. Counterparts may be delivered via facsimile, electronic mail (including any electronic signature covered by the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, Uniform Electronic Transactions Act, the Electronic Signatures and Records Act or other applicable law, e.g., www.docusign.com) or other transmission method and any counterpart so delivered shall be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes.

11.5. Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the documents and the instruments referred to in this Agreement) constitutes the entire agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

11.6. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts made and performed entirely within such state. The parties hereto agree that any Proceeding brought by any party to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the Transactions shall be brought in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, or if jurisdiction over the matter is vested exclusively in federal courts, the state or federal courts in the State of Delaware, and the appellate courts to which orders and judgments therefore may be appealed (collectively, the "Acceptable Courts"). Each of the parties hereto submits to the jurisdiction of any Acceptable Court in any Proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the Transactions and hereby irrevocably waives the benefit of jurisdiction derived from present or future domicile or otherwise in such Proceeding. Each party hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any Proceeding in any such Acceptable Court or that any such Proceeding brought in any such Acceptable Court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. Each party hereto (a) certifies that no representative of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of any action, suit or proceeding, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver, (b) certifies that it makes this waiver voluntarily and (c) acknowledges that it and the other parties hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement, by, among other things, the mutual waiver and certifications in this Section 11.6.

11.7. Assignment; Third Party Beneficiaries. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement shall be assigned by any of the parties (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other parties. Any purported assignment in contravention hereof shall be null and void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by each of the parties and their respective successors and assigns. Except as otherwise specifically provided in Section 7.5, this Agreement (including the documents and instruments referred to in this Agreement) is not intended to and does not confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies under this Agreement.

11.8. Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached, and that monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy therefor. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any federal or state court located in the State of Delaware, without proof of actual damages (and each party hereby waives any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy), this being in addition to any other remedy to which such party is entitled at law or in equity. Each of the parties hereto agrees that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief on the basis that any other party hereto has an adequate remedy at law or that any award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity.

11.9. Disclosure Schedule. Before entry into this Agreement, OCSL, OCSI and OFA each delivered to the other party a schedule (the “OCSL Disclosure Schedule”, the “OCSI Disclosure Schedule” and the “OFA Disclosure Schedule”, respectively, each, a “Disclosure Schedule”) that sets forth, among other things, items the disclosure of which is necessary or appropriate either in response to an express disclosure requirement contained in a provision hereof or as an exception to one or more representations or warranties contained in Article III, Article IV, or Article V, as applicable, or to one or more covenants contained herein; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the mere inclusion of an item as an exception to a representation or warranty shall not be deemed an admission that such item represents a material exception or material fact, event or circumstance or that such item has had or would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each Disclosure Schedule shall be numbered to correspond with the sections and subsections contained in this Agreement. The disclosure in any section or subsection of each Disclosure Schedule, shall qualify only (i) the corresponding section or subsection, as the case may be, of this Agreement, (ii) other sections or subsections of this Agreement to the extent specifically cross-referenced in such section or subsection thereof, and (iii) other sections or subsections of this Agreement to the extent it is reasonably apparent from a reading of the disclosure that such disclosure is applicable to such other sections or subsections.

Board of Directors

Dear Members of the Special Committee and the Board:

We understand that Oaktree Strategic Income Corporation (the “Company”) intends to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Agreement”) among the Company, Oaktree Specialty Lending Corporation (the “Acquiror”), Lion Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Acquiror (“Merger Sub”), and solely for the purposes set forth therein, Oaktree Fund Advisors, LLC (the “Advisor”), pursuant to which, among other things, (a) Merger Sub will merge with the Company (the “Merger”), with the Company as the surviving company in the Merger (the “Surviving Company”), (b) each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Company Common Stock”), of the Company will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Acquiror Common Stock”), of the Acquiror, equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the net asset value of the Company per share of Company Common Stock by the net asset value of the Acquiror per share of Acquiror Common Stock, each as to be determined in the manner and as of the date provided by the Agreement (the “Exchange Ratio”), (c) immediately following the Merger, the advisory agreement between the Company and the Advisor and the administration agreement between the Company and the Advisor will be terminated (together, the “Terminations”), and (d) immediately following the Terminations, the Surviving Company will merge (the “Second Merger”) with the Acquiror, with the Acquiror as the surviving company in the Second Merger.

The Special Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Company has requested that Houlihan Lokey Capital, Inc. (“Houlihan Lokey”) provide an opinion (the “Opinion”) to the Committee and the Board as to whether, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Merger pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Company Common Stock, other than the Acquiror and any of its consolidated subsidiaries, including Merger Sub (collectively, the “Excluded Holders”).

In connection with this Opinion, we have made such reviews, analyses and inquiries as we have deemed necessary and appropriate under the circumstances. Among other things, we have:

1. reviewed the Agreement, dated October 28, 2020;
2. reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to the Company and the Acquiror that we deemed to be relevant;
3. reviewed certain information relating to the historical, current and future operations, financial condition and prospects of the Company and the Acquiror made available to us by the Advisor, including (a) financial projections prepared by the management of the Advisor relating to the Company (the “Company Projections”), (b) financial projections prepared by the management of the Advisor relating to the Acquiror (the “Acquiror Projections”), and (c) solely for illustrative purposes, financial projections prepared by the management of the Advisor relating to the Acquiror after giving effect to the Merger (the “Pro Forma Acquiror Projections”);

4. spoken with certain members of the management of the Advisor and certain of its representatives and advisors regarding the respective businesses, operations, financial condition and prospects of the Company and the Acquiror, the Merger and related matters;
5. compared the financial and operating performance of the Company and the Acquiror with that of companies with publicly traded equity securities that we deemed to be relevant;
6. considered the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions that we deemed to be relevant;
7. reviewed the net asset value per share of the Company and the net asset value per share of the Acquiror as of June 30, 2020, prepared and provided to us by the Advisor, as adjusted for estimated transaction expenses provided by the Advisor (the "Adjusted June 30 NAVs");
8. compared the Exchange Ratio, determined on the basis of the Adjusted June 30 NAVs, to the relative value reference ranges that we believed were indicated by our financial analyses of the Company and the Acquiror;
9. reviewed the current and historical market prices for certain of the Company's and the Acquiror's publicly traded equity securities; and
10. conducted such other financial studies, analyses and inquiries and considered such other information and factors as we deemed appropriate.

We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all data, material and other information furnished, or otherwise made available, to us, discussed with or reviewed by us, or publicly available, and do not assume any responsibility with respect to such data, material and other information. In addition, management of the Advisor has advised us, and we have assumed, that the Company Projections, the Acquiror Projections and the Pro Forma Acquiror Projections have been reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management as to the future financial results and condition of the Company, the Acquiror on a standalone basis and the Acquiror after giving effect to the Merger, respectively. At your direction, we have assumed that the Company Projections and the Acquiror Projections provide a reasonable basis on which to evaluate the Company, the Acquiror and the Merger and we have, at your direction, used and relied upon the Company Projections and the Acquiror Projections for purposes of our analyses and this Opinion. We express no view or opinion with respect to the Company Projections, the Acquiror Projections, the Pro Forma Acquiror Projections or the respective assumptions on which they are based. We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that there has been no change in the business, assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or prospects of the Company or the Acquiror since the respective dates of the most recent financial statements and other information, financial or otherwise, provided to us that would be material to our analyses or this Opinion, and that there is no information or any facts that would make any of the information reviewed by us incomplete or misleading.

We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that (a) the representations and warranties of all parties to the Agreement and all other related documents and instruments that are referred to therein are true and correct, (b) each party to the Agreement and such other related documents and instruments will fully and timely perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party, (c) all conditions to the consummation of the Merger will be satisfied without waiver thereof, and (d) the Merger will be consummated in a timely manner in accordance with the terms described in the Agreement and such other related documents and instruments, without any amendments or modifications thereto that would be material to our analyses or this Opinion. We have also assumed that the Merger, together with the Second Merger, will qualify, for federal income tax purposes, as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that (i) the Merger will be consummated in a manner that complies in all respects with all applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations, and (ii) all governmental, regulatory, and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger will be obtained and that no delay, limitations, restrictions or conditions will be imposed or amendments, modifications or waivers made that would result in the disposition of any assets of the Company or the Acquiror, or otherwise have an effect on the Merger, the Company or the Acquiror or any expected benefits of the Merger that would be material to our analyses or this Opinion. In addition, we have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the final form of the Agreement will not differ from the draft of the Agreement identified above in any respect material to our analyses or this Opinion.

Furthermore, in connection with this Opinion, we have not been requested to make, and have not made, any physical inspection or independent appraisal or evaluation of any of the assets, properties or liabilities (fixed, contingent, derivative, off-balance-sheet or otherwise) of the Company, the Acquiror or any other party. We did not estimate, and express no opinion regarding, the liquidation value of any entity or business. We have undertaken no independent analysis of any potential or actual litigation, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities, to which the Company or the Acquiror is or may be a party or is or may be subject, or of any governmental investigation of any possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which the Company or the Acquiror is or may be a party or is or may be subject.

We have not been requested to, and did not, (a) initiate or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or solicit any indications of interest from, third parties with respect to the Merger, the securities, assets, businesses or operations of the Company, the Acquiror or any other party, or any alternatives to the Merger, or (b) advise the Committee, the Board or any other party with respect to alternatives to the Merger. This Opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. As you are aware, the credit, financial and stock markets have been experiencing unusual volatility and we express no opinion or view as to any potential effects of such volatility on the Merger, and this Opinion does not purport to address potential developments in any such markets. Furthermore, as you are aware, there is significant uncertainty as to the potential direct and indirect business, financial, economic and market implications and consequences of the spread of the coronavirus and associated illnesses and the actions and measures that countries, central banks, international financing and funding organizations, stock markets, businesses and individuals may take to address the spread of the coronavirus and associated illnesses including, without limitation, those actions and measures pertaining to fiscal or monetary policies, legal and regulatory matters and the credit, financial and stock markets (collectively, the "Pandemic Effects"), and the Pandemic Effects could have a material impact on our analyses and this Opinion. We have not undertaken, and are under no obligation, to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this Opinion, or otherwise comment on or consider events occurring or coming to our attention after the date hereof. We are not expressing any opinion as to what the value of Acquiror Common Stock actually will be when issued pursuant to the Merger or the price or range of prices at which Company Common Stock or Acquiror Common Stock may be purchased or sold, or otherwise be transferable, at any time. We have assumed that the shares of Acquiror Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to holders of Company Common Stock will be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market immediately following the consummation of the Merger.

This Opinion is furnished for the use of the Committee and the Board (each in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent. This Opinion is not intended to be, and does not constitute, a recommendation to the Committee, the Board, any security holder or any other party as to how to act or vote with respect to any matter relating to the Merger or otherwise.

In the ordinary course of business, certain of our employees and affiliates, as well as investment funds in which they may have financial interests or with which they may co-invest, may acquire, hold or sell, long or short positions, or trade, in debt, equity, and other securities and financial instruments (including loans and other obligations) of, or investments in, the Company, the Acquiror, or any other party that may be involved in the Merger and their respective affiliates or security holders or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the Merger.

(“Oaktree”), or one or more security holders or affiliates of, and/or portfolio companies of investment funds affiliated or associated with, Oaktree (collectively, with Oaktree, the “Oaktree Group”), for which Houlihan Lokey and its affiliates have received, and may receive, compensation, including, among other things, (i) having acted as financial advisor to PulseR, LLC, then a member of the Oaktree Group, in connection with its sale transaction, which closed in February 2020, (ii) having acted as financial advisor to Selene Holdings, LLC, then a member of the Oaktree Group, in connection with its sale transaction, which closed in November 2019, (iii) having acted as financial advisor to a noteholder group, of which one or more members of the Oaktree Group were members, in relation to their interests as noteholders of Claire’s Stores in connection with its chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings, which concluded in October 2018, and (iv) having provided and currently providing valuation advisory services for tax, financial reporting and other purposes to the Company as well as one or more members of the Oaktree Group. Houlihan Lokey and certain of its affiliates may provide investment banking, financial advisory and/or other financial or consulting services to the Company, members of the Oaktree Group, other participants in the Merger or certain of their respective affiliates or security holders in the future, for which Houlihan Lokey and its affiliates may receive compensation. In addition, Houlihan Lokey and certain of its affiliates and certain of our and their respective employees may have committed to invest in private equity or other investment funds managed or advised by Oaktree, other participants in the Merger or certain of their respective affiliates or security holders, and in portfolio companies of such funds, and may have co-invested with the members of the Oaktree Group, other participants in the Merger or certain of their respective affiliates or security holders, and may do so in the future. Furthermore, in connection with bankruptcies, restructurings, distressed situations and similar matters, Houlihan Lokey and certain of its affiliates may have in the past acted, may currently be acting and may in the future act as financial advisor to debtors, creditors, equity holders, trustees, agents and other interested parties (including, without limitation, formal and informal committees or groups of creditors) that may have included or represented and may include or represent, directly or indirectly, or may be or have been adverse to, the Company, the Acquiror, members of the Oaktree Group, other participants in the Merger or certain of their respective affiliates or security holders, for which advice and services Houlihan Lokey and its affiliates have received and may receive compensation.

Houlihan Lokey has acted as financial advisor to the Committee in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for such services, a portion of which became payable to Houlihan Lokey upon the rendering of this Opinion and a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the successful completion of the Merger. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse certain of our expenses and to indemnify us and certain related parties for certain potential liabilities arising out of our engagement.

This Opinion only addresses the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Company Common Stock other than the Excluded Holders, of the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Merger pursuant to the Agreement and does not address any other aspect or implication of the Merger, any related transaction or any agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection therewith or otherwise, including, without limitation, the Terminations or the Second Merger. We have not been requested to opine as to, and this Opinion does not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things: (i) the underlying business decision of the Committee, the Board, the Company, its security holders or any other party to proceed with or effect the Merger, (ii) the terms of any arrangements, understandings, agreements or documents related to, or the form, structure or any other portion or aspect of, the Merger or otherwise (other than the Exchange Ratio to the extent expressly specified herein), (iii) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Merger to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company, or to any other party, except if and only to the extent expressly set forth in the last sentence of this Opinion, (iv) the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might be available for the Company, the Acquiror or any other party, (v) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Merger to any one class or group of the Company’s or any other party’s security holders or other constituents vis-à-vis any other class or group of the Company’s or such other party’s security holders or other constituents (including, without limitation, the allocation of any consideration amongst or within such classes or groups of security holders or other constituents), (vi) whether or not the Company, the Acquiror, their respective security holders or any other party is receiving or paying reasonably equivalent value in the Merger, (vii) the solvency, creditworthiness or fair value of the Company, the Acquiror or any other participant in the Merger, or any of their respective assets, under any applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance or similar matters, or (viii) the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation to or consideration payable to or received by any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Merger, any class of such persons or any other party, relative to the Exchange Ratio or otherwise. Furthermore, we are not expressing any opinion, counsel or interpretation regarding matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other similar professional advice. It is assumed that such opinions, counsel or interpretations have been or will be obtained from the appropriate professional sources. Furthermore, we have relied, with the consent of the Committee, on the assessments by the Committee, the Board, the Company and their respective advisors, as to all legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance and tax matters with respect to the Company, the Acquiror and the Merger or otherwise. The issuance of this Opinion was approved by a committee authorized to approve opinions of this nature.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, and in reliance thereon, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Merger pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Company Common Stock other than the Excluded Holders.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Houlihan Lokey Capital, Inc.

Item 15. Indemnification.

Section 145 of the DGCL empowers a Delaware corporation to indemnify its officers and directors and specific other persons to the extent and under the circumstances set forth therein.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL allows a Delaware corporation to eliminate the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liabilities arising (a) from any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (b) from acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) under Section 174 of the DGCL; or (d) from any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Subject to the Investment Company Act or any valid rule, regulation or order of the SEC thereunder, OCSL's certificate of incorporation provides that OCSL will indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of OCSL, or is or was serving at the request of OCSL as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, in accordance with provisions corresponding to Section 145 of the DGCL. The Investment Company Act provides that a company may not indemnify any director or officer against liability to it or its security holders to which he or she might otherwise be subject by reason of his or her willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his or her office unless a determination is made by final decision of a court, by vote of a majority of a quorum of directors who are disinterested, non-party directors or by independent legal counsel that the liability for which indemnification is sought did not arise out of the foregoing conduct. In addition, OCSL's certificate of incorporation provides that the indemnification described therein is not exclusive and shall not exclude any other rights to which the person seeking to be indemnified may be entitled under statute, any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or directors who are not interested persons, or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and to his or her action in another capacity while holding such office.

The above discussion of Section 145 of the DGCL and OCSL's certificate of incorporation is not intended to be exhaustive and is respectively qualified in its entirety by such statute and OCSL's certificate of incorporation.

OCSL has obtained primary and excess insurance policies insuring its directors and officers against some liabilities they may incur in their capacity as directors and officers. Under such policies, the insurer, on OCSL's behalf, may also pay amounts for which OCSL has granted indemnification to its directors or officers.

Insofar as indemnification for liability arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of OCSL pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, OCSL has been advised that, in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by OCSL of expenses incurred or paid by a director, or officer of OCSL in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, OCSL will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion in connection with the proposed reorganization of Oaktree Strategic Income Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the “Fund”), and Oaktree Specialty Lending Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the “Acquiring Fund”), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 28, 2020 (the “Merger Agreement”), among the Fund, the Acquiring Fund, Lion Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned direct Consolidated Subsidiary of the Acquiring Fund (the “Merger Sub”) and Oaktree Fund Advisors, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. In the Reorganization (as defined below), the Merger Sub will merge with and into the Fund with the Fund surviving (the “First Merger”), after which the Fund will merge with and into the Acquiring Fund with the Acquiring Fund surviving (together with the First Merger, the “Reorganization”).

In connection with this opinion, we have examined the Registration Statement on Form N-14 (Registration No. 333-[●]) (as amended through the date hereof and including the joint proxy statement/prospectus contained therein, the “Registration Statement”), the Merger Agreement, the officer’s certificate of the Fund addressed to us, dated as of the date hereof (the “Fund Officer’s Certificate”), and the officer’s certificate of the Acquiring Fund addressed to us, dated as of the date hereof (together with the Fund Officer’s Certificate, the “Officer’s Certificates”). In rendering this opinion, we are assuming that the facts and information contained in the Registration Statement are true, correct and complete (including that the representations made by the Fund and the Acquiring Fund, are true, correct and complete now and will continue to be true, correct and complete at all times up to and including the Effective Time), that the representations made by the Fund and the Acquiring Fund in the Officer’s Certificates are true, correct and complete now and will continue to be true, correct and complete at all times up to and including the Effective Time, that any representations made in such Officer’s Certificates that are qualified by knowledge or qualifications of like import are true, correct and complete and will continue to be true, correct and complete at all times up to and including the Effective Time, without such qualifications, and we are relying on each of such representations. In addition, our opinion set forth below assumes (i) the genuineness of all signatures, (ii) the legal capacity of natural persons and the authenticity of all documents we have examined, (iii) the authenticity of any document submitted to us as originals, (iv) the conformity to the original of all copies of documents submitted to us, (v) the authenticity of the originals of such copies, (vi) the accuracy of the representations of each party to the Merger Agreement, (vii) the accuracy of the oral or written statements and representations of officers and other representatives of the Fund and the Acquiring Fund, (viii) the due authority, execution and delivery by each of the parties to the Merger Agreement, (ix) that the Merger Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of each of the parties thereto, (x) that each of the representations set forth in the Officer’s Certificates is and will remain true, correct and complete and (xi) that each of the parties to the Merger Agreement will perform all of its obligations in the manner described therein. Any capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Merger Agreement.

Beijing | Boca Raton | Boston | Chicago | Hong Kong | London | Los Angeles | New Orleans | New York | Paris | São Paulo | Washington, DC

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, and our consideration of such other matters of fact and law as we have considered necessary or appropriate, it is our opinion, under presently applicable United States federal income tax law, that (i) the Reorganization will be treated as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and (ii) each of the Fund, the Acquiring Fund, and Merger Sub is a party to the Reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code.

This opinion is limited to the tax matters specifically covered herein, and we have not been asked to address, nor have we addressed, any other tax consequences of the Reorganization. The opinion herein is based on current authorities and upon facts and assumptions as of the date of this opinion, including those described as above. The opinion is subject to change in the event of a change in the applicable law or change in the interpretation of such law by the courts or by the Internal Revenue Service, or a change in any of the facts and assumptions upon which it is based. There is no assurance that legislative or administrative changes or court decisions may not be forthcoming that would significantly modify the statements and opinions expressed herein. Any such changes may or may not be retroactive with respect to transactions prior to the date of such changes. This opinion represents only our best legal judgment, and has no binding effect or official status of any kind, so that no assurance can be given that the positions set forth above will be sustained by a court, if contested.

This opinion is furnished to you only for use in connection with the Reorganization and the Registration Statement. We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement, and to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to any application made by or on behalf of the Acquiring Fund or any distributor or dealer in connection with the qualification of the Acquiring Fund Shares under the securities laws of any state or jurisdiction, and to the references to our firm name in the joint proxy statement/prospectus in connection with the references to this opinion and the material United States federal income tax consequences of the Reorganization. In giving such consent, we do not thereby admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder.

Very truly yours,
